

BURIED IN A TRENCH. Horse and Cart Tumble In Upon Three Workmen. All Were Injured, One of Them Probably Fatally.

The Excavation Was on the Broadway Line, on Seventy Avenue.

On the Broadway cable line, in front of 791 Seventh avenue, workmen were shifting tracks this morning, and had opened a trench about six feet deep.

The injured men are: William Mc Govern, twenty-five years old, of 645 Tenth avenue, ribs fractured, left shoulder dislocated, and internal injuries, will probably die.

Martin Kelly, thirty-one years old, of 84 Eleventh avenue, shoulder dislocated.

John Coyle, forty, of 33 Tenth avenue, injured internally.

All the injured men were taken to Roosevelt Hospital. The driver of the cart, Hugh Burns, of 255 West Fortieth street, was arrested, and in Yorkville Court was held in $200 bail to await the result of Mc Govern's injuries.

The cart driver, Burns, is a heavy one, owned by the Broadway Cable Construction Company, and used to carry away the dirt dug from the excavation.

Burns had backed his horse and cart within two feet of the excavation to get a load. Then he stepped aside to light his pipe. Suddenly the horse, who was digging away, started.

From appearances, it looked as if the combination of the safe had been hit with a bullet, and that a fuse had been put in the combination.

Besides carrying away the stamps, the burglar took some legal documents, which belonged to Postmaster English, and which were in the safe. The depot man said that it is a wonder that the building was not wrecked by the force of the explosion.

The depot was occupied by Postmaster English's coal and wood office, M. J. Donlon's office, the ticket office, and the office of the railroad and the Post-Office. So far as known neither the coal office nor Mr. Donlon's office nor Mr. English's office was touched.

This is the seventh time the Post-Office has been robbed. Each time, however, the safe has not been touched. The Post-Office through which the mail was delivered for the New York Athletic Club at Travers Island, and this is the reason why so many stamps were kept there.

The thieves are believed to have escaped to New York in a freight train.

EX-POSTMASTER ARRESTED. Neil Heppburn of City Island, Accused of Embezzling $1,700.

Neil Heppburn, forty-one years of age, the ex-Postmaster of the United States Post-Office at City Island, New York, was arrested last night on a charge of embezzling $1,700 of the funds of the office.

On the complaint of United States Post-Office Inspector George Beavers, United States Commissioner Alexander issued a warrant for Heppburn's arrest, which was given to Deputy United States Marshal Strauchfeld to serve.

After a close search of the various resorts at City Island, Deputy Strauchfeld found Heppburn in a saloon, very drunk, and brought to the city and locked up in Ludlow Street Jail.

Heppburn's term of office expired March 1, and since then he has been drinking very heavily. His face is badly bruised from a fight he had a couple of days ago with his brother-in-law. He was very nervous from drink this morning when taken to the Federal building.

DOG SCARED THE BURGLAR. Then Gascon Tried to Feign Sleep in a Morion Bed.

The barking of Janitor Schurchar's dog in the basement of the apartment-house, 219 East Seventy-third street, this morning saved the house from a burglary.

The barking of the dog was followed by the crashing of glass and the falling of a morion bed. The burglar, who had been sleeping there all night, but could see no one.

In the mean time, Policeman Bower, of the East Sixty-seventh street station, saw a man run from the basement. He chased him down to Third Street, where he was arrested.

Here the fugitive lay down in a bed of morion and feigned sleep. The burglar, who had been panting furiously and covered with perspiration, looked at him, and said he had been sleeping there all night.

Bower arrested him, and he gave his name as William Gascon, a resident of 1067 First avenue, in Yorkville. Court this morning he was held for examination.

Bank Teller Accused. (By Associated Press.) KANSAS CITY, Sept. 25.—Kaiser Bishop and thirty-six, receiving teller of the S. Mills bank, a private confession, was arrested last night with embezzling $1,000 from the bank's funds. He claims the charge is false. Bishop's folks are well-to-do Eastern people.

Blocked a Car Track. Peter Behan, of 98 North Fourth street, was arrested last night for blocking a car track. He was charged with obstructing the passage of a car on the street-car track at the corner of North Fourth and Broadway.

When Asked to Move On Behan Attacked a Policeman. Peter Behan, of 98 North Fourth street, was arrested last night for blocking a car track. He was charged with obstructing the passage of a car on the street-car track at the corner of North Fourth and Broadway.

After Highwaysmen. Three Men Arrested for the Horrific 'Hold-Up' Not Identified. Three arrests were made by the police last night in connection with the 'holding-up' of an Eighth Avenue street-car at Abington Square, last Thursday night.

The prisoners are Walter Gomer, colored, William King, colored, and Charles Colley.

In Jefferson Market Police Court this morning, Judge Gorman sentenced the three men to the House of Correction for a term of three months.

Wants Damages for a Kick. South has been taken in the City Court by Joseph Kacher, of 246 East Fourth street, to recover $2,000 damages against the Third Avenue Elevated Company. Kacher, who is represented by James H. Miller, of 215 Broadway, charges the company with kicking him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

BLEW OPEN THE SAFE. Burglars Rob Pelham Manor Post-Office of $950 in Stamps.

The Safe Was in the Depot and Was Totally Wrecked.

Robbers Believed to Have Escaped to New York by Train.

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Burglars visited Pelham Manor early this morning and robbed the Post-Office which was situated in the depot. Pelham Manor is three miles west of this place, and is situated on the Harlem River branch of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad.

It was about 2 o'clock when the residents were awakened by a terrific explosion, which shook the whole neighborhood. The two watchmen of the place were about half a mile away in opposite directions from the scene of the explosion. One of them was patrolling his beat and was in front of the residence of Rev. A. F. Penny and the other was near the home of Albert C. Hoosvelt.

The watchman near the home of Rev. Mr. Penny ran to the home of Baggage-master Skinner, and the two went to the residence of Postmaster English. They went to the depot, and when they reached there they found the Post-Office a complete wreck.

The heavy iron safe, in which $950 worth of stamps had been, was a complete wreck, and the stamps were missing. The door to the ticket office of the railroad was torn from its hinges by the force of the explosion. Every thing in the room was thrown around. The walls were shattered and the heavy iron door of the safe was blown to pieces.

From appearances, it looked as if the combination of the safe had been hit with a bullet, and that a fuse had been put in the combination.

Besides carrying away the stamps, the burglar took some legal documents, which belonged to Postmaster English, and which were in the safe. The depot man said that it is a wonder that the building was not wrecked by the force of the explosion.

The depot was occupied by Postmaster English's coal and wood office, M. J. Donlon's office, the ticket office, and the office of the railroad and the Post-Office. So far as known neither the coal office nor Mr. Donlon's office nor Mr. English's office was touched.

This is the seventh time the Post-Office has been robbed. Each time, however, the safe has not been touched. The Post-Office through which the mail was delivered for the New York Athletic Club at Travers Island, and this is the reason why so many stamps were kept there.

The thieves are believed to have escaped to New York in a freight train.

EX-POSTMASTER ARRESTED. Neil Heppburn of City Island, Accused of Embezzling $1,700.

Neil Heppburn, forty-one years of age, the ex-Postmaster of the United States Post-Office at City Island, New York, was arrested last night on a charge of embezzling $1,700 of the funds of the office.

On the complaint of United States Post-Office Inspector George Beavers, United States Commissioner Alexander issued a warrant for Heppburn's arrest, which was given to Deputy United States Marshal Strauchfeld to serve.

After a close search of the various resorts at City Island, Deputy Strauchfeld found Heppburn in a saloon, very drunk, and brought to the city and locked up in Ludlow Street Jail.

Heppburn's term of office expired March 1, and since then he has been drinking very heavily. His face is badly bruised from a fight he had a couple of days ago with his brother-in-law. He was very nervous from drink this morning when taken to the Federal building.

DOG SCARED THE BURGLAR. Then Gascon Tried to Feign Sleep in a Morion Bed.

The barking of Janitor Schurchar's dog in the basement of the apartment-house, 219 East Seventy-third street, this morning saved the house from a burglary.

The barking of the dog was followed by the crashing of glass and the falling of a morion bed. The burglar, who had been sleeping there all night, but could see no one.

In the mean time, Policeman Bower, of the East Sixty-seventh street station, saw a man run from the basement. He chased him down to Third Street, where he was arrested.

Here the fugitive lay down in a bed of morion and feigned sleep. The burglar, who had been panting furiously and covered with perspiration, looked at him, and said he had been sleeping there all night.

Bower arrested him, and he gave his name as William Gascon, a resident of 1067 First avenue, in Yorkville. Court this morning he was held for examination.

Bank Teller Accused. (By Associated Press.) KANSAS CITY, Sept. 25.—Kaiser Bishop and thirty-six, receiving teller of the S. Mills bank, a private confession, was arrested last night with embezzling $1,000 from the bank's funds. He claims the charge is false. Bishop's folks are well-to-do Eastern people.

Blocked a Car Track. Peter Behan, of 98 North Fourth street, was arrested last night for blocking a car track. He was charged with obstructing the passage of a car on the street-car track at the corner of North Fourth and Broadway.

When Asked to Move On Behan Attacked a Policeman. Peter Behan, of 98 North Fourth street, was arrested last night for blocking a car track. He was charged with obstructing the passage of a car on the street-car track at the corner of North Fourth and Broadway.

After Highwaysmen. Three Men Arrested for the Horrific 'Hold-Up' Not Identified. Three arrests were made by the police last night in connection with the 'holding-up' of an Eighth Avenue street-car at Abington Square, last Thursday night.

The prisoners are Walter Gomer, colored, William King, colored, and Charles Colley.

In Jefferson Market Police Court this morning, Judge Gorman sentenced the three men to the House of Correction for a term of three months.

Wants Damages for a Kick. South has been taken in the City Court by Joseph Kacher, of 246 East Fourth street, to recover $2,000 damages against the Third Avenue Elevated Company. Kacher, who is represented by James H. Miller, of 215 Broadway, charges the company with kicking him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

He claims that the company's horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894, kicked him on the head with a horse, while employed with the company as a stable-boy, on the morning of August 19, 1894.

MUNYON'S DENIAL. The Learned Professor Publishes the Proof.

Stands Pledged to Show that His New Discoveries Have None of the Defects of Old-Fashioned Remedies. Has Friends Give Positive Evidence.

Mr. John R. Phillips, of 188 Franklin ave., Brooklyn, says: "I have been cured of catarrh of the prostate, and I was most surprised as appeared to any other form of treatment. Professor Munyon's method is a blessing to those who have suffered the dangers of cutting and burning so much used by the medical profession. I was surprised by the first treatment under the Professor. His mild and soothing application gave me immediate relief, and during the successive treatments I made such rapid progress that I was promptly and completely cured. The success of the new method is wonderful."

Has No Lax or Poisonous Drugs. Mrs. Mangin, 140 West Twenty-ninth st., says: "I was victimized by allopathic doctors until my system was filled with poisonous drugs, and at last I decided to never take any other dose of allopathic medicine. I read a great deal about Munyon's new method, and determined to try it; so last Winter, when I was attacked by the grip, I sent to Professor Munyon's office for his simple, Homoeopathic remedy. The first dose relieved me of the frightful pain, and in a few hours I was able to sit up. I was so delighted with the prompt cure that I have used Munyon's Remedies ever since."

Why Not Try the New Methods? Why pay big doctor bills for your constitutional ailments, such as catarrh of the bladder, gonorrhea, and gonitis? Why not try Prof. Munyon's new methods? Munyon's remedies are perfectly harmless and contain positive cures for the most obstinate as well as the most intractable diseases.

If you are in doubt what remedy to take, call on Professor Munyon for a thorough medical examination. Absolutely no charge for examinations or advice. Open all day, Sundays, 10 to 5 P. M., East Broadway, between Fifth avenue and Union Square.

Munyon's Remedies sold all druggists.

HE THINKS HE WAS DRUGGED. Cotton Broker Purvis Found Drunk on Thirty-ninth Street.

He at First Accused His Companion, Walter Francis Hart.

Policeman Schmittberger, of the West Thirtieth street station, is investigating the robbery story told by George Purvis, a cotton broker, stopping at the Sinclair House.

Purvis was taken to the station-house last night so under the influence of liquor that he could scarcely give any account of himself. He was found lying in an arway in front of a highly respectable building on Thirty-ninth street, three doors east of Sixth avenue.

In his company was Francis Hart, who said he is a waiter at the Washington, in East Twenty-third street. The policeman, Maxkner, who found Purvis, however, told the policeman that Hart had robbed him of his gold watch and chain, a diamond pin, and a cash. Only 20 cents were found in Hart's possession.

Subsequently, Purvis and Hart were arraigned before Justice Hogan in Jefferson Market Court. Purvis being charged with robbing Hart, and Hart with being a suspicious person. Purvis changed front in the court, and declared that he was not the man who had taken anything that happened after I took the drink, and accused his companion, Purvis and Hart were both discharged.

There must have been a "knocker-out" drop in the drink. I don't remember anything that happened after I took the drink, and accused his companion, Purvis and Hart were both discharged.

THINK SHE'S A FIREBUG. Mrs. Carr Said to Have Removed Valuables and Fired Her Rooms.

James Carr, a Pullman car porter, and his wife, Ellen, occupy rooms on the second floor of 148 Seventh avenue. Mrs. Carr was arrested last night by Policeman Grier, of the Sixth street station.

She is supposed to know all about the attempt that was made to burn the building last night.

Eight people live in the house found of oil-soaked rags in different parts of the building. The fire was reported to the Fire Marshal, and it was discovered that Mrs. Carr, when she was arrested, was carrying all her money and a fire insurance policy for $5,000.

At Jefferson Market Court to-day Mrs. Carr was remanded to give the police a chance to further investigate the case.

SCARED BY THE COOK. Other Kitchens Attached Fled from Gormer and His Cleave.

Michael Gormer, a French cook, employed at the Waldor, on the corner of the street, was arrested last night by Policeman Grier, of the Sixth street station.

The man was arrested and described as being a tall, thin man, with a mustache, and wearing a dark coat and a hat.

He refused to get off the car, and when Policeman Matthews endeavored to arrest him, he started in to do him up. He got in one good blow before he was subdued and taken to the Bedford street station.

The prisoner is a member of a family that has made things lively for the Waldor, on the corner of the street, was arrested last night by Policeman Grier, of the Sixth street station.

At one time Mr. Behan, his wife and three children were growing up in the court together. He was arrested last night by Policeman Grier, of the Sixth street station.

THREE LETTERS. To remember - P. P. P. They'll help to remind you of Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

Let's just what you need - in side, sugar-coated, pleasant to take and pleasant in the way they act. They tone up and strengthen the lining membranes of the stomach and bowels, and do permanent good.

To prevent, relieve, and cure Biliousness, Headaches, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Indigestion, and all the ailments that result from a disordered system, take Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. In every case, you will find them a money-back.

IN CHARGE. (From an Exchange.) He kissed her hand. "Believe me, darling," he protested, "I would not marry for money alone, as the cruel world has told you, and I will not divorce her right hand."

She is a plain-looking woman, of middle age, but not of fashionable connections. She is a widow, and has a small fortune. She is a widow, and has a small fortune. She is a widow, and has a small fortune.

THE BANK FOR S'VINGS. IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK. 280 4TH AVE. NOTICE TO DEPOSITORS.

ON AND AFTER OCT. 1, 1894, the bank will be MONDAYS FROM 10 A. M. TO 5 P. M. SATURDAYS FROM 10 A. M. TO 12 M. OTHER DAYS FROM 10 A. M. TO 3 P. M. Sundays and holidays excepted.

FALL OVERCOATS. The cool weather is here. You certainly need a Fall Overcoat, either a light-weight Kersey, Covert Cloth, Cheviot or Diagonal, cost $10, $12 or $15.

First Grades, $18-Lined, at Proportionately Low Prices.

VOGEL BROTHERS. (Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings).

8th Ave., Cor. 42d St.

For the convenience of our customers, we are open on Saturdays, from 10 A. M. to 12 M.

Write for our Catalogue, and we will send you the new styles.

Ask for our Special Men's $3.00 shoes, in narrow, medium and wide toes. We guarantee every pair to give satisfaction.

OP IN YOUR EYES. TO THE FACT THAT WE ARE SELLING DOWN ON CREDIT, AT CASH PRICES, AND ARE FURNISHING FLATS COMPLETE FOR LESS MONEY THAN ANY CONCERN IN THE CITY—THE PRICES NAMED BELOW WILL SATISFY YOU OF THIS, AS THEY INCLUDE:

Everything for Housekeeping, FURNITURE, CARPETS, BEDDING, STOVES, CLOCKS, CURTAINS, PICTURES, LAMPS, CROCKERY, TINWARE, ETC.

3 ROOM FLAT, $75.00. 4 " " " $95.00. 5 " " " $115.00.

REMEMBER, THIS OFFER IS A NONA-FIDE ONE; WE DO EXACTLY AS WE STATE, AND GIVE LONGEST TERMS OF CREDIT.

CASH NOT NECESSARY. J. Baumann & Bro.

1313 to 1315 Third Ave., bet. 75th and 76th Sts. 76TH ST. ELEVATED RR. OR CARLE CARS. Open Saturdays 10 to 12 P. M.

MURPHY FORGOT HIS HELMET. The Battle-Ship Puts to Sea to Test Her Engines.

That Led to His Being Named as Mrs. Doyle's Co-respondent.

The Wronged Husband Threw Him Into the Street and He Fled.

Judge McAdam, of the Superior Court, to-day heard the suit of Edward Doyle for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Doyle, Policeman Bernard Murphy, of the West Twentieth street station, was named as co-respondent.

The Doyles were married June 4, 1890. They formerly lived at 42 West Thirty-first street. Doyle alleges that on Aug. 22 last, he returned to his home unexpectedly and found Policeman Murphy there. He promptly threw the policeman downstairs and threw his uniform out of a window to him on the street.

The policeman dressed hurriedly and left without picking up his helmet. Doyle did not know the policeman's name, but he took the helmet which was on the floor of the room, and took it to the West Thirtieth street police station, and there he was identified as Bernard Murphy.

Subsequently, Doyle alleges, he ascertained that the name of the policeman who had taken the helmet was Bernard Murphy, and that his name was Bernard Murphy.

Mrs. Doyle's co-respondent, Judge McAdam granted the decree.

THE MAINE'S FIRST TRIAL TRIP. The Battle-Ship Puts to Sea to Test Her Engines.

That Led to His Being Named as Mrs. Doyle's Co-respondent.

The Wronged Husband Threw Him Into the Street and He Fled.

Judge McAdam, of the Superior Court, to-day heard the suit of Edward Doyle for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Doyle, Policeman Bernard Murphy, of the West Twentieth street station, was named as co-respondent.

The Doyles were married June 4, 1890. They formerly lived at 42 West Thirty-first street. Doyle alleges that on Aug. 22 last, he returned to his home unexpectedly and found Policeman Murphy there. He promptly threw the policeman downstairs and threw his uniform out of a window to him on the street.

The policeman dressed hurriedly and left without picking up his helmet. Doyle did not know the policeman's name, but he took the helmet which was on the floor of the room, and took it to the West Thirtieth street police station, and there he was identified as Bernard Murphy.

Subsequently, Doyle alleges, he ascertained that the name of the policeman who had taken the helmet was Bernard Murphy, and that his name was Bernard Murphy.

Mrs. Doyle's co-respondent, Judge McAdam granted the decree.

THE MAINE'S FIRST TRIAL TRIP. The Battle-Ship Puts to Sea to Test Her Engines.

That Led to His Being Named as Mrs. Doyle's Co-respondent.

The Wronged Husband Threw Him Into the Street and He Fled.

Judge McAdam, of the Superior Court, to-day heard the suit of Edward Doyle for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Doyle, Policeman Bernard Murphy, of the West Twentieth street station, was named as co-respondent.

The Doyles were married June 4, 1890. They formerly lived at 42 West Thirty-first street. Doyle alleges that on Aug. 22 last, he returned to his home unexpectedly and found Policeman Murphy there. He promptly threw the policeman downstairs and threw his uniform out of a window to him on the street.

The policeman dressed hurriedly and left without picking up his helmet. Doyle did not know the policeman's name, but he took the helmet which was on the floor of the room, and took it to the West Thirtieth street police station, and there he was identified as Bernard Murphy.

Subsequently, Doyle alleges, he ascertained that the name of the policeman who had taken the helmet was Bernard Murphy, and that his name was Bernard Murphy.

Mrs. Doyle's co-respondent, Judge McAdam granted the decree.

THE MAINE'S FIRST TRIAL TRIP. The Battle-Ship Puts to Sea to Test Her Engines.

That Led to His Being Named as Mrs. Doyle's Co-respondent.

The Wronged Husband Threw Him Into the Street and He Fled.