Shorty Fuller's Fumble.

every one, the Burkeville hero made no attempt to get the ball. The sun was in his eyes, and he could not see the ball. Burns was caught trying to make third on the hit, but Tredway got to second on the matter was advanced on Shindler's clever sacrifice, and scored a moment later on a passed ball. Corcoran did at Doyle's corner on his hot grass-cutter to Davis. One run.

DOYLE WAITED PATIENTLY and Stein presented him with a base on balls. Tierman put one toward the clouds back of first base, which Tom Daly made a pretty catch of. Stafford sacrificed, Doyle going to second. Burke rapped out a liner to center, which handsome Griff nailed, sending the New York franchise of run-getting for the time. No runs.

NIGHT EDITION PAYMKNEN OF BRIBERY.

Quigg Says He Learned of The Firemen's Fund from Platt's Lieutenant.

FIREMAN TELLS ALL ABOUT IT.

The Officers Were to Pay $15,000 and the Men $30,000--The Deal Arranged at a Dinner.

The Senate Committee appointed to investigate the charges of bribery against Senators Raines, Coggeshall and Robertson in connection with the bill increasing firemen's salaries met in Part III of the General Sessions Court this morning. The Committee was appointed Thursday by Lieut.-Gov. Saxton at the request of Mr. Raines.

Lemuel E. Quigg, editor of the newspaper in which the charges were printed, took the stand and said he learned of the alleged bribery from several firemen and through talks with Louis F. Payn, Boss Platt's lieutenant.

He told in detail of the progress of the bill and repeated conversations he had with Mr. Payn and Firemen Clifford, Rotherhouse, Regan and Ryan.

It has been said that members of the Fire Department of this city contributed to a corruption fund of $45,000 to secure the passage of the bill, and the names of the accused Senators were mentioned in connection with this demand.

All the members of the Committee were in town last night. Senator O'Connor is the Chairman, and his colleagues are Senators Mullin, Pound, Cantor and Parker.

The room began to fill up shortly after 10 o'clock, among the earlier arrivals being Senators Parker and Cantor, the Democratic members of the Committee who came in together.

Editor Quigg called. "Is Mr. Quigg present?" was the first question asked by the Chairman.

The editor responded to this inquiry by rising and coming forward to the bench. He was accompanied by Fire Commissioner Sheffield, and a long conference with Chairman O'Connor followed.

Mr. Quigg sat down inside the railing, and it was said that he had asked that the proceedings should be delayed until the arrival of his counsel, Elihu Root, whom he expected every moment.

The lawyer came in a few minutes after 11 o'clock, and after a consultation with his client it was announced that the committee was ready to proceed with the business of the day.

Mr. Root then stated that he was prepared to present evidence to the committee in support of all the statements which had been made.

"Some of the witnesses, who are prepared to prove the charges made," added Mr. Root, "are now in this room and are ready to testify, and we shall ask for subpoenas for others."

Ex-Congressman George Raines said that he appeared for his brother, Senator Raines, who is one of the legislators accused of bribery.

The first person called as a witness was Lemuel Ely Quigg, the author of the bribery charges.

Says He Wrote the Charges. After being sworn his attention was called to the article containing the charges of bribery, which appeared in his newspaper on April 18.

NIGHT EDITION DEATH AGAIN ON A BICYCLE.

Charles S. Evans Run Down and Killed by a Trolley Car in Brooklyn.

4 WHEEL VICTIMS IN 2 WEEKS

One Previous Death Was on the Boulevard by a Heavy Coal Cart.

LIVELY CHASE ON A FLYING CAR.

Reckless Motorman and Conductor Held at Bay Under Threat of a Bullet.

The Brooklyn trolley juggernaut claimed another victim last evening, making the 10th person killed by trolley since electricity was adopted on the old street-car roads.

Charles S. Evans, 21 years old, of 60 St. Mark's avenue, about 7:30 o'clock last night, left home to take a bicycle ride. An hour later he was whizzing up Broadway, in Williamsburg.

At the corner of Roebing street, Evans tried to cross the track, before he could do so, however, car 418 of the Rock avenue line, came at a gallop. The unfortunate man was hurled headlong to the ground, sustaining concussion of the brain. Strange to say his bicycle was not damaged.

As soon as the motorman of the car saw what happened, instead of stopping to attend to the accident, he turned on the current and tried to make his escape.

Officer Donnelly, of the Clymer street station, jumped on a Sumner avenue car, which was just behind, and ordered the motorman to catch the car ahead, or there would be trouble.

Only last evening, the Ralph avenue car being held back by a truck on the track. The motorman and conductor were about to leave the car, when Donnelly caused a halt by threatening to shoot them.

The prisoners, who gave their names as Charles Christy, a motorman, twenty-five years old, of 308 East Eighty-eighth street, New York, and Joseph Du Plessis Pare, of 68 Buffalo avenue, were locked up.

Ambulance Surgeon Castner attended the injured man, and had him removed to his home, where he is recovering consciousness.

Garrison and Pare were held in the Lee Avenue Court this morning pending examination on a charge of homicide. Both are intelligent looking, and only last evening, the position in which they are placed.

The motorman, Garrison, says the accident was due to Evans trying to cross the track without having given any warning.

The death of Robert Caven on Wednesday from an accident on a bicycle riding on the Boulevard is one of three noteworthy bicycle accidents in this city during the past fortnight.

The first case was that of Mrs. Charles Steele, of 53 West Forty-ninth street. Mrs. Steele, while riding on the avenue, struck the hub of a coal wagon and was thrown violently to the pavement. She was unconscious for hours, and did not leave her bed for eight days.

Another accident occurred at Kennedy's, a broker, of 218 West Twenty-ninth street, who was riding on a wagon yesterday on the Boulevard. Marks received a bad scalp wound and was sent home in a cab.

THIS MAN WAS A TERROR. He Knocked a Woman Down and Threatened to Brain a Child. John Reed, fifty-three years old, living at Kingsbridge road and Webster avenue, was held in $2,000 in the Morrisania Police Court to-day, on two charges of assault.

Reed, while intoxicated, yesterday went to Mrs. Catherine Graham's boarding-house, on Washington avenue, and picking up her three-year-old child, threatened to dash its brain out. The mother interfered, and was knocked unconscious. Then Reed attacked John Leddon and David Nelson with a club and was knocked down.

YALE AND BROWN TIED.

Judges Decide that They Must Play for the Baseball Trophy.

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, April 20.—As predicted by "The Evening World," Judges Talcott, Day and McKee have decided that Yale and Brown must play a game between themselves to decide the ownership of the Freeman Cup. The judges met and arrived at the conclusion at the Polo Grounds this afternoon.

After but little conversation they agreed that the claim made by the Providence student that both of the games played by Yale against the Giants should count was just. In view of this, they were unable to decide upon the winner.

If the colleges will agree, and it is to be hoped they will, the game will be played at the Polo Grounds next month. The game would attract a big crowd.

CHINA BEGINS TO BORROW.

Loan of 30,000,000 Marks at 6 Per Cent. Arranged in Berlin.

BERLIN, April 20.—The Chinese Government has concluded arrangements here for a loan of 30,000,000 marks, at 6 per cent. interest.

The syndicate which has taken up the loan includes the National Bank and Venderhuydt & Co., of Berlin, and L. Hehrle & Sons, of Hamburg.

HER GOAT KNOCKED HIM OUT.

To Get Even Connors Felled Mrs. Smith with a Broom.

John Connors, of College avenue and Frederick street, was sentenced to three months on the island by Justice Martin in the Morrisania Police Court to-day on a charge of assault, made by Mrs. Madeline Smith, who lives in the adjoining house.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Smith's annual, felled into Connors's yard, and he was charged with assault. He was arrested by Justice Martin, who was in the yard, and he was charged with assault. He was arrested by Justice Martin, who was in the yard, and he was charged with assault.

FROM A FAMILY OF HEROES.

A Man Discharged from Arrest with a Splendid Pedigree.

James Ferguson, sixty-four years old, of Eighty-second street and Columbus avenue, a carpenter, was before Justice Martin in the Morrisania Police Court, this morning, on a charge of intoxication.

He said it was the first time he had been arrested. "I am a soldier," he said, "and I have served my country."
