BIG BOMB DIDN'T EXPLODE.

FULTON, Ill., Oct. 24.—People have been terrorized since the fire on Oct. 12. They are in constant fear of incendiaries. Now a new danger confronts them.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 24.—Thomas W. Jordan, editor of a local letter-carrier, was yesterday arrested on a charge of passing letters.

sey. Some of his personal friends say that he is anxious to retire from politics entirely. This ground was taken on account of the strong opposition to him in Tammany Hall.

He was a short time ago forced from his position as the Tammany leader of his district, since which time many of Tammany's high officials have vent to their opinions that he should retire from the police bench.

The feeling against Diver has been growing steadily ever since he fled to California, leaving his heels and less fortunate tools to fight for themselves when arrested for performing work alleged to have been planned by the Justice himself.

Police Justice Patrick Diver was born in Ireland forty-seven years ago. He came to this country with his parents when less than one year old.

He first learned the printer's trade, but when a mere boy displayed a preference for politics. His first public position was that of a clerk to Recorder Hackett. He was retained by Recorder Smyth, but resigned after serving three months under him.

In 1888 he ran against "Fatty" Walsh for Alderman and was elected.

He remained a member of the Board of Aldermen for four years, the last two of which he served as Vice-President. He was Chairman of the Committee of Finance and a member of the Sinking Fund Committee.

He was appointed Police Justice by Mayor Grant.

The barroom fracas, in which Diver figured with Morris Tekulsky, is still fresh in the public mind. It occurred less than a week ago in Tekulsky's saloon, on Park Row, which was formerly owned by Diver.

Diver claimed that Tekulsky had been working against his friends. From words the two men came to blows, during which the Police Justice was knocked down and received a badly bent eye. He is broken, nose, and two lovely black eyes. He has since been in retirement.

CLEVELAND IS IN THE CITY.

With His Wife and Mr. and Mrs. Benedict He Arrived This Morning.

WILL NOT TALK OF HILL.

When Asked if He Would Vote He Replied, "I Do Not Know."

CHEERED BY A SMALL CROWD.

His Arrival Was Unexpected and None of the Political Leaders Met Him.

President Cleveland arrived in this city this morning on the 9.55 Stamford local on the New Haven road from Greenwich, Conn. He was accompanied by Mrs. Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Benedict, Miss Benedict and two Secret Service detectives.

His arrival was not expected, and there were but few people at the Grand Central Depot when the train came in. To an "Evening World" reporter Cleveland said he did not know where he would stop while here, and had not decided how long he would remain. He would call on several friends, he said.

In response to a direct question as to whether he would vote in New York he replied that he did not know.

"Is it your intention to endorse Senator Hill's candidacy, Mr. President?" he was asked.

The President looked straight ahead of him, but made no reply.

"I do not wish to be interviewed," he finally said, and taking Mrs. Cleveland's arm, started for the carriage that was waiting for him.

President and Mrs. Cleveland and Miss Benedict stepped into the carriage and drove away, while Mr. and Mrs. Benedict took another.

Mr. Benedict said he did not know where the President would stop. While here he would not be his guest, and he did not know if he would visit Dr. Bryant or not.

Dr. Joseph B. Bryant was seen at his residence, 54 West Thirty-sixth street, but he declined to say whether the President and Mrs. Cleveland would be in the city during his sojourn in the city or not.

"I have nothing to say," he said. "I know they have just arrived in town. They may come here and they may not."

The Presidential suite, No. 14, at the Victoria Hotel, is still reserved for the party, but up to 11 o'clock it was unoccupied.

President Cleveland looked the picture of health. He was dressed in a suit of dark material, and wore a light overcoat and silk hat.

Mrs. Cleveland looked very handsome in a neat tailor-made traveling suit of light brown, which displayed her figure to excellent advantage. She carried a large bouquet of chrysanthemums.

The party arrived in a private car, which was attached to the Stamford local on its arrival at Greenwich at 9:05 o'clock.

While waiting for the carriage a small crowd surrounded the party and gave a cheer. The President took his seat evidently not noticing the enthusiasm his appearance had created.

Mr. Cleveland mysteriously disappeared soon after his arrival. Dr. Bryant denied that the President or his wife were his guests, and this statement was corroborated by the fact that the Chief Magistrate had not been seen to enter the house.

Mr. Benedict, at his office, said he knew nothing of Mr. Cleveland's whereabouts, and at his house it was denied that the President had been seen there.

He had not put in an appearance at the Victoria Hotel up to a late hour, nor were there any visitors there to see him.

The Bluffer went to the front at flag-pole, and opening up a way, led all the way, and won very easily by eight lengths. Time—1:16.3.

Withdrawals Reduce Fields to Practically Match Races at the St. Asaph Track.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK ST. ASAPH, Oct. 24.—There was an improved attendance to-day at St. Asaph, the Washington contingent being larger than on any other day. For the third day in succession the sun remained hidden behind a bank of clouds, which made the weather cool and pleasant affording a more satisfactory view of the racing, as ordinarily the sun interferes with the sight.

Twenty-two penitentiaries were satisfied to go on and give the public a chance to speculate, and they found plenty of business to keep them well occupied. The scratches were particularly numerous and reduced the majority of the fields to almost a match race for the place.

The betting on the first race was heavy. Leonawell, Galilee and Iola received good backing. When the plungers were through placing their wagers, Leonawell was favorite at less than even money.

Sims kept the favorite last to the stretch, Galilee showing the way to that point. Then Leonawell obligingly let Leonawell well through next the rail, and the favorite was able to come on at his leisure and win easily by a length.

Flirt opened up a strong favorite for the second race, but as her recent form has been very poor, she was not backed to any extent.

Phil made a killing over the race through his colt Indra. He backed him down from 12 to 6, and had a lot of money on the place. The colt ran the best race of his life, and won easily from Flirt.

Grand Duke George Renounces His Rights of Accession.

Michael to Be Heir-Apparent When Nicholas Becomes Czar.

(By Associated Press.)

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—The following official bulletin was issued at 10 o'clock this morning:

"The Czar slept for a few hours last night. This morning he is not drowsy and has some appetite."

This bulletin is signed by the five physicians in attendance upon the Czar, Prof. Leyden, Zacharin, Popoff, Liejammoff and Hirsch.

An Imperial decree was published to-day declaring Grand Duke Michael, the third son of the Czar, Heir-Apparent to the Throne after the accession of his brother, Grand Duke Nicholas, the Czar's eldest son, has renounced his rights of accession in view of the fact that his condition is considered hopeless.

BERLIN, Oct. 24.—The Neuste Nachrichten's correspondent at St. Petersburg telegraphs that a prominent Russian court official has received the following despatch from Livadia:

"It is not expected that the death of the Czar will occur within the next forty-eight hours, and it is probable that His Majesty's life will be prolonged for a much longer time."

PARIS, Oct. 24.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Gaulois telegraphs that he has the authority of a member of the Czar's suite for stating that the alleged shrinking of the sufferer's kidneys is not so serious as reported, and that His Majesty's physicians have every reason to hope for a permanent improvement of the patient's condition.

LONDON, Oct. 24.—Unless the condition of the Czar improves the Prince of Wales will postpone his birthday festivities which have been fixed to take place at Sandringham Hall, Lynn, Norfolk.

OPERATIONS ON THE CZAR.

Preparations for Thoracentesis—Relief by Oxygen Inhalation.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Oct. 24.—A medical correspondent telegraphs from Livadia this afternoon, saying that the Czar has been much relieved by the puncture of his lungs, which is reducing the oedema.

The correspondent adds that preparations are being made for the operation of thoracentesis, in order to dispose of the effusion into the thoracic cavity, which will doubtless relieve the distressed breathing of the patient and restore the action of his heart.

Oxygen inhalations, he appears, have already strengthened the action of the heart, and the Czar has enjoyed many hours of full consciousness. But, says this correspondent in conclusion, there is little or no improvement in his malady.

THE CZAREWITCH.

Reports that He is Married and Will Go to St. Petersburg.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Oct. 24.—According to a special despatch from Paris, a telegram was received in this city from Odessa, dated 11:30 this morning, saying that the marriage of the Czar's wife to Princess Alex of Hesse-Darmstadt began this morning at Livadia.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 24.—It is reported that the Czar's wife will shortly leave Livadia for St. Petersburg, and that he will not await the death of the Czar, his father. Rumor has it that the coming of the Czar's wife to this city is in order that he shall be at the capital when the Czar passes away.

CAPT. ANBRO'S TRIAL.

Accused of Dumping Mud in Coney Island Channels.

Capt. John Ambro, of the tug, Stephen Decatur, indicted for illegally dumping refuse in the east and west Coney Island Channels, was placed on trial to-day before a jury in the United States Circuit Court.

Ambro had obtained license for dumping matter in proper localities, from the United States Supervisor for the port of New York, but it is charged that Ambro dumped mud one and a half miles from the spots where he was authorized to do so.

It is said to have been employed by the Morris & Cummings Company, who are conducting extension reclamation works at Bay Ridge, L. I.

A special attention has been given to Ambro's alleged violation of the law, because it is claimed the mud he is alleged to have dumped was particularly obstructive. Some of Ambro's own crew, with whom he had a disagreement, notified the Government, and they are the principal witnesses against him.

ACCUSED BY HIS WIFE.

Ryan's Real Estate Transaction Held to His Arrest.

John Ryan, of 67 East One Hundred and Fifty-second street, was held in $200 bail in Manhattan Police Court this morning on the complaint of his wife, Bridget, who charges him with the larceny of $2,000 Mrs. Ryan's brother died in 1890. He left $3,000 to his two children, and Mrs. Ryan was his guardian and executrix.

The money was deposited in her own name at the Immigrants' Savings Bank on May 8, Mrs. Ryan purchased two shares of the bank, and gave to her husband to make a payment. On July 2 she deposited in her own name a second payment. It was developed that she had been deceived in her own name, and on his wife's demand, refused to have them transferred to Mrs. Ryan.
