

ASSASSIN CRAZED BY LITERATURE

Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton's Views on the Would-Be Slayer of President.

Czolgosz, the murderous assailant of President McKinley, is semi-insane in the opinion of Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton, Professor of Mental Diseases at Cornell University Medical College and one of the foremost alienists in the country. Dr. Hamilton thinks the man's mental condition is due to the influence of Anarchistic publications and societies, in which distorted ideas of freedom of action and speech find expression.

FATHER, MOTHER, BROTHER AND SISTER OF CZOLGOSZ.

BIG FIRE STOPS "TRAFFIC."

$30,000 BLAZE IN LARGE FURNITURE BUILDING.

Fireman Injured by Companion's Axe—Wrecked by Escape by Roof—Ladies' Fine Work.

Damage amounting to $30,000 was caused today by a fire in the five-story building at No. 72 West 12th street, occupied by the Globe-Venture Furniture Company.

LIBRARY PLANS ALL RIGHT NOW.

CARNEGIE APPROVES COMPTROLLER COLER'S CONTRACTS.

Says He Is Sure City Authorities Will Act Wisely—Sites Can Now Be Secured.

Comptroller Coler, who recently sent a letter to Andrew Carnegie at Skibo Castle asking him to agree to the formal contracts allowing for his gift, received an answer this morning as follows:

KILLED BY TROLLEY CAR.

Got Off One and Stepped in Front of Another.

John Stevens, twenty-seven years old, of No. 213 East 17th street, was struck by a trolley car today and died in the Harlem Hospital.

Where and when to advertise. Now. In the Sunday World Want sheet.

ONEILL TELLS NAME OF WOULD-BE BRIBER.

Patrolman Edward O'Neill, on trial for insubordination before Deputy Police Commissioner Devery, of Brooklyn, at Police Headquarters today, revealed the name of the man who offered to have him transferred for $25.

The name he mentioned is that of a patrolman, Julius Didier. This man, he said, also offered to have him put on a "soft" post for from $5 to $10.

Devery on the stand. Deputy Commissioner Devery was the next witness. He read over the charge of insubordination he had made against O'Neill and was then examined by Mr. Baldwin.

"Do you know the rules of the Department?" asked Mr. Baldwin.

"Yes," admitted the lawyer, "my argument is for mitigation."

"By this time the biased, smiling Devery had become transformed. His face was white, drops of sweat stood on his forehead and his hands clinched the arms of his chair. He was plainly angry.

"I'm a Commissioner and not a member of the uniformed force," said Devery.

"Wait a moment," said Deputy Commissioner York, noting anxiously that his colleague was becoming rattled.

"I won't answer that question," belated Devery, half rising from his chair.

"Be calm, Chief; be calm," said York soothingly.

"I'm a Commissioner and O'Neill is a patrolman," was the reply.

Patrolman Julius Didier, He Declares on the Stand, Was the Man Who Tried to "Shake Him Down" — Devery as a Witness Gets Into Boiling Hot Water.

Twenty-fifth street—the transfer that led to the attempted "shake-down," testified O'Neill, "when I was approached by Patrolman Julius Didier. He asked me if I was pleased with the new precinct, and I told him no."

O'Neill said that he knew of lots of money who had been asked to put up money for a transfer. He mentioned reluctantly the name of Patrolman Henry Neuschaefer, who had been transferred and got back to his old precinct.

"I understand that it is, I have heard that if a man reports a saloon he is likely to be recommended to the surgeon for examination as to his sanity."

"What about O'Neill saying he wouldn't pay $25 for a transfer?" asked Mr. Baldwin.

"I understand that it is, I have heard that if a man reports a saloon he is likely to be recommended to the surgeon for examination as to his sanity."

"I understand that it is, I have heard that if a man reports a saloon he is likely to be recommended to the surgeon for examination as to his sanity."

"I understand that it is, I have heard that if a man reports a saloon he is likely to be recommended to the surgeon for examination as to his sanity."

"I understand that it is, I have heard that if a man reports a saloon he is likely to be recommended to the surgeon for examination as to his sanity."

"I understand that it is, I have heard that if a man reports a saloon he is likely to be recommended to the surgeon for examination as to his sanity."

OUR 3D ANNIVERSARY. Falls on Sept. 10th (to-morrow). In honor of the occasion we shall present every purchaser during week commencing Anniversary Day with a Handsome Souvenir as a Memento. METAL COUCH BED. ANNIVERSARY SOUVENIR Distributed from Sept. 10th to Sept. 17th. CASH OR CREDIT. FISHER BROS., Columbus Ave., bet. 103d and 104th Sts. Elevated Station 104th St. Open Saturdays Until 10 P. M.

WHAT SURGEONS SAY OF THE LATEST BULLETIN.

Dr. William M. Polk, one of the ablest surgeons in the country and a relative of President McKinley, when shown the morning bulletin of President McKinley's physicians, said "Good" three times, nodding his head emphatically, as he noted the improvement in the President's pulse, temperature and respiration. Then he said: "I know Dr. Mann very well, and if President McKinley gets well the nation will owe his life to Dr. Mann for the promptness and skill that he showed in dealing with the case. The more quickly you follow up injury with operation the better the chances of the patient."

So far as the President's condition is concerned the fact that at the end of sixty hours there is no general peritonitis assures us that he has weathered the dangers of the injury to the stomach, and under such circumstances we are in the habit of considering that the patient will recover.

Dr. John Cosby hopeful. Dr. John B. Cosby, of the Health Department, said: "There are no many things that might take place in such a case, and under these conditions without premonitory symptoms, that it is difficult to formulate a prognosis."

Big robbery of schools open. In almost every district the rush of new pupils was large and many children in the primary grades had to be sent home until places can be made for them.

Inspector Jacobs kept all-night watch and caught young Erber red-handed. Edward J. Erber, well-dressed and intelligent in appearance, was arrested before United States Commissioner Hitchcock in the Federal Building this afternoon on a charge of robbing United States mails.

Another stay for Bissert. Lawyer Frederick Howe asked Justice Truax today in the Supreme Court to allow Wardman Bissert, who was convicted recently, to grant a stay of six days to make a case on appeal from his sentence and conviction.

Killed in train wreck. A large party of Fairmont, W. Va., excursionists were aboard. It is said that the engineer and several passengers were killed.

Hecht Bros., 259-261 6th Avenue, Between 16th and 17th Sts. Opening Days and Opening Prices.

Our Three Days' Opening Sale is making splendid progress. Many are flocking to the New Store curious to learn in relation to the plan for Selling Everything to Wear on Part-Payments at Cash Prices. Nothing like it was ever attempted before in the city of New York. It is a positive revelation. People are profoundly interested in learning how easily and at the same time inexpensively they can thus clothe themselves and families.

Even at These Prices Partial Payments Accepted! Ladies' Satin Stock Collars, all colors; value 15c., 9c., 5,000 yds. Torchon Laces and Insertings; large variety of patterns from 1 1/2 to 4 inches wide; worth 7c. to 10c., yd., 4c.

46th St. BAUMANN 8th Ave. CONTINUED SUCCESS OF OUR COZY FLAT COMPLETELY FURNISHED AT 69.98

COZY FLAT COMPLETELY FURNISHED AT 69.98. This handsome, highly polished mahogany finished 5-piece Parlor Suit; has soft spring seats covered in floral designed damask. 19.98

Bon Ami. A metal polish that does not daub the hands or woodwork. EYES-FREE. YOU SAVE $5.00.

Millinery. DR. BRIDGES, an oculist of 30 years' practice last assistant, are making SCIENTIFIC EXAMINATIONS at our Optical Parlor, 610 East 14th Street, New York.

Lord & Taylor. Opening Days Monday & Tuesday, September Ninth and Tenth, 1901. Broadway & 20th St.