BOTH BIG FIGHTERS RESTING

WE ASK PEACE IN CHINA, BACKED BY THE CZAR.

Our Note to Powers of Europe Requests End to War and Recognition of Earl Li-- Britain's Silence Puzzling.

(Special to The Evening World.)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—A practical alliance between Russia and the United States to end the war in China was revealed today by the publication of the text of the identical note to the powers decided upon by President McKinley's Cabinet. This communication was based on the Russian note to us which declared as interdiction of Li Hung Chang's communication with the Chinese Government was "inexplicable," and asked that the powers direct their commanders to vacate the order.

WE ACT WITH CZAR.

The United States concurs with the position of Russia, and informs the powers that instructions have been sent to our representative in China in the spirit of the Russian note.

As all the Admirals but the American and Russian agreed in the decision to restrict Li's liberty the outcome of our siding with Russia is awaited with some misgivings. Great Britain's silence puzzles the Government, and the retirement of Secretary Hay, known for his pro-English leanings, from the scene, on the plea of illness, complicates the situation.

TEXT OF THE NOTE.

"Telegram sent to the representatives of the United States in Berlin, Vienna, Paris, London, Rome, Tokio and St. Petersburg:

"Department of State, Washington, Aug. 24, 1900.
The following note was received by me from the Charge of the Russian Government at this capital Aug. 17:
"I have just received a communication from the Imperial Government informing me of the resolution of the Admirals of the allied fleets interdicting the plenipotentiary of the Chinese Government, Li Hung Chang, from all communication with the Chinese authorities in the event of his arrival at Taku.
"This resolution being inexplicable, in view of the fact that all powers have recognized the utility of admitting his (Li Hung Chang's) services, in the eventual negotiations for peace, and especially because it would be impossible for him to fulfill his mission in the character of Chinese plenipotentiary if this were done, it would be desirable that the interested governments should give orders to countermand the above mentioned decision."

ORDERS TO REMEY.

"Inquiry of Admiral Remy, commanding our fleet at Taku, was first answered that no such resolution had been adopted. He now cables that the Admirals have agreed to write the Dean of the legations at Peking instructions (Continued on Second Page.)

WEALTHY WOMAN ROBBED. CHLOROFORM THIEF AFTER $30,000 GEMS

Mrs. Lorena C. Stewart Tells a Thrilling Story of Her Adventure.

A daring attempt to chloroform and rob Mrs. Lorena C. Stewart, who says she had been raised by Mrs. T. A. Hendricks, wife of the Vice-President of the United States during Cleveland's first term, of jewels valued according to the detectives at $30,000, came to light in the West Side Police Court today. Central Office Detectives Davis and Dunn arraigned Thomas R. Rabone, an electrician, of 534 Jane street, West Hoboken, on a charge of the larceny of a tin box from Mrs. Stewart's apartments containing valuable papers, money, small articles of jewelry and letters valued at $100.

MANAGER KENNEDY SAYS CORBETT IS ALL RIGHT.

J. C. KENNEDY, Manager of Twentieth Century Club—"There is nothing the matter with Corbett. The statement that he has rheumatism is simply put forward to influence the betting. The betting now is too one-sided for him. Corbett is in perfect condition."

BETTING 10 TO 8 CORBETT

CORBETT'S ALL RIGHT NOW.

Corbett and party left his headquarters at Bath Beach this afternoon at 3.40 o'clock, arriving here at 4.30. He boarded a Sixth avenue "L" train and got off at Thirty-third street, where a cab awaited him.

Corbett was driven to his home in West Thirty-fourth street, where he ate a light lunch and immediately went to bed. He slept soundly until he was called to prepare for his trip to the Garden.

M'Coey also took a long nap this afternoon and denied himself to all visitors. His handlers, in reply to inquiries, said the "Kid" was fit as a fiddle and confident of victory.

There was little or no betting on the result this afternoon. Corbett ruled the favorite at odds of 100 to 80, and his money went begging.

George Considine has $2,000, John Considine $2,500, Al Smith $3,000 and "Tom" O'Rourke $1,000 to wager on Corbett at the above odds.

James J. Corbett said to an Evening World reporter at 2 o'clock this afternoon that what he thought was rheumatism has turned out to be a strain of his right leg.

He says it will not interfere with his chances of victory in his battle with Kid M'Coey at Madison Square Garden to-night.

"I will enter the ring to-night even if I have to do so on crutches," he said. "But no one need fear such a contingency. I am in perfect physical condition save for the pain in my leg. I am fit to battle for my life."

Dr. George G. Cochran, of Benson and Nineteenth avenues, Bath Beach, was commissioned by The Evening World this noon to examine Corbett.

The fighter received Dr. Cochran cordially, but would not allow him to make a minute examination. He walked about his training quarters, and at the conclusion of his visit Dr. Cochran issued a statement to The Evening World to the effect that Corbett's muscles in the right leg and thigh had been strained.

There is an impression abroad that the report of Corbett's alleged bad physical condition was circulated to influence the betting.

HORTON LAW'S WAKE.

Headway A. C. Ceremonies on Occasion of Gans-Hawkins Fight To-Morrow Night.

The bright star of the Horton law will sink for good to-morrow night, and to make the occasion a memorable one, the Broadway Athletic Club has arranged an excellent card.

The main attraction will be a twenty-five-round bout between Dal Hawkins and Joe Gans. This fight would alone suffice to make the closing day one to be remembered, for once before they fought a contest, which still lingers in the minds of those who saw it.

The club, though, has arranged an extra attraction. It will be the introduction of weary boxer who has attained fame under the law from the ring. Then just as the clock strikes 12 everybody will be asked to join in the chorus of "Auld Lang Syne."

THE FORECAST.
