

BULLET IN PRESIDENT'S BODY WON'T BE REMOVED.

Dr. McBurney and Others Do Not Think the Operation Will Be Necessary.

MILBURN HOUSE, BUFFALO, Sept. 10.—The President will live, but will probably carry the bullet of the would-be assassin with him to the grave. This is the solemnly expressed opinion of Dr. Charles McBurney, of New York, this forenoon after the consultation of the physicians.

He announced that the President had passed the danger point, and now only the remote possibility of complications remained. He also announced that unless the bullet imbedded in the muscles of the back caused trouble there would be no necessity to extract it.

In his opinion it would not even be located with the X-ray. Nothing could be gained by the use of the X-ray, he said, except the satisfaction of curiosity. All the other physicians were equally confident after the morning consultation that recovery was assured. Dr. Mynter said the President was out of the woods with daylight behind him.

The results of the second morning conference were made known about 9 o'clock, as the doctors came from the house, although it was some time after that the bulletin appeared. The faces of the doctors clearly indicated their satisfaction at the condition of affairs.

As Dr. Roswell Park, the dean of the Buffalo surgical fraternity, went to his carriage, he paused long enough to give a general survey of the conditions prevailing.

"The condition of the President this morning," said he, "is entirely satisfactory. He spent the most comfortable night he has had since the shooting. He slept well, and when he was awake he was cheery and even chatty. He is not receiving any nourishment thus far except by enema. This is an altogether natural incident of the case at this time."

Expect Him to Recover.
"Do you regard the President as entirely out of danger?" Dr. Park was asked.

"I do not want to go that far. What can be said is that unless there are unexpected complications we expect him to recover."

"Have you considered the prospect of his removal?"
"No, it is too early for that; but when he is moved he will probably go to Washington."

Dr. Park referred to the fact that the bullet was most conservative and gave results such as the medical fraternity would be expected to pass upon in case of any citizen.

"It would be well to have it stated," he said, "that the President is not being deprived of the benefits of private citizenship. He is being treated exactly as any other citizen would be, and is getting the benefit of it. We view the case just as that of any other man who might be similarly afflicted."

Rigidly Scientific.
Dr. Park's latter statement will explain the fact that the official bulletins are based on rigid scientific principles as they are applicable alike to all cases of surgery.

Dr. Herman Mynter was the next of the consulting physicians to come from the house. He was followed by Dr. Eugene Wasdin, and they walked down the street together. To the questions of the newspaper men Dr. Mynter said:

"The President is doing splendidly and he is out of the woods, if I may express it that way."

"Yes," chimed in Dr. Wasdin, "and he has plenty of daylight behind him."

Dr. Mynter continued:
"I have never been really optimistic because I do not like to prejudge serious cases, but now I can say to you that everything in the President's condition warrants the statement that he is on the road to quick recovery."

Dr. Wasdin said: "I have believed throughout that the President has a fair chance of recovery. Now I desire to say that the chances against that recovery are very slight. His temperature is splendid and his pulse getting to normal."

Dr. McBurney's Statement.
Dr. McBurney was in high spirits as he walked away from the residence shortly after the other physicians had gone. His face was wreathed in smiles.

"Is the President out of danger?" he was asked.

"We believe he is practically out of danger," he replied, measuring his words. Then he paused. "Of course," he added, "there are still possibilities in the case, and we will all feel better when a week has gone by. But his improvement is so marked, his symptoms are so good, that we feel safe in assuring the public that he will recover. Blood-poisoning might still develop. We could not give a guarantee now, but the chances are remote. As for peritonitis, I consider that the danger from inflammation of the peritoneum has passed."

"Might not an abscess form about the bullet?"

"Yes, of course; the bullet may not be clean, but if it does we can easily locate and remove it."

"If the President continues to improve and his convalescence is not checked how soon will the secondary operation for the extraction of the bullet be performed?"

No Fear of the Bullet.

"Never," replied the famous surgeon. "That piece of lead encased in the muscles of his back will cause no harm. Of course, if it gives him trouble an operation will be performed."

"But you will use the X-ray to locate it?"

He shook his head. "Why should we?" he asked. "To satisfy our curiosity? That would be its only purpose."

Dr. McBurney's supreme confidence in the outcome could not be overstated. His manner and bearing all testified to the conviction he felt. There were none of the reservations he made yesterday. Then he plainly showed that he was not yet satisfied.

He then said a week should elapse before definite assurance could be given. This morning the President's condition was so satisfactory that the doctor felt safe in his announcement that the danger point had passed and that the President was on the high road to recovery.

"We have locked door after door against the grim monster," he said in conclusion. "I am satisfied, I am going to Niagara Falls to-day to see the sights."

KING EDWARD REJOICES AT FAVORABLE REPORT.

"God Grant that His Life May Be Preserved," He Cables State Department.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—A daily inquiry and an expression of satisfaction at the President's progress toward recovery comes to the State Department from King Edward. This morning Ambassador Choate cabled that he had received from London the following telegram from the King:

"I rejoice to hear favorable accounts of the President's health. God grant that his life may be preserved."

Acting Secretary Ade, in response to this message, cabled to Mr. Choate:

HERR MOST, IN FEAR, IS HIDING.

Herr Most has become frightened and is in hiding. His Anarchistic friends believe he is keeping under cover because he is afraid of receiving personal violence or, more likely, of being arrested for some of the incendiary speeches he has made.

In Gold street, where his Anarchistic paper, "Froheit," was published, it is denied that the sheet is now issued there. Another publisher said that the paper was formerly printed by him, but he no longer published it.

for the information of King Edward the latest bulletin issued by the President's physicians as to his condition.

CHINESE SEND LETTER OF REGRET.

PEKING, Sept. 10.—Prince Ching and Li Hung Chang have sent to the Emperor a letter of regret at the attempted assassination of President McKinley, and Prince Ching is requesting the court to issue an edict to the same purport.

"I'M GLAD OF IT," CRIES DEVERY.

"Good! I'm glad of it," said Deputy Commissioner Devery when he heard of Emma Goldman's arrest.

"She is a dangerous character to be at large and has more influence with the so-called Anarchists than a man, even though she shows just as loud."

"If I could do it, I'd put down Anarchy and Anarchists and squelch the whole thing."

HAVE YOU A FANCY TBA SBT (that you don't need)? Sell it. Find a buyer by advertising in the Sun-World.

MILBURN HOUSE WITH PRESS TENT.

BULLETINS SHOW PRESIDENT'S RECOVERY DURING FOUR DAYS SINCE HE WAS WOUNDED

	Temperature	Pulse	Respiration
FRIDAY	7 P. M. .... 100.4	130	—
	11 P. M. .... 100.4	124	24
	9 A. M. .... 102	146	24
	12 Noon .... 102	136	28
SATURDAY	3 P. M. .... 102.2	140	24
	9 P. M. .... 102.5	132	25
	9 A. M. .... 102.8	132	24
	12 Noon .... 101	128	27
SUNDAY	3 P. M. .... 101	128	28
	9 P. M. .... 101.6	130	30
	9 A. M. .... 100.8	122	28
MONDAY	3 P. M. .... 101	113	26
	9:30 P. M. .... 101	112	27
TUESDAY	1 A. M. .... 101	112	27
	7 A. M. .... 100.4	118	28
	9 A. M. .... 99.8	104	26
	Normal for man of 58 ... 98.6	78	16
	Danger point ..... 104	130	30

EMMA GOLDMAN TELLS HOW SHE MET CZOLGOSZ.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Emma Goldman, during her inquisition at Police Headquarters, declared ironically that she never advocated violence. She seemed at first to regret admitting that she knew Czolgosz.

"Do you know that your words are what Czolgosz claims stirred him to shoot the President?" she was asked.

"I do not," she replied. "I never advocated violence. I scarcely know the man. I was leaving for Rochester via Buffalo when Czolgosz had a few words with me. He said he had heard me lecture at some memorial hall in Cleveland last May and that he wanted to know me."

"He said he knew I was in Chicago and looked me up. I scarcely remember anything about him save that his complexion was light."

"Then, how do you know that this man is the one who tried to kill the President?"

"Oh," with a shrug of the shoulders, "I guessed that from what the newspapers say."

"What did you think when you heard that an attempt to kill the President had been made?"

"With a wave of her hands and another shrug of the shoulders she answered disdainfully: 'I thought, 'Oh, the fool!''"

Becomes Excited.
The prisoner's manner has been growing more and more excited, although she made an effort to control herself. In this she finally succeeded and launched into a discourse of the teachings of anarchy.

"She declared that anarchy did not teach men to do the act which has made Czolgosz despised and hated the world over. 'We work against the system and education is our watchword,' said she.

gations concerning her whereabouts recently.

Czolgosz Called.
"On the night of July 12 Isaaks was out of the house. The bell rang and I went to the door. The man who, I learned through the newspapers, was Czolgosz, stood there. He said he wanted to see me. I was about to catch the Nickel Plate train, as I and Mr. Isaaks's daughter were about to go to Rochester."

Sincerely "Liked" Him.
"He went to the Rock Island depot with us, but I was so busy taking leave of my friends that I scarcely noticed him. It was not a time when one would want to make new friends. At the depot I had a few words with him of which I have told."

"That was all there ever was between us."

"I am an Anarchist—a student of Socialism, but nothing in anything I ever said to Leon Czolgosz knowingly would have led him to do the act which started everybody Friday."

"Not even in your lectures?" He says your words set his brain on fire."

"Am I accountable because some crack-brained person put a wrong construction on my words?"

"Leon Czolgosz, I am convinced, planned the deed unaided and entirely alone. There is no Anarchist ring which would help him."

Impulse to Kill.
"There may be Anarchists who would murder, but there are also men in every walk of life who sometimes feel the impulse to kill."

"I do not know surely, but I think Czolgosz was one of those down-trodden men who see all the misery which the rich inflict upon the poor; who think of it, who brood over it, and then in despair resolve to strike a great blow, as they think, for the good of their fellow-men. But that is not Anarchy."

"Czolgosz"—she pronounced the name with the greatest ease—"Czolgosz may have been inspired by me, but if he was he took the wrong way of showing it."

Denied Her Identity.
Police officials are not entirely satisfied with Miss Goldman's story. When Capt. Schuetler and Detective Hertz discovered her at the home of one Norris, at No. 303 Sheffield avenue, she denied her identity.

"Hello, Miss Goldman," said the Captain, as he entered the parlor. "Are you glad to see me?"

"I'm not Miss Goldman; I'm a Swedish woman, and my name is Lena Larson," answered the woman, endeavoring to imitate the Swedish dialect.

"All right; I speak Swedish myself," said the police officer, as he asked a few questions in the Norse tongue. Miss Goldman didn't answer, affecting to misunderstand. Detective Hertz, meanwhile, had been investigating and had discovered a pen with the name "Emma Goldman" engraved thereon.

"What does this mean?" shouted Capt. Schuetler, holding the tell-tale article before its owner's eyes.

"It means that the game is up," she said. She then admitted her identity fully and accompanied the police to the office of Chief O'Neill.

CHIEF MURPHY FAIRLY REJOICES.

Commissioner Murphy was not surprised to hear of Emma Goldman's arrest.

"So they've got her, eh? Well, I am glad of it, and hope all of the Emma Goldmans and Herr Mosts will fall into the hands of the police if they violate the law."

UNKNOWN PUT UP DEATH POSTERS

PREDICTED M'KINLEY'S DEATH SEVERAL WEEKS AGO.

(Special to The Evening World.)
MOORESVILLE, Ind., Sept. 10.—Several weeks ago a stranger appeared here and posted placards prophesying McKinley's death until he was driven out of the neighborhood by indignant citizens. A copy of the placard has been found in the house which he occupied. It was written in red ink. It said:

"McKinley has long since been spiritually condemned. He is an evil man and an imposter and his hour is close, and Roosevelt shall be President."

"McKinley and Hobart, put the poor found in the house which he occupied, and Mc-Kinley will pay it. I tell you a man can get a ticket now quick to other planets."

"Just while they are in gay joy a gifted man will rise out of the slums. The red dress is a red omen. High blood loaves is up."

CZOLGOSZ LAD A "REGULAR DEVIL"

MAN WHO KNEW FAMILY CHARACTERIZES HIM THUS.

Lemanski Says Boy Used to Torture Animals—Mother Thought Him Crazy.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 10.—Albert Lemanski, an aged Pole, who was a neighbor of the Czolgosz family when they lived in this city, said to-day in an interview:

"This Leon Czolgosz was a regular devil. He gave his father an end of trouble. The old folks were ticked for him with a strap all the time, but did no good."

"Mrs. Czolgosz thought Leon was crazy. He was bright in his books, but indolent."

"Paul Czolgosz, the father, always predicted that Leon would die in the gallows. His words were: 'Leon, if I don't knock it out of you with a strap you'll swing some day.'"

"Leon was a vicious boy. He used to abuse the horses if he was angry, and he delighted in torturing animals around the farm. When given a severe drubbing he never cried."

SECRETARY HAY IN BUFFALO.

MILBURN HOUSE, BUFFALO, Sept. 10.—Secretary of State John Hay arrived this morning and stopped for a moment at the Milburn house. He was shown the first bulletin by a Secret Service man and went away without entering the house, saying he would return later.

CANDY SPECIAL FOR TUESDAY.

Chocolate Cream Kisses ... 10¢
Chocolate Bitter Sweets ... 15¢
SPECIAL FOR WEDNESDAY:
Cocoanut Caramels ... 10¢
Chocolate Peppermints ... 15¢

Loft 54 BARCLAY ST. COR. WEST CHURCH ST. AT 29 CORTLAND ST. COR. CHURCH

POLICE WILL DRIVE "REDS" FROM CITY.

Commissioner Murphy to Rid New York of Professed Anarchists.

The Anarchists of New York are to be driven out of the city. They will not be allowed to hold meetings, to publish newspapers or to assemble secretly.

Every Anarchist in the city will be under constant espionage; from this time on, and the first declaration of Anarchistic principles will be the signal for the enforcement of the police ukase of banishment.

All of this is foreshadowed in an order sent to every police captain in Greater New York to-day. It reads as follows:

To all the commands in the precincts of all boroughs:

"You are hereby directed to make a police census of all Anarchists residing in the boundaries of your commands. This must be done with the greatest caution, so that the names of innocent persons shall not be confused or mixed with those of pronounced Anarchists. This should be done as speedily as possible and as secretly as the nature of the investigation will warrant. It is possible that after these people discover that a census is being made of them they will move to other quarters, and it will be your duty to discover where they move to and when they moved from their former habitations.

Forward the census when complete to this office, when your report will be verified by a more critical inquiry. MICHAEL C. MURPHY, Commissioner of Police.

Shadow Them Day and Night.
The data gathered by the Anarchist census will be placed in the hands of detectives, who will shadow the Reds day and night.

"It is my intention," said Commissioner Murphy to an Evening World reporter to-day, "to drive the Anarchists out of Greater New York."

"The attempted assassination of the President was a dastardly thing, and the time is ripe for stamping out the doctrine of assassination and the sympathizer with the would-be assassin."

"The first bad-break means an Anarchist out of this city. It is not persecution, it is drastic enforcement of the law. We have been too lenient, too good-natured with the Anarchists."

RESOLUTIONS BY CITY FATHERS.

MUNICIPAL ASSEMBLY SYMPATHIZES WITH PRESIDENT.

Czolgosz's Act Bitterly Denounced and Anarchy Assailed in Speeches.

The Board of Aldermen this afternoon passed resolutions condemning the attempt on the life of President McKinley. The resolution was offered by John T. McCall, Vice-President of the Board, and was as follows:

Whereas, the civilized world stands aghast with consternation at the dastardly and outrageous attempt upon the life of the Hon. William McKinley, President of the United States, and Chief Executive of the whole people of our common country; therefore it is said to Have Wagered $5 President Would Die Before Friday Night.

Resolved, That we, the members of the Municipal Assembly of the city of New York, the metropolis of the Western hemisphere, denounce with indignation the indignation evoked by the assassin's cowardly act, and tender our profound commiseration to our revered President and extend our sincere condolences to his stricken wife, and cherish the hope that Divine Providence will cause him to fulfil his allotted duties to his country.

BET M'KINLEY WOULD BE KILLED

SECRET SERVICE DETECTIVES SEEK CAMDEN MAN.

(Special to The Evening World.)
CAMDEN, N. J., Sept. 10.—A Secret Service detective named Griffin and an assistant are here looking for the man who made a bet on Friday morning that President McKinley would die before Friday night. The men they are trying to locate are Charles Bang and Michael Vlieter.

It is said that Bang wrote a letter to Decourry May, General Manager of the New York Ship Building Company, in which he stated that Vlieter on Friday morning, during a political argument, made a bet of $5 that Mr. McKinley was either dead at that time or that he would be killed before night.

H. Batterman

A Shoe Offer Without Equal.
Our Great Introductory Fall Sale.
800 pairs of 3.50 Ladies' Shoes

In FINE VICI KID, BUTTON OR LACE, ALSO CLOTH TOP BUTTON, ALL WITH PATENT LEATHER TIPS, widths A to E, sizes 2½ to 7, on Coin Toe Last.

Reduced for this week to 2.50

Broadway, Graham and Flushing Aves., Brooklyn.

NO MATTER WHAT KIND OF A HAT YOU WANT, WE HAVE IT.

Young's Hats
NONE BETTER MADE

405 Broadway, cor. Houston St. Derbys $3.00 and $4.00
300 Broadway, near Duane St. Alpines $3.00 and $3.50
1197 Broadway, near 96th St. Silk Hats $5.00 and $6.00
1269 Broadway, near 30th St.

Only Brooklyn Store, 321 Fulton St., opp. City Hall.