

GRANT WILL NOT BE THE BOSS.

The Ex-Mayor Says Tammany Hall Does Not Need a Leader.

ONLY ADVISORY COMMITTEE.

But He Is Willing to Do All He Can in the Work of Reorganization.

HOME AGAIN WITH HIS BRIDE.

The City's Former Executive Looks Breezed and Healthy After His European Trip.

Unless ex-Mayor Hugh J. Grant is "holding something up his sleeve," as the boys with the Tammany machine are wont to say, he will not prove the boss of the Wigwam. It was predicted he would.

They have been touring in Europe since they departed three days after the wedding, spending most of their time abroad in London, with an occasional trip to Paris and the French water resorts.

The trip was a very enjoyable one, but they are pleased to reach home again, and will remain in New York City at the Tammany headquarters until the third of the summer.

Mrs. Grant will go to Saratoga next week to visit her parents. The ex-Mayor will remain here attending to business.

Less than half a dozen persons, and none of particular prominence in political circles, were at the American line dock when the big black-hulled St. Louis was warped into her berth.

After the few friends who had gathered by 8 o'clock, the ex-Mayor had been inspected and passed, Mrs. Grant ordered a cab and was driven to her home.

The ex-Mayor went to his Broadway office and said he'd be interviewed there. He said he had enjoyed his trip and looked as if he had. His face was tanned and his eyes bright.

When seen at his office Mr. Grant was disinclined to talk politics, presumably because in view of the various reports circulating him still being the boss.

When informed that every politician in town is regarding him as the coming leader of the Wigwam, the ex-Mayor wanted to describe the beauties of the St. Louis.

Finally, in reply to a direct question whether he would take the leadership of the Wigwam he said:

"I have no ambition to take up such a burden. I will not be leader, so called. I am of the same opinion that I expressed concerning the management of Tammany last Spring. There is no need of a leader in Tammany, no necessity for an individual head or so-called 'boss'."

"A representative committee of Democrats in control of the organization and an advisory committee, such as I suggested before I went to Europe, to keep this, the true Democratic organization of New York City, in touch with the other Democratic organizations of the State and nation, are all that are necessary."

"I am willing to do my share of the work in bringing about the creation of such an advisory committee, and as a member of it, if necessary, I cannot do any more than that. I think I might do less."

When asked if his views were shared by Mr. Croker, who is in London and who will return early in September, the ex-Mayor said:

"I don't know. I saw Mr. Croker several times in London, but we did not discuss politics. My meetings with him were of the most casual character and there was no necessity for us to talk politics nor any desire on our part to meddle with the affairs of Tammany Hall while we were so far away."

ONLY GOOD MEN WANTED.

President Roosevelt Repeats His Advice to Police Applicants.

President Roosevelt gave another statement today concerning the character and quality of applicants for appointment as police officers.

"All applications for the coming examination for patrolmen must be in before 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. The fact that only good men need be considered is a common-sense rule of education need apply."

"We pay wages as good as that of a good man. There is a good chance of rising higher. Even a patrolman has very responsible and well-paid position. He gets $1,000 a year and after twenty-five years gets a pension of $10,000."

ST. LOUIS BEATS HER RECORD.

Made the Run from Southampton in 6 Days, 17 Hours and 20 Minutes.

BEST PREVIOUS RUN 6.18.47.

Six Hours and a Half Better than the Columbia and Three Hours Ahead of Augusta Victoria.

BETTER TIME YET PREDICTED.

Sighted a Disabled Steamship Chantucket, but No Help Was Required.

The American liner St. Louis, which arrived at her dock early this morning, succeeded in clipping one hour and twenty-seven minutes off her own record from Southampton to this port.

A few vessels were spoken on the trip, but nothing out of the ordinary was encountered until yesterday, when about fifty miles west of Nantucket lightship she passed a steamship barkentine rigged with black funnel, which was apparently disabled.

The fact that the St. Louis had beaten her own record as well as showing increased superiority over the cruiser Columbia and Hamburg-American liner Augusta Victoria was hailed with joy by the American line.

A comparison of the daily runs made by the cruiser and the St. Louis will furnish a better idea of their respective merits:

St. Louis—448, 478, 475, 465, 467, 261.—Distance—3,048 knots.

WILL COMMAND THE ST. PAUL.

Capt. Jamison, of the Paris, to Have Charge of the New Liner.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—Capt. Jamison, one of the present commanders in the American line fleet, has been selected to command the new steamer St. Paul, when she goes into service between New York and Southampton, in October.

Capt. Jamison is the commander of the steamship Paris and has been in the command of the International Navigation Company for several years.

OFF FOR EUROPE.

Seven Big Steamships Carried Americans Abroad.

Among the passengers who left for Europe today were Alex. Graham Bell, Dr. J. C. Ayer, Lieut. and Baroness de Nays, Countess W. von Trapp, Mrs. P. A. Murray, and Mrs. Edward H. Anderson and E. P. Baldwin.

LAST RITES TO CAPT. MURPHY

Many Police Officials Attend His Funeral This Morning.

The funeral of Police Capt. Michael Murphy, lately in command of the West One Hundredth Street Station, was held from the Church of the Holy Name, at Forty-eighth Street and Avenue C, this morning, shortly before noon today.

A large number of the dead Captain's friends crowded the church and were sitting when the procession arrived from the house, 159 West One Hundredth and Fourth street.

The solemn requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Father James M. Gallagher, assisted by Father Edward W. Higgins and Father Joseph J. Curley.

During the excitement the catcatchers captured Leif Butler and Lexow and threw them into their wagon.

These dogs were running at large, and Plumber Mulrain captured the dog-catchers. Some of the policemen then came to the station-house and participated in the lively war of words.

KILLED BY AN ANGRY BULL.

The Farmer in Dead and His Son, Who Shot the Bull, is Dying.

VALPARAISO, Ind., Aug. 2.—Louis Rich and his son, George, entered a field yesterday in which was kept a vicious bull. While at work the bull charged down upon them, and began to gore and trample.

At length the bull left the dying father and attacked the son. The boy tried to escape, but was killed, and being badly injured himself killed the bull.

A NOBLE LIFE

SPENT FOR AND WITH SUFFERING WOMEN.

A life's work perpetuated through a faithful daughter, and records of priceless value.

What a vast amount of misery and suffering has been prevented by the clear-headed foresight of one noble woman.

She had struggled, labored and sacrificed for the welfare of her sex. The eyes of the women of the world were upon her.

As she recalled the past, and tried to penetrate the future, a smile of supreme satisfaction passed over her honest face as she remembered that her life's work would be perpetuated.

The room in which she sat contained hundreds of volumes of records; and, turning to her daughter, she said:

"My daughter, this room, as you well know, contains the records of my life's work, in which for many years you have so diligently assisted me."

By earnest application you have compassed my methods; and it is a happiness to think that when I leave, the glorious work will, through you, go on.

"The mission is a noble one. Do as I have done: never permit a woman's appeal to go unheeded. This records all of every case ever submitted to me; and it is my wish that the facts they contain shall in time prove a much-needed education to the women of the world."

Thus did Lydia E. Pinkham hand over to her daughter, Mrs. Charles H. Pinkham, what may be termed the salvation of her sex; and that wonderful remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which all druggists consider as standard as flour, goes on redeeming hundreds of women from the fearful consequences of female diseases.

DOG PANIC IN WESTCHESTER.

Catchers Secure Police Pets From Butler and Lexow.

The New York dog-catchers invaded Westchester this afternoon and caused a dog panic in the town of York.

Henry Murphy, who keeps a crockery store on Main street, near Police Headquarters, vigorously opposed the dog-catchers when they attempted to capture his dog. He horsewhipped one of the men and was locked up in the town hall.

There was a lively scene when the dog-catchers attempted to scoop in Plumber John Mulrain's dog. Mulrain rode opposite the police station.

These dogs were running at large, and Plumber Mulrain captured the dog-catchers. Some of the policemen then came to the station-house and participated in the lively war of words.
