PARK BOARD IN A WRANGLE. Frederick Law Olmstead Appointed Speedway Architect. Commissioner Bell Returned to Vote After Leaving in a Rage. The Park Board meeting called for today to appoint a landscape architect to supervise the work on the Harlem River Speedway, developed a rumpus at the outset. When Commissioner Tappan offered a resolution appointing Frederick Law Olmstead as architect, Commissioner Bell moved that Calvert Vaux be put in charge of the work in connection with Olmstead. Commissioner Tappan and President Claussen opposed this, the latter saying that Vaux was inimical to the Board, and would not work in harmony with it. A war of words followed. Commissioner Bell said: "You may count me absent from the meeting."

BURKE PLEADS GUILTY Sentenced to Ten Years for Killing His Son-in-Law, Bergman. Fixed a Trap Gun to Explode When the Door Was Opened. The Young Man Received the Charge of Shot and Died Instantly. (Special to The Evening World.) RICHMOND, S. I., Oct. 28.—Thomas E. Burke, the aged South Beach squatter, pleaded guilty to manslaughter in the second degree to-day and was sentenced to ten years in Sing Sing by Justice Cullen in the Court of Over and Terminer. Burke was charged with having caused the death of Frederick Bergman, his son-in-law, on Aug. 16.

ARGUING FOR M'KANE. Ex-King of Gravesend's Case Before the Court of Appeals. Ground on Which the Freedom of the Ex-Boss is Demanded. Question of Recognizing a Voice Over Telephone Wires Involved. (By Associated Press.) ALBANY, Oct. 28.—Argument in the appeal of John Y. McKane from a verdict of conviction for felony rendered by the Court of Over and Terminer of Kings County was begun before the Court of Appeals to-day, Benjamin F. Tracy and E. M. Shepard appearing for the people, as against the appeal, and Edward James, George W. Broderick, Matthew Hale and Albert C. Tennant appearing for the defendant and appellant. The appeal, if sustained by this Court, would result in the release of McKane from Sing Sing, where he is now serving a sentence of six years on the indictment charging him with procuring the inspectors of election to violate the provisions of the Election law. Argument was begun by Matthew Hale, in the absence of Col. James, for the appellant. He argued at great length, and the case will last all day and probably to-morrow. In brief, the appellant claims that the defendant could not be indicted for conspiracy with these people to suppress the registry books, and this is the ground on which the appeal is based. The defendant claims that the inspectors of election were not in violation of the provisions of the Election law. Argument was begun by Matthew Hale, in the absence of Col. James, for the appellant. He argued at great length, and the case will last all day and probably to-morrow.

LAST EDITION. FELONIES DON'T COUNT. Police Board Considers Only Ordinary Infractions of the Rules. SHEEHAN'S STARTLING TALE. Blackmail and Extortion Shifted on to Byrnes and the Grand Juries. INSULT FOR CHAIRMAN LEXOW. Tells Him: "I'm Going to Hold My End Up Here, and Don't You Make any Mistake About It!"

It is known upon the best of authority that the Grand Jury has considered the cases against Police Capt. Devory, Stephenson and ex-Police Capt. Cross, and that they have decided to find indictments against Devory and Stephenson, but are undecided about Cross. They have considered the cases quite fully, but were examining a few other witnesses this morning. The Grand Jury is proceeding with great care in the police cases, and will not find any indictments unless the evidence is of a character which will almost certainly bring about their conviction when they come to trial in the Criminal Courts. Acting Capt. O'Toole, of the Leonard street station and Capt. Berghold, of the Eldridge street station, were before the Grand Jury this morning, but they were there on illegal registration cases. There were also a great many witnesses in cases which have been lately handed in from the police courts for various offenses, and, in consequence, the witness-rooms of the Grand Jury were crowded and overflowed into Assistant District-Attorney Tappan's court. Timothy J. Sullivan walked boldly into the witness room of the Grand Jury, although he had no subpoena. Other men, who do not happen to have a Tammany "pull," were stopped at the door and told that they could not pass without a subpoena. District-Attorney F. J. Flanagan greeted "Dry Dollar" Sullivan effusively in the witness room. What the Third District leader was doing in the witness-room was a mystery which he did not care to have explained to the Police Commissioner. The Police Commissioner, Conrad Schellenberger, of the Eldridge street station, was called to the Grand Jury by the Police Commissioner, Thomas J. Quinn, of 88 Madison street, gave him a subpoena for the Court of General Sessions. His bondsmen were Henry Holman, of 245 Bowery, Schellenberger, and went back to his station house to report for duty.

BREAD SHOULD BE CHEAPER. Fricks of the Trade Exposed by the Agricultural Department. WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—The Agricultural Department has given out a bulletin on "the cost of bread" taken from the forthcoming report of Prof. W. O. Atwater on the nutritive value of foods. It says that the average weight of a number of shipments of ten-cent loaves purchased in Middletown, Conn., was one and one-fourth pounds. This makes the price to the consumer eight cents per pound. The price of bread and the size of the loaf are practically the same now as when flour cost twice as much.

GOLDBERG VS. HOFFMAN. Police Board to Settle Who in the People's Party Man To-Day. The Board of Police Commissioners will hold a special meeting this afternoon to consider protests of the Assembly candidates of the Tammany and People's party organizations in the Sixth Assembly District. Samuel Manheim, who had been nominated for Assemblyman by the People's party, handed in his declaration Saturday. His name, it is said, had been withdrawn by the committee. A certificate of substitution was filed, nominating Benjamin Hoffman, who is the regular Tammany candidate. Saturday, another certificate nominating Max Goldberg, was filed with Chief Clerk Klipp. It is claimed that Hoffman's nomination was irregular, in that the committee had not been delegated with the power by the nominating convention to fill vacancies on the ticket.

MANDAMUS FOR MINGUEY. Police Board Must Print His Name on Empire Ballots. Justice Barrett, in Supreme Court Chambers, to-day, issued a mandamus compelling the Police Commissioners to print the ballots of Lawrence P. Minguey, candidate for Alderman, on the Empire State Democracy ballots in the Eighteenth Assembly District. The Corporation Counsel, in opposition, argued that several of the 22 names subscribed to the paper necessary to make the party lawful or organization, were written with lead pencil. George W. Green, attorney to Minguey, argued that the law holds that a lead pencil signature is legal in other matters, and, therefore, what he wrote on one hand, Justice Barrett sustained him.

PROBING ELECTION FRAUD. Supt. Byrnes Expects More Developments Soon. Reports showing the results of the comparison of Friday's and Saturday's registration lists with the police lodging-house census-roll were submitted to Supt. Byrnes this morning. He refused positively to say what, if any, discrepancies were found. He acknowledged, however, that indications of irregularities in several election districts, but he could give no positive information until further investigation had been made.

INDEPENDENTS ARE WROTH. They Denounce the Attempt to Deify the 26th to the Enemy. Thomas F. Moloney, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Independent County Organization of the Twenty-sixth Assembly District, gave out the following preamble and resolutions: "Whereas, the Independent County Organization of the Twenty-sixth Assembly District, at a meeting held at the Tiro Club-rooms on Oct. 27, last, adopted resolutions endorsing the nomination of the Committee of Seventy and the Independent County Organization, and whereas, certain individuals, claiming to represent the Independent County Organization, have undertaken to deliver a campaign in the name of the Independent County Organization, and whereas, the Independent County Organization, in its determination to do all in its power to destroy the power of the Committee of Seventy, has elected the candidates of the Committee of Seventy."

WALKED INTO THE RIVER. Weber Expected to Board a Ferry-boat, but Drowned. Joseph Weber, of Fifth street and Wythe avenue, Brooklyn, walked off the pier at Delancey street, this city, into the river, this morning. He came to this city last night to have a good time. He had it, and at midnight started for home. He intended to go over the Grand street ferry, but got to Delancey street instead. He walked to the end of the pier and stepped overboard. When he fell into the water, Michael Finny, of 25 Jackson street, heard his screams and rescued him with a ladder. Weber was removed to Gouverneur Hospital.

NEW TO THOMPSON STREET. A Colored Policeman from Flatlands Has His Pockets Picked. James Hynes, patrolman No. 1, of the police force of Flatlands, L. I., appeared as the central figure of an amusing picture in the Jefferson Market Police Court to-day. Hynes was the complainant against Julia Coffey, of 19 West Third street, who had been charged with the pocketing of $2 on Thompson street yesterday afternoon. When arraigned in the Jefferson Market Court to-day the prisoner claimed that the old colored man had attempted to make love to her, and she had resented it. She denied having taken anything from him. "Well, what do you want done with this woman?" she asked having taken your money," said Judge Hogan. "I want her jailed," said Hynes. "The woman was held in bonds of $50 for jail."

A SENSITIVE POLICEMAN. Would Break the Strike. Meyer Jonasson & Co.'s Slick Caller Failed to Secure a Bribe. A report was circulated this morning that a contract had been made by Samuel J. Frank, an alleged superintendent of Meyer Jonasson & Co., to pay William Goldstein, a cloakmaker, $50 for an attempt to break up the Union and, consequently, the strike. Chairman Dempsey, of the Joint Executive Board, declared to an "Evening World" reporter that the whole thing was a fake. He said that on Saturday a young man who said he was Samuel J. Frank, entered his office with one William Goldstein, and told the manufacturer that Goldstein was a member of the Executive Board and would break up the strike for a consideration. "I had heard of such a fellow," who wanted all the way from $5 to $500 to break up the union," said Mr. Dempsey. "I said I was not interested in such a transaction. The man was discharged. Seventy-four firms have granted the demands of the unions."

FALL RIVER STRIKE OVER. Weavers Vote to Return to Work To-Morrow Morning. (By Associated Press.) FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 28.—The striking weavers voted this morning to return to work to-morrow morning. A mass-meeting was held at the Academy of Music, at which 1,500 weavers were present. They were addressed by Secretary Whitehead, who advised them to vote to go in. CZAR'S APPETITE UNCHANGED. But the Bulletin Says He Slept Less Last Night. (By Associated Press.) ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 28.—The following bulletin, signed by the physicians in attendance on the Czar, was issued at 11 o'clock this morning: "The Czar slept less last night. His appetite unchanged. The oedema does not decrease."

MR. CLEVELAND TAXED HERE. His Assessment for the Year Fixed at $5,000. President Cleveland has been assessed for $5,000 personal taxes for 1914. In March, 1913, Mr. Cleveland paid taxes upon the same amount, appearing on the books as a lawyer, of 15 Broad street, and residing at 12 West Twenty-first street. According to law, Mr. Cleveland is the only man who can decide whether or not he is still a resident of New York. Up to the present time he has made no protest, and it is probable that he will appear on the tax books in 1915.

He will leave the hall at 9:30 and 145 Park Row at 10. Places beyond that point have not yet been fixed in.

NATURALIZATION RUSH DONE. Attempts May Be Made to Vote on First Papers Next Tuesday. There was a remarkable decrease this morning in the number of applicants for first citizenship at the office of the Clerk of the United States District Court. This morning at 10 o'clock there were just nine men in waiting. Some of the Federal officials think that the close of registration and the almost complete cessation of applications for first papers may be closely connected, and that possibly attempts to use the first papers to vote on may be made.

RECORDED SMYTH'S COURT OFFICER ACCUSED BEFORE THE GRAND JURY. Two G. G. Club X members testified before the Grand Jury to-day against Recorder Smyth's part of General Sessions, who is Tammany captain in the Forty-third Election District of the Second Assembly District, who received forty-two votes Saturday. He professed not to know and the witnesses were called with what offense he was charged.
