A TALK WITH PARENTS.

From the time the average boy is fourteen until he gets his first mustache he devotes as much thought to his personal appearance as his grown sister. He is particular as to where his clothes are bought and favors stores like ours. Now, at our upper store we have some overcoats that are sure to please him. Ten dollars is the price. They were fifteen and eighteen dollars last year.

Will keep their shape and wear longer than any other style of Shoe. Nowhere else can this desirable line of Shoes be bought. I ask less for this commendable Shoe than is charged for the inferior and ordinary Shoes elsewhere.
