

Weather: Partly Cloudy

Four hundred and sixty-nine Employers asked for Help in Tuesday's World.

Sunday Circulation, 355,066 (No Evening Edition.)

The World is the greatest Labor Exchange in existence. Watch the "Wants."

The

"Circulation Books Open to All"

THE EVENING EDITION

The World

"Circulation Books Open to All"

Weather: Partly Cloudy

Hunt for a House, Room or Apartment in The World's House & Home Columns

January Circulation, 551,139 (Week-Day Average.)

"There's No Place Like Home" and there's no place to find one equal to The World.

PRICE ONE CENT. NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1895. PRICE ONE CENT.

NIGHT EDITION

QUEEN LIL ABDICATES.

Wrote President Dole That the Republic Was Hawaii's Legal Government.

WILLIS AGAIN INTERFERES.

He Is Said To Have Protested To Dole Against the Trial of Revolutionists By Court Martial.

HONOLULU, Jan. 30, via San Francisco, Feb. 6.—Lillookalani has abdicated in favor of the Republic. This is by far the most important outcome of the revolution.

The document was drawn up by A. S. who have recently engaged in rebellion against the Republic, and in an attempt to restore me to the position of Queen, which I held prior to the seventeenth day of January, 1893, and without any claim that I shall be

PRESIDENT DOLE, OF HAWAII.

Hartwell at the request of the ex-Queen. It was presented on the 26th ult. to President Dole.

The document, according to the wording, was executed freely and voluntarily. It was addressed to the President, and goes on to say:

Resigns Claim to Throne.

"After full and free consultation with my personal friends, and with my legal advisers, both before and since my detention by military order in the Executive building, and acting in conformity to their advice and also upon my own free volition and in pursuance of my unalterable belief and understanding of my duty to the people of Hawaii and to their highest and best interest, also for the sake of those misguided Hawaiians and others

come entitled by reason of anything that I may now say or do to any other or different treatment or consideration at the hands of the Government than I otherwise could and might legally receive, I now desire to express and make known, and do hereby express and make known to yourself as the only lawful and recognized head of the Government, and to all the people of the Hawaiian Islands, whether or not they have yet become citizens of the Republic or have been adherents of the late monarchy, and also to all diplomatic and other foreign representatives in the Hawaiian Islands, to

(Continued on Third Page.)

MORGAN BACK HOME.

He and His Fellow-Faners Trying to Bluff the Administration.

Cleveland Wants to Place the Loan at 3 Per Cent.

Representatives of Foreign Financiers After a Higher Rate.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The New York bankers August Belmont, J. Pierpont Morgan, Robert Bacon and James Speyer have started for home. The result of their trip is said to have been satisfactory.

Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan said today: "I am satisfied no announcement of a bond issue will be made until after the vote in the House on the Springer bill. I am also satisfied that President Cleveland and Secretary Carlisle are keenly alive to the situation."

The great National game of bluff is being played between them and the President. They are trying to secure the bonds on a 3-1/4 per cent. basis. He has told them bluntly that they ought to take the issue on a 3 per cent. basis and be glad to get it on such favorable terms.

On their side, the bankers make lugubrious faces about the condition of the money market and the condition of the Treasury. The President responds by saying that if the bonds could be written at 2 per cent, they would be readily taken at par.

The bankers this morning are calling attention to the fact that sterling exchange advanced half a cent yesterday, but are met with the argument that they are in position to change the rates themselves without regard to the natural conditions. But whatever the merits of the argument on either side the President is firm and the bankers are weakening.

They know that every dollar represented in the price between 3-1/4 per cent. and 3 per cent. basis will be clear profit, and that between the two is a total of some $60,000,000.

They know also that if they can secure the bonds at 3 per cent, they will be able to place them at 2 3/8 per cent. or even better, and they fear that they may let a good opportunity slip by waiting too long. There is ground for their fears.

As intimated in these despatches, the President has good reason for believing that Congress may yet pass a bond act. If Mr. Morgan, Belmont and bond proposition passes the House he will divide honors fairly with Mr. Cleveland, but the President is patriotic and doesn't care.

In the Senate the situation is as follows: Financial Committee covers its actions yesterday with some mystery. It is believed that the committee informs "The Evening World" correspondent that the proposition which was voted down was the Sherman bond proposition. He said further that in his judgment any similar proposition would meet the same fate.

But here is the line of policy which it is intimated will be brought forward. The proposition is to call for $200,000,000 on due notice one can be taken up on an open market. The substitute passes the House that can be offered without the question would resolve itself directly into the matter of securing a vote.

The President saw the Sherman Repeal bill and the tariff bill pulled through after a fashion. Hence he is inclined to the belief that a bond proposition may yet be enacted. If so, he would be sure of a 3 per cent. bond, and he is using this argument to bring the bankers into line.

Perhaps the strongest arguments used by the President for a 2 per cent. basis in his conference with the bankers were the $200,000,000 loan of 1891, over $20,000,000, and the $100,000,000 loan of 1892, which was quoted at 3 1/2, and that the holders of the current 4 1/2 per cent. would protest with reason against any loan being placed at so low a figure as to seriously affect the market value of their holdings, amounting to over $20,000,000.

OTHER CITY THIEVES.

New Names Presented as Subjects of Indictment.

Work Practically Done as Far as Police Are Concerned.

There Will Be a Big Batch When the Jury Reports.

The Grand Jury was ready this morning to hand in the indictments, and Justice Ingraham was in his court ready to receive them and to sign bench warrants for the arrest of the officials, when a sub-committee of the Committee of Seventy waited upon the Grand Jurors and laid before them information of the alleged misconduct in office of public officials not connected with the Police Department.

The information furnished by this sub-committee was of such a character that the Grand Jury felt compelled to continue its investigations.

It probably will be a week before they will have completed them.

It is the policy of the Grand Jury not to hand in any indictments until all have been found, and consequently no news except as may be contained in rumors may be looked for from that body for several days.

C. F. SANDERS'S GOOD THING.

Ransom, Backed to a Short Price.

Wins at New Orleans.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 6.—Rainy weather and a slushy track kept many from the grounds today and withdrew some, but enough remained to make the racing interesting.

The betting was heavy. Ransom, backed off, and another affair at seven furlongs was substituted.

The original favorite of New York, cut loose a good thing in the first race, which he won with his gelding Ransom, backed off, and another affair at seven furlongs was substituted.

The original favorite of New York, cut loose a good thing in the first race, which he won with his gelding Ransom, backed off, and another affair at seven furlongs was substituted.

GOLD RATES GO DOWN.

This May Indicate that the Bond Issue Has Been Arranged.

The posted rates of sterling exchange were reduced today to 4 1/2-1/2 and 4 1/2.

CRISP ON THE SITUATION.

Said to Have Told President That Springer Bill Can't Pass.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Speaker Crisp is reported to have informed the President today that the Springer bill could not be adopted in its present form. The issue is rapidly narrowing to the Reed proposition or nothing.

Decisive action by Congress will be followed by decisive action in regard to the bond call.

U. S. Treasury Statement To-Day.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Today's statement of the condition of the Treasury shows:

Available cash balance, $142,701,633; gold reserve, $100,000,000.

(Continued on Second Page.)

THREE BELOW THIS MORNING.

New Yorkers Had a Taste of Genuine Arctic Weather.

COLDEST DAY IN 15 YEARS.

Many Small Fires Caused by Efforts to Keep the Water Running.

SNOW STORM COMES NEXT.

Scenes and Incidents on River and Lard of the Sharpest Day of the Season.

EVERYBODY HURRIED THROUGH THE STREET.

The great of this wave is now over the lake regions, with the centre about White River, Canada, where the temperature at 8 o'clock this morning was 6 degrees below zero.

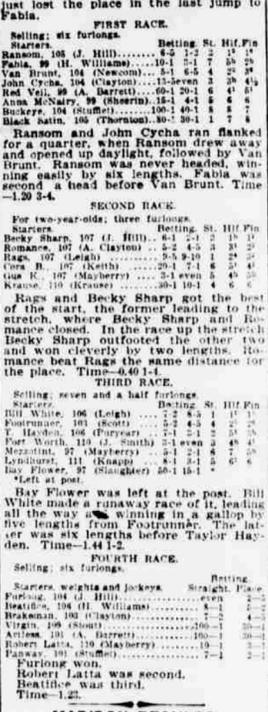

At Alpena, Mich., it was 22 degrees below at 8 o'clock; 20 degrees below at Montreal, and up at Albany, New York's statement who were around early in the morning found it 8 degrees below.

At Northfield, Vt., it was 18 below; Portland, Me., 10 below; Boston, 4 below; Philadelphia, 2 below, and Baltimore, zero.

It was below the freezing point at all points as far south as Georgia.

In the Central States, however, there has been a rise of from 4 to 30 degrees, due to the storm that is following the cold wave. This storm should reach New York, according to Mr. Dunn's calculation.

SCENE IN THE BAY OPPOSITE QUARANTINE AT 8 O'CLOCK THIS MORNING.

MADISON RESULTS.

RACE TRACK, MADISON, Feb. 6.—The races here today resulted as follows:

First Race—Four and a half furlongs.—Won by Forget-Me-Not, 5 to 1 and 2 to 1; Lyons, 2 to 1 for a place, was second, and Baby B. third. Time—1:01.

KID HOGAN'S SLAYER FREE.

The Jury, After Three Hours, Acquits Charles Schaeffer.

The jury in the case of Charles Schaeffer, charged with manslaughter in the first degree for killing Edward Hogan, better known as "Kid" Hogan, on March 4, 1894, returned a verdict of not guilty this afternoon at 4:35 o'clock.

The killing occurred at the corner of First avenue and Ninth street. The jury was out for over three hours.

WINDMILLER MEETS A FRIEND.

WINDMILLER MEETS A FRIEND.

DR. PARKHURST TO THE SENATE.

He Addresses the Committee at Albany on the Lexow Police Bills.

"DOWN WITH PARTISANSHIP."

That Was the Battle Cry of Nov. 6, He Said, That Overthrew Tammany.

WOULD FIX RESPONSIBILITY.

"Divorce the Elections Bureau and Limit the Police Duty."

(Special to The Evening World.)

ALBANY, Feb. 6.—The Senate awaited on the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst for half an hour this afternoon, and as the Senate doesn't usually wait for any one the Doctor should have felt complimented, as he doubtless did.

The doctor was late. It was the fault of the alarm clock in his bedroom, he said when he finally arrived.

Senator Lexow's Special Committee, which is juggling with the three police bills that Boss Platt wants passed, waited until he came.

The Senate was crowded with Senators who are and are not members of Mr. Lexow's Committee, Assemblymen, who got through a big day's business in short order, and came over to the Senate and hear the Doctor; half a hundred New Yorkers who came up to give tone to the event, and a good many ladies, whose presence compelled the Committeemen to throw away their cigars.

Senator Lexow's Special Committee meetings in Albany. The assembling was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

"Hello, Dan" Bradley, of Brooklyn, surrendered his seat, and these members of the Committee appointed by the Cooper Union met in the Senate chamber to discuss the bills. The meeting was a notable one in every way. Some of the people in the chamber were Boss Platt's men, Lauterbach, Commodore Gerry, Cornelius Van Cott, G. W. Wamsamaker, Sam O. Bendorfer, Lawyer J. Travers Jerome, Treadwell Cleveland, Thaddeus Kemmons, Louis Windmuller, and a great many other men who are well known in New York City.

Dr. Parkhurst reached the Capitol at 2 o'clock and his arrival was announced by a stir.

STEARER JUSTIN.

(As she looked when she arrived in this port yesterday)

STEARER JUSTIN.

WINDMILLER MEETS A FRIEND.

WINDMILLER MEETS A FRIEND.

</