(Special to The Evening World.)
RACE TRACK, MORRIS PARK, Oct. 8.—The smallest crowd that ever attended races at Morris Park probably filled through the gates here to-day. To look at the grand stand between races, one would never suppose that it was a race day. It was entirely deserted, save when the races were being contested. Not more than 2,000 persons were present. The weather was pleasant, and the track in fine shape.

The special race of Saturday was much discussed to-day. Dominio's supporters were as loyal as ever, and argue that he could not have been himself, while Henry of Navarre's friends believed that the chestnut son of Knight of Eileasie could beat Dominio from a quarter up to two miles. Another special is talked of, but it is hardly probable that the trio will come together again this year.

John McCafferty told his friends that Tom Harding was good, and worth a bet in the new races. Having confidence in the owner-trainer's tip, the friends plunged on Tom Harding. They were disappointed, however, for Silvie led from start to finish and won by two lengths. Ed Kearney was third, and Kennel, the winner of the second race, was bid up to $4,000, at which price his owner retained him. He was entered to be sold for $1,000. Jimmy Kelly, who had an 8-10 odds against Paul Dwyer, did the bidding.

Grimm, the filer of Roche, was called in the stand after the fifth race. He explained the running of the favorite. It was hardly Grimm's fault that the horse did not do well. He was overworked and sore, and could never extend himself in the race.
