JEROME RAIDS FRANK FARRELL

Justice Jerome Breaks Into the Pool-Room of Devery's Friend.

Justice Jerome at the head of a party of the Committee of Fifteen at 5 o'clock this afternoon raided the pool-room of Frank Farrell, the friend of Deputy Commissioner Devery.

The doors were found locked and were smashed with axes. A wild scramble was made by the seventy men playing the races.

They went out through the windows, up and down the fire-escape—any way to get free.

Five warrants sworn out by Michael Wooley, of McCullagh's force, were served and the prisoner's taken.

The Committee of Fifteen also raided a poolroom at No. 101 Duwery, the Germania Assembly Rooms building.

This is the same place that Capt. Diamond raided recently without capturing anything or anybody.

Jules Frank, the reputed manager of the place grabbed the money, thrust it into a bag and shot out of a rear window to an extension. He jumped twenty-five feet and escaped.

After those arrested were examined, all but two were released.

DOCTOR TAKEN TO INSANE PAVILION.

Dr. Charles J. Kane, thirty-five years old, of 673 Second street, who has a large practice on the east side, was taken to the insane pavilion at Bellevue to-day and placed under observation.

ACTOR CARNEY SET FREE.

Charles D. Carney, the actor, whose stage name is "Cranley Douglas," was discharged when arraigned before Magistrate Brann in Jefferson Market Court to-day, charged with attempted suicide.

Carney told the Magistrate that he had received a cable message announcing that his mother was dying. This made him despondent and as he was ill, he took morphine to alleviate it, and accidentally took an overdose.

He stated that he had no intention of killing himself.

A Centre of Activity. The West 23d St. Station of the Pennsylvania Railroad is convenient to the shopping, hotel and theatre sections of Manhattan.

ACTOR H. P. PELL A SUICIDE FOR LOVE.

HORACE PORTER PELL.

Prominent New Yorker Tears Up a Love Letter in Cleveland and Then Shoots Himself.

Son of the Late John Howland Pell, He Went on the Stage Despite Family Protests.

The Evening World called up the Huron Street Hospital, in Cleveland, O., at 12.15 o'clock. The following conversation took place:

"This is the Evening World in New York. Is this the house of your son?"

"Yes; what do you want?"

"Will you kindly tell us the condition of Horace Porter Pell, who shot himself this morning?"

"He is in a critical condition. The bullet passed clear through his body. He is unconscious. We do not know yet whether the stomach was perforated."

"He has a slight chance of recovery, but I cannot say surely that he will live through the day. It depends upon whether a vital organ has been hit."

Horace Porter Pell, the actor son of the well-known New York family of that name, shot himself early to-day in his rooms in the Wyandotte apartment-house, in Cleveland, O. The bullet went clear through his body and the wound is believed to be mortal.

Young Pell is twenty-three years old. His father was the late John Howland Pell. Two brothers are Stephen H. T. Pell and S. Osgood Pell, of the firm of S. Osgood Pell & Co., of No. 512 Fifth Avenue. Mrs. Samuel Cornell Hopkins, who was Miss Mary Howard Pell before her marriage, is a sister. The Pell brothers live with their widowed mother at Port Washington, L. I., where they have a handsome estate.

In Love with Actress.

Scraps of a letter in a woman's handwriting on delicately scented paper were found scattered about young Pell's room. They were patched together, but no address or signature could be deciphered.

There were also a number of letters from Pell's mother. Pell was conscious when found, but would make no statement. When asked why he shot himself he shut his teeth and turned his face away.

He became unconscious at the hospital and is still in that condition. It was found that he had shot himself in the stomach and the bullet passed entirely through the body. It is thought the stomach was perforated, in which case there can be little hope of saving Pell's life.

Young Pell is a nephew of Mrs. Walden Pell. He went on the stage in January, 1900, much against the wishes of his family.

He is said to have fallen in love with a prominent actress and it is supposed that her refusal of his suit was the cause of Pell's desperate act. Stephen H. T. Pell, a member of the firm of S. Osgood Pell & Co., No. 512 Fifth Avenue, is a brother of Horace Pell. An Evening World reporter asked him this morning if he had heard any bad news from Horace.

ODELL TO FREE BRAVE BOY JOE.

Governor Will Visit the Young Hero and Learn Facts of His Case.

Brave little Joe Phillips will be accorded an honor such as has never fallen to the lot of a New York waif.

The Governor of the greatest State in the Union is in the city, and it is said that he came down purposely to investigate the case and to take personal active interest in securing Joe a home and an education befitting his talents and energy.

Gov. Odell led the strenuous life as a boy. What he is to-day he made himself. He had the advantage of Joe Phillips in that he had a good father and mother who looked out for him. Poor little Joe has no father and his mother is in the workhouse.

The tale of little Joe's struggles in The Evening World touched the big heart of the Governor. It has been told how he telegraphed to Magistrate Pool about the little fellow. The report of the Magistrate evidently stirred his interest to greater depths, for he is here to-day, full of solicitude for the boy.

An engagement has been made by the Governor to meet Magistrate Pool some time this evening and hear from the lips of the man who sent Joe to the Protectory all of the facts concerning his struggles and their outcome.

The Magistrate is as deeply interested as is the Governor. He has given much of his own time to the boy.

It is a great thing for the Governor of a State to travel hundreds of miles on behalf of a boy whose sole recommendation is that he is honest and loving and a hustler.

A great thing for boy and Governor. For details of brave Joe's case see page 6.

WEAK EYES A BAR.

Many Students Fail at West Point Examination.

WEST POINT, N. Y., June 6.—No official report has as yet been made by the Medical Examining Board, but in official circles it is said that about 25 per cent. of the young men who yesterday presented themselves for entrance examination at the Military Academy were found physically disqualified, mainly on account of weak eyes.

BIG MAN IS MISSING.

Mitchell is 6 Feet High and Weighs 235 Pounds.

The police are searching for John Mitchell, fifty-six years old, who has been missing from his home, No. 2139 Eighth Avenue, since June 2. He weighs 235 pounds and is 6 feet in height. When last seen he wore a frock coat and vest, black trousers, white shirt and cotton underwear.

Keeler

If they play at all to-day it will be on a muddy lot.

It looks as if the champions would be "up against it" here. The Pirates put the "kibosh" on the Quakers three straight and are now roosting in second place, within a few links of the Giants.

Fred Clark has his pitchers working to suit him now and has announced that the two-fold reason of moving up themselves and helping New York to hold first place. Were McGinnity here one game would be a sure thing, as the "Iron Man" put it all over the Pirates nearly every time he pitched against them last year.

President Ebbets joined the Champions here this morning. He has been hard at work trying to coax John I. Rogers to give up Wolverton for Tughey Jennings, but the Philadelphia manager has been coy. So Ebbets came here empty-handed. He might have been gold-bricked at that. Wolverton left here the other day for his home in Ohio to nurse a bunch of baseball fans. How long he will be out of the game is not known.

Champions See-Sawing.

The see-saw stunts that the Brooklyn and St. Louis teams are doing these days are keeping the Gowanus and Mound City fans busy.

The champions are now in fifth place, thanks to the trimming administered by the Giants to Patsy Donovan's pets, but the two clubs may change places again to-day. Hanlon said this morning that his team has been getting the worst of the umpiring right along both at home and abroad. "If things break even and we get a fair deal," he said, "there is not a team that will crowd over us."

Sun Shone for Game.

A couple of hours of sunshine put the diamond at Exposition Park in good luck.
