

SPORTING MISCELLANY.

There is a deal of premature rejoicing over what the members intended to be more boys of a race for the America's Cup than has heretofore existed.

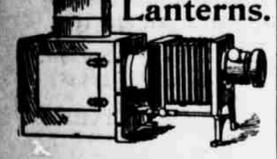

The point actually is disputed, the rock upon which the matter has all along threatened to split, is still the acceptance of the deal of gift.

Added to this, the interviews with two of Lord Dunsany's associates in the new Yachting Association, published yesterday, show intense and uncompromising opposition to the present deal of gift.

Manager Harris did not like the brand of advertisement offered to him by the National Board of Yachting, which is the National Board of Yachting.

The story William was not aware that reporters had long of things which are not printed, and that their business is to write news and news only.

Magic Lanterns.

There is no need to dwell upon the unlimited enjoyment and instruction obtained from a good lantern. In addition to the pictures that go with each outfit we can furnish extra slides and even lantern views made from your own amateur photographs.

possibility, but neither gives a reason for his belief. Now, "Boss" Harrison, the mainstay of the association will now go up to smoke.

"The Evening World," it will be remembered, used to accept the aquiline stork and the woodpecker of the alleged organization from the very first, without assuming to control the matter.

Fred Pfeffer, in Chicago, threatens to become a baseball writer if he is unable to play second base. There are cases of great reporters having been made of ex-players.

The wife has been made to carry a burden of a hundred words or so, from St. Mary's, N. J., just to mention the fact that John L. Sullivan has gotten drunk again and threatened to whip an opponent when he didn't whip after all.

The ten-round prize-fight between Charles Ochs and Frank Blaser, of Columbus, was pulled off at Westinghouse last night by the Columbus Athletic Club. It was given to Ochs in the second round of a set.

Stanton Abbott, England's self-proclaimed lightweight champion, was defeated by James McKeever of the Schuylkill Navy last night. From the call of time both men displayed remarkable science, the bout being evenly contested until the sixth and last round, when McKeever, who had evidently had a lot up his sleeve, let himself out and punched Abbott all around the first, Abbott being in a weak condition when time was called.

The Athletic Committee of the New York Athletic Club, of which Henry C. Williams is chairman, held a special meeting last night and submitted its yearly report to the Club. The report is lengthy, and is one of the best submitted to the Club in years.

The New Manhattan Athletic Club will give a subscription evening entertainment in the gymnasium on the night of Dec. 22. There will be six bouts of six rounds each, which will be witnessed by some hot members of the Club.

Canaris is to become the rendezvous of Katie Belmont, whose name has been secured by a special permit to conduct boxing shows in that town, which has heretofore known nothing more pugilistic than the leather and gut of the prize ring. The men are good for a year. The first bout will be given next week.

The Lessor Athletic Club bouts to-night in Wood's Hall, Jersey City, should be full of interest.

Two young men of Chicago sought fame by touring a wheel around the globe. They are W. M. Brewster and Earl J. Waller. They have got as far as San Francisco, and have run up against a refusal of free passage to Australia.

The trip will end right there. The men are so knowledgeable that they did not ride across the Great American Desert.

Reader—Frank Craig, the "Harlem Coffee" is 5 feet 10 inches in height, and weighs, in condition, 154 pounds.

John Hunter has resigned his position as Chairman of the Jockey Club. It is said that this step was taken because of the marvellous criticism to which Mr. Hunter was subjected by the press.

The first great horse Mr. Hunter owned was Nicholas I, the best horse of his day. He also owned Kentucky, and challenged the world with him.

Jockey Harry Manlove was pulled off the turf at Alexander Island yesterday. According to all accounts, Manlove did not only pull a horse himself, but he also rode a horse.

The Sily Marguerite, by Inouque, dam Wire-grass, mysteriously disappeared from her stable at Alexander Island, last night. The notorious Brannons, who had been hanging about the track for several days, have also vanished.

What do you Wish for, in the way of easy work? You can have it, if you'll use Pearline. With anything you can think of, that water doesn't hurt, the easiest way to wash it or to clean it is to take Pearline.

There's no shrink to flannels, if they're properly washed with it. Beware of peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers who tell you "this is as good as" or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE! Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing—send it back.

"Handsome Harry" Diamonds. Diamond Dealer Tudor Angel Myers, of Maiden Lane, obtained a verdict of $2,400, with interest, against Harry Phillips, known as "Handsome Harry" Myers, through his lawyer, Mr. Louis Stekler, alleged that in 1893 Phillips secured $2,000 worth of diamonds and jewelry upon false representations as to his financial standing, and as to the responsibility of his wife and George A. Leavitt & Co., who were indorsers upon the notes which Phillips gave in payment of the goods. The jury gave Myers a verdict for the full amount claimed.

Bandits on a Raiding Tour. WICHITA, Kan., Dec. 21—Jack Harris, alias Tulsa Jack, and Bitter Creek, of the Cook gang, rode into Anthony, Harper County, yesterday and one of them entered a bank, evidently with the intention of robbing it. There were too many people present, and the bandits rode rapidly away. Harris, reaching Manchester, they went into Blant's general store, and at the point of revolvers made the proprietor hand over $20 in cash. The bandits left in a westerly direction towards Santa Fe.
