

GEN. BOOTH COMING.

The Commander of the Salvation Army Will Arrive To-Night.

Monday Will Open a Great Hallelujah Week for His Forces.

Parades, Councils, Lectures and Banquets on the Programme.

After an absence of seven years, Gen. William Booth is coming to superintend a series of grand manoeuvres and make a National tour of inspection through the American camps of his command, the Salvation Army.

The general, who has just concluded a tour of the maritime provinces of Canada, will reach New York to-night. He will make his arrival unostentatiously, being met by his son, Ballington, at the station, and will go to the Plaza Hotel.

His public appearance will be attended with the characteristic demonstrations of the Army in full force. The programme covers almost the whole of next week and consists of daily parades, outdoor meetings, indoor meetings, bands, banners, hymns, shouts, mat-shouting, tambos, brass drums, trombones and a grand hallelujah time generally.

On Monday the grand features of his reception will begin. His visit will be made the occasion of a congress of officers and troops from all parts of the country. A noon prayer-meeting will be held in the Church of the Strangers, Eighth and Market streets, conducted by the Commander and visiting staff.

On Wednesday will be the "Big Day of Salvation," with a continuous meeting in Cooper Union from morning till night. There will be present 150 staff officers, 1,000 officers and 1,000 delegates.

The following week Gen. Booth will start on his tour, with the intention of visiting forty or more cities in the United States and returning to New York in February.

WILL FIGHT THE AMENDMENT.

Horse Owners and Turfmen Aroused to Quick Action.

Judge Burke and Col. Bruce Give Strong Arguments Against It.

Turfmen partly organized at the Gilsey House last night to discuss the anti-gambling amendment adopted at the recent Constitutional Convention.

The initiative was taken by the trotting horse breeders, who realize that inculcable harm will be done to the breeding interests of this and other States should the amendment pass.

The Jockey Club was not represented, but they have not decided to remain passive in the matter, as told in "The Evening World."

"Men has been said about the so-called gambling features indispensable to horse racing. No man is compelled to bet on racing, unless he wishes to.

"In all civilized countries betting on racing is considered a legitimate business. Many efforts have been made to put a stop to it, but they have all failed.

"In the State of Connecticut trotting has been nearly killed in the last two years, and undoubtedly will be killed in the State of New York.

"With the very best administration of turf affairs which it is possible to humanely administer, it is a better business in America than in any other country if hostile legislation be ever enacted.

"An 'Evening World' reporter called on Col. S. D. Bruce this morning. Col. Bruce is proprietor of the Great Field and Farm, and compiler of the American Stud Book. He said:

POINTERS ON THE RACES.

Rather a Poor Programme to Be Decided at St. Asaph.

Track Is Dry and Fast—Narragansett Selections.

"EVENING WORLD" SELECTIONS. First Race—Handspan, Kennel, Lobengula.

Second Race—Will Elliott, Little Mat, St. Michael.

Third Race—Jack of Spades, Harrington, Factotum.

Fourth Race—Firt, Pochino, Werbner.

Fifth Race—Parthena, Ninevah, The Clown.

Sixth Race—Pultzer, McIntyre, Prince Klamath.

ST. ASAPH, Va., Oct. 18.—The fields in the various events to be decided here to-day are rather slim.

The opening event Handspan looks to have an excellent chance, though Kennel, a much improved colt, will make the handsome daughter of Handspan run fast.

RICHARD'S GREAT CLOAK SALE

Special Notice to the Hundreds of Customers we were unable to wait upon yesterday.

OUR GREAT CLOAK SALE Still Continues, AND WILL CONTINUE UNTIL ALL ARE SOLD.

Hundreds of new, stylish and elegant Coats, Wraps and Capes un-paired to-day, and will be placed on sale to-morrow and Monday—we assert most positively that this is

THE OPPORTUNITY OF A LIFETIME TO PURCHASE CLOAKS.

- All the $15.00 GARMENTS Marked to $4.00
All the 20.00 GARMENTS Marked to 6.00
All the 30.00 GARMENTS Marked to 8.00
All the 40.00 GARMENTS Marked to 12.00
All the 50.00 GARMENTS Marked to 17.00

Twenty-five extra salespersons engaged to-day, so that customers can be waited upon promptly.

NARRAGANSETT ENTRIES.

- RACE TRACK, NARRAGANSETT PARK, Oct. 18.—The entries and selections for to-day's races are as follows:
First Race—Six and one-half furlongs.
Laurel 112, Milan 109, Elieho 114, Evenly Weight 111, Solite 106, Quasado 107, Onward 114, Eddy's Victim 111, Clement 111, Galloping King 110, Disappointment 121, Casanova 102, Reginald 114, Harry Hinkins 114, Blackfoot 112, Long Brock 112, Harrington 112, Jack of Spades 115, Factotum 110, Foxford 114, Gossamer geld 109, LaJoyra 112.

He Had a Good Reason. (From the Detroit Free Press.) Tommy's Father (sternly)—What were you flitting that bad boy for, Tommy? Tommy—To keep from gettin' licked.

COWPERTHWAIT'S CARPETS

When the Tariff Question was settled and we had to open our new store with a fresh stock of Carpets made on this basis, which in itself is a great saving in cost of production.

HOUSE FURNITURE OF ALL KINDS, IN QUALITY, DESIGN AND FINISH OF THE BEST. EVERY-THING TO MAKE A HOUSE ATTRACTIVE, NEAT AND PRETTY.

ST. ASAPH RACING NOTES. (Special to The Evening World.) RACE TRACK, ST. ASAPH, Oct. 18.—Today's opening of the new Virginia Jockey Club was most flattering to the backers of the venture.

HAMMERSLOUGH BROS., Bleeker St., cor. Greene, (bet. Broadway and the 6th Ave. "L").

CASPERFELD & CO., SUCCESSORS TO CASPERFELD & CLEVELAND, 144 BOWERY 144

WE SELL DIAMONDS FOR ONE QUARTER OF THE PRICE THAT THEY COST TO IMPORT AND LEAVE ALL WOULD-BE COMPETITORS FAR BEHIND.

WE HAVE GAINED THE REPUTATION THAT WE PURCHASE DIAMONDS AT ANY AMOUNT, PROVIDING THE PRICES ARE AWAY DOWN.

WE HAVE THE LARGEST STOCK OF DIAMONDS AND WATCHES IN THE WORLD, AT PRICES TO SUIT EVERY ONE'S PURSE.

These are the Diamonds and Watches we make a specialty of:

THIS IS OUR SPECIAL GOLD FILLED WATCH. Elgin or Waltham Movement, Stem-Winder, at $7.00.

Elgin or Waltham Movement, Stem-Winder, at $7.00. S. D. SILVER HUNTING WATCHES, genuine American movement, Elgin or Waltham stem-winder, at $9.

Give us a Written Guarantee with every watch for six years; if not as represented money will be refunded.

14 and 18 carats. Garnet, Turquoise, Seal and Initial Rings a Specialty. OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL 9.30. SATURDAYS UNTIL 10.30.

Brooklyn Amusements. Bijou Theatre. THE GLORIOUS NAVAL DANCE, THE ENGINES, THE GREAT BROOKLYN HANDICAP.

Amusements. 14TH STREET THEATRE, near 9th Ave. Reserved Seats, Orchestral Seats, 25c.

EMPIRE THEATRE. THE GREAT BROOKLYN HANDICAP. GAYETY Broadway & Throop Ave.

STAR GUS Williams in April Fool. GRAND OPERA TO-NIGHT. LOTTIE COLLINS'S TROUBADOURS AMPHION.

THE GIRL I LEFT BEHIND ME. COLUMBIA. Edwin Knowles & Co., Proprietors.

THE BOSTONIAN. CASINO. LIVING PICTURES. BROOKLYN AMUSEMENTS.

Amusements. STAR THEATRE, Last nights, Last Sat. at 10.15. EVERY EVENING, THIS WEEK. PRESENTING MARY WILSON'S KANSAS.

It's Provoking

to sell Carpets at such low prices—there's no profit in it, but our looms are kept in motion.

J. & J. DOBSON, 2 East 14th St., N. Y., also 809-811 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

Amusements. ABBEY'S THEATRE, Bowery, cor. 2nd St. LAST THREE WEEKS.

FRANCIS WILSON AND COMPANY—SIXTH WEEK. The Devil's Deputy.

KOSTER & BIAL'S TO-NIGHT. NEW SERIES LIVING PICTURES.

LAST WEEKS, HU & PTY JUMPIY UP TO YOGI MIRACLES.

PEOPLE'S THEATRE, Bowery, cor. 2nd St. A RID FOR LIFE.

EMPIRE THEATRE, Broadway and 42nd St. THE LITTLE TROOPER.

PAIREE'S THEATRE, To-night 10.15, Mat. 2.00. THE TRANSGRESSOR.

GARDEN THEATRE, 315 West 42nd St. LITTLE CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS.

N. R. JACOBS' THEATRE, Dan McGarry in THE PRIDE OF MAYO.

STANDARD THEATRE, 24th St. HOY'S THEATRE, 24th St.

THEIRSS'S 14TH ST. MEGIC LIGHT. PROCTOR'S THEATRE, 14th St.

ST. JAMES' HALL, Broadway & 9th St. GALY'S THEATRE, 24th St.

PERSONAL. ARDELLE, misdeed and adviser in trouble.

AMBER FILM—Exposition of lawyer, all lawyers considered.

RAY AWA FROM HOME—Young boy, 17 years old, missing.

Two days later Miss Birch was contacted by receiving the following telegram: "I'm in London. Will be with you shortly."

"Why didn't you write me in time, sweetheart?" said Cyril, in mild reproach.

"I did," she replied, "but I was so busy that I couldn't find time to do so."

"Do you know to what you are indebted, dearest, for this contrivance which has saved our happiness with a fortune?" he asked of rejoining Miss Birch.

"Nothing less than the wag of a dog's tail!"—Boston Globe.

TALE OF A DOG'S TAIL.

Its Wag Delayed a Love-Letter Upon Which a Fortune Depended.

She was full of business, this little girl, as with half-closed eyes she stood on the curb opposite the post-office, a stamp poised on her tongue, which she was about to affix to the envelope she held in her hand.

But as she deliberately nipped it between finger and thumb by one corner, at the same time tightly shutting both eyes as though such a performance in some mysterious way facilitated the operation, a lady came along accompanied by a huge dog, which audaciously waded its thick bushy tail right athwart the little maid's face, causing her to jump backward into the gutter with a surprised scream.

Her alarm was immediately increased to terror at missing the stamp, which she next observed floating away attached to the majestic caudal appendage.

She feebly started in pursuit, but as she neared the formidable animal the object of her quest became transferred to the lady's jacket, and before she could reach her side it had dropped on

SITUATION OF THE DAY IS SATURDAY

7,983 "HELP WANTED" Adverts. were printed in The World during the first fifteen days of October. That's 2,643 more than in all the other New York Papers combined. Place-seekers meet help-hunters half way by using The World.

Every Advt. Repeated FREE in The Evening World To-Morrow. Uptown Office, Broadway and 32d Street. Harlem Office, Madison Ave. and 125th Street. Brooklyn Office, 309 Washington Street.

Involutary action of woe and desolation to two fond hearts. "You are sure there is nothing for me?" said young Cyril Stanley for the third time, as with pale face and agitated frame he breathlessly interrogated the rural letter-carrier the next morning.

"Quite certain, sir; you can look them over if you like," returned Her Majesty's subject genially, extending his Lundie.

"No, thanks," he rejoined brusquely, and turning on his heel, with clinched hands and a wild look in his eyes, he started off at a fast pace through the fields, crossing stiles, bounding into ditches, and stepping right through the roaring waters of a shallow brook in the most aimless and haphazard sort of way.

"And this is my reward!" he muttered fiercely interposed the old gentleman in the midst of an important letter.

from the house and hastened towards the Cross Lanes, a favorite resort for lovers.

Lifting her veil, she consulted her watch by the clear light of the moon, when a rustling in the bushes startled her, and before she could cover her face a stalwart figure, clad in velvet and carrying a gun on one shoulder, approached and recognized her.

"Oh, how you frightened me!" she responded. "Are you beginning your rounds?"

"Yes, miss," said the man, with a shrug of the shoulders. "I must keep a sharp lookout now, as the Squire and the young master started for Italy this morning. Good night."

He had scarcely disappeared in the fog before the slender form reeled to and fro several times, and then sank down to the damp grass with a groan.

The morning papers, under the heading of "Shocking Affair at Paddington," contained the following paragraph: "The evening express from Bristol, on entering this station last night, ran into an empty cattle van which, by some unaccountable means had been left on the main line. There was only a slight collision, but an elderly passenger received such a severe shock to the system that he expired before he could be removed to the waiting-room, where his body now lies."