

Continued Warm To-Day and Thursday.

NIGHT EDITION

The

World

Continued Warm To-Day and Thursday.

BASEBALL and RACING

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1901.

PRICE ONE CENT.

GIANTS PLAY GOOD BALL AGAINST CINCINNATI

HOTTEST DAY WITH MERCURY UP TO 90.

Several Heat Prostrations and Another Day of Torrid Weather Promised for To-Morrow.

HOTTER THAN WELL, IT'S HOT.

His Satanic Majesty (reading the Hades Gazette)—Another New York politician unstruck, eh? Well, he'll have to find his way down here alone. New York's too infernally hot for me to go after him. I can stand a lot of heat, but there is a limit.

NEW YORK WINS

Score by Innings table for New York vs Cincinnati

(Continued from Page 2)

Seventh Inning—Beckley singled, Crawford out at first. Steinert fanned. No runs. Stragg hit by pitcher. Bowserman fouled to Beckley, stole third. Davis tried to Crawford. Straie out trying to home. No runs.

BROOKLYN VS. PITTSBURG

Score by Innings table for Brooklyn vs Pittsburgh

At Boston—St. Louis 3; Boston, 2.

At Philadelphia—Chicago vs. Philadelphia—wet grounds.

AMERICAN LEAGUE GAMES.

At Cleveland—End of fourth: Cleveland, 1; Milwaukee, 0.

At Washington—End of fourth: Phila., 2; Washington, 0.

RESULTS AT ST. LOUIS.

Third Race—Dr. Burns 1; Satchel 2; Miss Wandelohr 3.

DRUG STORE WRECKED BY EXPLOSION.

SOMERVILLE, N. J., June 26.—Reussig's pharmacy was wrecked by an explosion this afternoon. Chemicals are believed to have caused the accident.

FAILURE RUMOR AS MONEY RISES.

Report that a Big Banking House May Be Forced to the Wall.

With the steady rise in the money market this afternoon came the rumor that a large banking house was in difficulties.

Giants Begin Game with Fine Batting Streak, Scoring Six Runs in Four Innings---Mathewson Was Hit in Fifth Inning.

The Giant—Cousin Heine, you're just the fellow I've been looking for.

The Batting Order. New York: Van Halten, cf.; Selbach, lf.; Nelson, 2b.; Hickman, ss.; Straie, rf.; Bowserman, c.; Davis, 3b.; Mathewson, p.

POLO GROUNDS, June 26.—The much-watched Heines from Cincinnati furnished the opposition at the Polo Grounds to-day. The Reds have been putting on their famous toboggan specialty lately, and Davis's men, who are still sore about losing last heartbreak-

A Scheme to Reduce Surplus Fuel Without Exertion.

When the Sun Got in His Eyes.

When the Sun Got in His Eyes.

BIG PROJECT IN THE BRONX.

A New Street System Which Will Make Vast Improvement.

The Local Board of the Twelfth Ward, Manhattan and the Bronx, met in President Coogan's office this afternoon to discuss Engineer Hesse's map for an entirely new street system in the Twelfth Ward.

FOUR INJURED IN EXPLOSION.

Gasoline Ignites in a Drug Store at Somerville, N. J.

Four persons were badly injured in an explosion which occurred this afternoon in the drug store of William Reussig, on West Main street, Somerville, N. J.

MAGISTRATE MOTT ILL.

Has Heart Failure, and Will Not Sit During July.

HONORS FOR HOLLEBEN.

Harvard Makes Him LL. D. and Shows Him Favor.

BIG PROJECT IN THE BRONX.

A New Street System Which Will Make Vast Improvement.

The Local Board of the Twelfth Ward, Manhattan and the Bronx, met in President Coogan's office this afternoon to discuss Engineer Hesse's map for an entirely new street system in the Twelfth Ward.

FOUR INJURED IN EXPLOSION.

Gasoline Ignites in a Drug Store at Somerville, N. J.

MAGISTRATE MOTT ILL.

Has Heart Failure, and Will Not Sit During July.

HONORS FOR HOLLEBEN.

Harvard Makes Him LL. D. and Shows Him Favor.

THE HEAT RECORD. Table with columns for Time, Temp., and Humidity.

NOTHING DOING. Table with columns for Time, Temp., and Humidity.

WEATHER FORECAST. Table with columns for Time, Temp., and Humidity.

This is the hottest day of the year! There's no use telling it, but the Weatherman gives out the information as news and the truth must be told.

palpitating darts of heat waves the prognosticator, realizing he had been called, inserted himself in a shirtwaist and duck trousers, topped the garb with a Panama bonnet and hid him to the seashore.

alleged air that was so dense one could peer into it, but never through it. The awful glare of asphalt burned into the eyes and toasted the soles, while the humidity resembled one huge needle bath and drove thousands of sweaters to the foam of the seaside.

ing game yesterday, were confident they could add a few more defeats to the long string of walkings suffered in the last few weeks by the men from Hill Creek Valley.

(Continued on Second Page.)