NATION MOURNS ITS MARTYRED DEAD. CABINET TO BE REORGANIZED

CZOLGOSZ HAS BEEN INDICTED.

The Assassin of McKinley Will Be Tried on the Charge of Murder in the First Degree.

BUFFALO, Sept. 16.—The Grand Jury has reported to Judge Emery, in the County Court, an indictment against Czolgosz charging him with murder in the first degree.

The case of Leon Czolgosz, the assassin of the President, was presented to the Grand Jury this morning. A number of witnesses were examined. Dr. Herman Mynter was the first witness sworn.

Physicians Testify.
Dr. Mynter is one of the surgeons who performed the operation on President McKinley. Dr. Mynter described the wounds and testified that they were necessarily fatal and were the direct cause of death.

When Dr. Mynter left the jury room Dr. H. R. Gaylord was called. Dr. Gaylord, who claims to have discovered the parasite of cancer, performed the autopsy on the body of the President. He testified to the course of the bullet and its fatal effect.

About all the Coast Guard men who were in the Temple of Music at the time of the shooting have been summoned as witnesses. Other witnesses are Exposition guards and members of the local Reception Committee, who were eyewitnesses of the shooting.

The Revolver Used.
Chief of Detectives Patrick V. Curack was in attendance with a sealed package, which he explained contained the revolver used by Czolgosz.
The package has not been opened since the day of the shooting. Dr. Gaylord said that no attempt had been made to get the bullet, and it is still in the body of the President.

Secret Service Detective Gallagher, who stood near the President when he was shot; James L. Quackenbush and L. Babcock, of the Pan-American Committee to receive the President, each gave evidence to connect Czolgosz with the crime.

Alexander H. Robertson, of the Pan-American police force, was the last witness prior to a recess for dinner. He told the story of the circumstances of the day.
The trial will begin on Monday, Sept. 23, before Supreme Court Justice White.

OZOLGOSZ WAS IN CALIFORNIA.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—The Call prints a story to the effect that Postmaster Chamberlain, of Pacific Grove, is certain that Leon Czolgosz was in Pacific Grove during President McKinley's visit to that place on the occasion of the U. S. E. encampment, and that he called for letters, giving the name of Fred Wiseman.

SAID HE WAS GOING TO KILL ROOSEVELT.

Chief of Police Murphy, of Jersey City, has sent this description to the Washington police of a supposed Anarchist who said he was going to Buffalo to kill President Roosevelt:
"A foreigner of very dark complexion, about thirty-five years, quite stout, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches, black mustache, mixed with gray; black hair and eyes, dressed in dark clothing, and black derby hat."

FUNERAL CHANGES CAUSE TROUBLE.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—The change in time of having the McKinley funeral ceremonies at the Capitol on Tuesday morning instead of Wednesday has demoralized the arrangements for the attendance of Representatives and Senators. The Congressional executive officers had arranged for special funeral trains from Chicago and Washington. The Western Congressmen and Senators were to meet in Chicago and the Easterners in Washington.

POLO GROUNDS, Sept. 16.—It was the same old story of the Giants and the Beaneaters. The latter won. The first game was not replete with any particular brilliancy and the loss cannot be attributed to McGee's pitching. He did excellent work, and with good support would have won his game handsily. Only in one inning was Mac hit at all freely, and that assisted by an error of Davis netted two runs. For the first four innings the game looked as though it might develop a pitchers' battle. But it didn't, so why say more?

SECOND GAME.
POLO GROUNDS, Sept. 16.—Hopeful of establishing at least an impression on the fans, New York's players began their second tussle with Boston and their last one of the year on their own campus in a manner that might suggest their intention of winning it.

First Inning.
Slagle walked. Strang corralled Tenney's lofty one, and Davis finished De-mont. Strang ferried Cooley's roller across. No runs.

Selbach's hot grounder was at first ahead of him. Kittridge caught Jones' rear end boost. Van got a life when his grounder rolled between Moran's legs, but the old fellow was nipped stealing. No runs.

Second Inning.
Hamilton doubled. Lowe got two bags on his rap but Hamilton was out at second. Jones pushed one away for a hit. Miller did Kittridge. No runs.
Cooley took a run and got Strang's high one. Gammel pushed one away for a corner. Davis dropped a safe one in right meadow. Slagle captured Miller's boost. Warner fanned. No runs.

Third Inning.
Van was where Pittinger's fly dropped.

YACHT RACE SEPT. 26.

The first race for the America's Cup will be sailed at 11 A. M., Sept. 26. The second race will be sailed Sept. 28. The third, Oct. 1.

If it is necessary to sail further races they will be held on alternate days until Columbia or Shamrock has won three out of the five races.
This postponement from the original date (Sept. 21) was agreed on after a conference between the committees of the New York and Royal Ulster Yacht Clubs.

The following correspondence between the two committees speaks for itself:

Royal Ulster Names Sept. 26.
NEW YORK, Sept. 16, 1901.
J. V. S. ODDIE, Sec.

Dear Sir: As the committee of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club we write with reference to the date of the sailing of the international race.
The committee feels that in view of the death of our revered President, whose life the whole world unites in mourning, there would be a want of respect to his memory if the race should commence so soon as would be the case if the date now fixed were adhered to.
We therefore write to suggest that the date of the first race should be changed to Thursday in the week following. The race would then commence on Sept. 26.

There will perhaps be some who would desire that the postponement should be longer, and were our own feelings alone concerned we would propose a later date. But in the race suggested we have been compelled to consider not only the fact of the very large number of persons who have come to this country with the challenge to help in various capacities, some of whom have duties at some demanding attention at the earliest possible date, but we have also felt that we had to remember the many charters, hiring and other contracts, involving large sums, made by citizens of this country, and the thou-

Challenging Committee To-Day Agree on Postponement of Cup Contests for a Week After President McKinley's Funeral.

Thousands of persons who in one way or other find work and employment in connection with the race, many of whom we have reason to know would suffer heavy loss by a protracted delay.
There are various other minor considerations which will readily occur to you, such as the convenience of the very large body of visitors who have made the voyage from Europe especially in view of the international contest, which has also had some weight with the committee.
We may mention that we have consulted largely in the hands of the two committees, and he will be happy to comply with any decision whatever, which they may come to. (Signed) R. G. SHAMROCK, Vice-Commander, R. U. Y. C. H. M. MCGILVER, Hon. Sec.

The N. Y. Y. C. Reply.
NEW YORK, Sept. 16, 1901.
Gentlemen: On behalf of the committee of the Royal Ulster Yacht Club, I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of this morning.

The committee of the New York Yacht Club desires me to assure you of their appreciation of the feeling which prompts your suggestion that the race for the America's Cup should be postponed.
Your suggestion is that the date of the first race should be postponed to Thursday, Sept. 26, a week following the date fixed for the President's funeral.
As we have frankly stated to you in the conference that we have had upon this subject, our committee would have preferred a longer adjournment out of respect to the President's memory. We recognize, however, that you are the best judges of the conditions in which you find yourselves, and we cannot doubt, after reading your letter and after the further statements which you have made to us in conference, that you have fixed the latest day which, in your judgment, it is possible for you to make, and of course it is our duty to accept the date which you have fixed without question.

We are quite sure that all American yachtmen and the public in general will accept as a graceful courtesy on your part the suggestion that you have made that the race be postponed in view of the terrible affliction which has come to our country.
(Signed) J. V. S. ODDIE, Secretary, To Vice-Commanders R. G. Shamrock-Crawford, Hon. Secretary H. M. McGilver.

GRAND JURY DEALS WITH ANARCHISTS.
CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Judge Smith in his instructions to the September Grand Jury to-day referred to the case of the Anarchists under arrest here.
"Should facts tending to sustain the rumors and reports of a plot to assassinate the President, and implicating the persons arrested here, be brought to your attention," the Court said, "I feel that the matter will be handled by you in a manner so calm, careful and fearless, as to commend your action to every patriotic, right-minded and thoughtful American citizen."

Suspect Says He Belongs to a Society That Will Give $50,000 to Assassin of the President.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 16.—Frank Idings, twenty-two years old, a blacksmith, was arraigned before Judge Kennedy at the Central Police Court to-day as a suspicious character.
In a saloon on St. Clair street Idings is alleged to have said:
"I belong to a society that will give $50,000 to any man who will kill President Roosevelt."
Idings at his hearing to-day did not deny that he had made the statement. He was remanded to jail and will be given another hearing Wednesday.
Meantime the police will make every effort to learn all about the prisoner.

Roosevelt Likely to Choose Henry Cabot Lodge as Secretary of State, and the Only One of the Old Cabinet to Remain Will Be Mr. Root—Mournful Thousands Greet Funeral Train.

In the reorganization of the Cabinet Henry Cabot Lodge will be President Roosevelt's adviser as to foreign policy, even if he does not replace Hay as Secretary of State. Root will remain Secretary of War, but changes will be made in the portfolios of the Navy, Treasury, Interior, Attorney-General and Post-Office.

Mrs. McKinley, on the funeral train speeding to Washington, though well nigh prostrated by grief, is bearing up well. Her chief comforter is Mrs. Garret Hobart, widow of the Vice-President of McKinley's first administration. Dr. Rixey is in constant attendance.

At the first stop Mrs. McKinley, accompanied by Abner McKinley, visited the funeral car and remained a few minutes beside her beloved dead.

She was almost overcome before the journey began, but her wonderful control soon asserted itself.

Through crowds of weeping men and women the body left Buffalo at 8.34 o'clock this forenoon on the last journey of about 600 miles.

All along the route as the train sped by bells were tolled, and the crowds that stood with bared heads at the station caught a glimpse of the coffin placed on a dais between the windows of the observation car.

The rapidity with which justice is moving regarding Czolgosz, the assassin, was shown this afternoon when the Grand Jury of Erie County indicted him for murder in the first degree. He will be placed on trial Monday next.

LODGE LIKELY TO BE THE NEW SECRETARY OF STATE.

(From a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

EMPORIUM, Pa., Sept. 16.—Funeral Train.—President Roosevelt will spend to-night at the home of his brother-in-law, Capt. Cowles, on S street, N. W., near Dupont Circle, Washington. He will make the Cowles house his headquarters temporarily.
It was said to-day that Senator Henry Cabot Lodge had tendered to the President the use of his fine house on Massachusetts avenue, but the statement that he would occupy the Cowles home was made authoritatively.

Since Mr. Roosevelt became President amid such sad surroundings he has shown on all occasions his deep sense of his new responsibility. His course as President by succession, instead of by election, has made it necessary for him to declare himself in full accord with the entire policy mapped out by Mr. McKinley.

Henry Cabot Lodge will surely be the President's adviser, as to his foreign policy, even if he does not replace Mr. Hay as Secretary of State. Secretary Root will remain as head of the War Department, but changes will soon come in the portfolios of the Navy, Treasury, Interior, Attorney-General and Post-Office. Long, Hay, Gage, Hitchcock, Knox and Smith will retire as soon as circumstances will permit.

MRS. M'KINLEY'S GRIEF TOUCHES ALL HEARTS.

(From a Staff Correspondent of The Evening World.)

SUNBURY, Pa., Sept. 16.—Mrs. McKinley has stood the trip thus far very well. Dr. Rixey, who started in the car Hungary with President Roosevelt and the Cabinet, is now in the car Olympia with Mrs. McKinley. There are also there Mr. and Mrs. Abner McKinley, Mrs. and Miss Barber, Miss Helen McKinley and Mrs. Garrett A. Hobart, who has been a great comfort to the invalid.

The spectacle of Mrs. Hobart, widow of the Vice-President of the first McKinley administration, aiding the widow of the late President, is one of the pathetic incidents of the tragedy.

President Roosevelt and the members of the Cabinet discussed informally in the private car Hungary state matters of importance and decided upon the temporary course to be taken on those of pressing haste.

With Uncovered Heads.
At every station along the line thousands stood with uncovered heads to see the funeral train pass.

The casket containing the body of the President could be seen from the outside, and every face showed deep concern and sorrow.
"Where is President Roosevelt?" many asked, and when told that he was inside they said with deep feeling:
"For the nation's sake guard him well!"

A country school-house near Armstrong, Pa., was crowded with people to see the funeral train pass.

Across the Continent on a Pennsylvania Railroad Tour.

cade had been dismissed and the school-children, drawn up in orderly lines, were out on the common. They held American flags in their hands, and as the train whizzed by they were singing "Nearer My God to Thee."
Every railroad viaduct and crossing held its quota of mourners waiting to pay their tribute to the nation's dead.

Senator Mark Hanna said that the friends of Mrs. McKinley were more hopeful than ever that she would pass through the great ordeal safely and without a collapse.

"Her brave efforts," said the Senator, with tears in his eyes, "are greatly encouraging to us all. There is no heart so hard that would not be touched and softened to see how this fragile, weak woman stands it."

"Her grief is pitiable, but she has given to the world an object lesson in Christian fortitude as touching as it is sublime. I am sure that the prayers of 80,000,000 people have gone up to the Great White Throne in her behalf."

At the first stop made by the funeral train Mrs. McKinley asked to go into the catafalque car. Accompanied by Abner McKinley she made the trip to the Pacific and remained for a few minutes near her beloved dead. She had thus far stood the fatigue of the trip well. She reclined most of the time in the private drawing-room of the Olympia.

To those about her she has spoken feelingly of the terrible home-coming to the White House, and has expressed a longing to get back to Canton. Her chief desire seems now to be to get back among her friends and neighbors where so many years of her married life were spent.

"I want to get William home," she said, when the change was made, reducing by twenty-four hours the time the body of her husband was to lie in state in Washington.

It was in deference to this repeated request that the change was made.

Those whose chief solicitude is her care unanimously agreed that Canton must be reached as soon as circumstances will permit. They know that there must soon be an end to the strain, and that absolute rest and quiet must follow.

CROWDS AT THE STATIONS.

Eight thousand persons stood with uncovered heads at Olean, N. Y., as the funeral train passed and a band played the President's favorite hymn, "Nearer My God to Thee."

OLEAN, N. Y., Sept. 16.—With two tiny white pilot flags on the black-hooded locomotive, the funeral train of William McKinley started from Buffalo to Washington at 8.34 o'clock this morning. Only the engines and the observation car were shrouded in black. The other cars were unadorned.

Behind the drawn blinds were Mrs. McKinley and her attendants.
