

HEATH BEFORE GRAND JURY.

OTHER INDICTMENTS ARE EXPECTED TO BE REPORTED.

Investigation into the Affairs of the Seventh National Bank was Continued To-Day.

Sessions of the Federal Grand Jury, suspended last week, were resumed this morning and the first matter taken up was the investigation of the affairs of the Seventh National Bank.

Fletcher Heath, the brother of Perry Heath, and the representative of the Western interests in the bank, was in the ante-room of the Grand Jury room for some time before the Jury assembled. He was the first witness called. This is taken to indicate that the four indictments found last week against directors and officials of the bank did not finish the investigation, and that other indictments may follow.

Mr. Heath was desired as a witness last week, but could not be brought to this city. His attorneys promised that he would be here this week, and their promise has been kept.

The action of the United States District-Attorney in withholding the warrants for the men indicted has been taken advantage of by those who are in the scheme to reorganize the bank. Some of the directors made a hurried trip to Buffalo last Friday, and even the death of the President did not deter them from an attempt to get Controller of the Currency Dawes to approve of the plan to reorganize. What success they had is not known as yet.

Mr. Heath was before the Grand Jury for about half an hour and was the only witness called. An adjournment was taken at noon.

The Grand Jury will meet again next week and will not be dissolved until October 7. It is understood that after the Seventh National case is disposed of, the reported implication of other banks in the failure will be investigated.

Assistant United States District-Attorney Baldwin, who has charge of the Seventh National investigation refused to make any statement after the adjournment of the Grand Jury. Mr. Baldwin started for Canton, O., at 1 o'clock.

DEVERY'S POLICE RECORD AND SOME OF HIS SAYINGS.

The Deputy Police Commissioner Has Been Up on Charges Before the Police Board Eight Times.

DEVERY HAS BEEN UP ON CHARGES EIGHT TIMES.

Deputy Commissioner Devery has had considerable experience himself before police boards. He has been up on charges eight times, as follows:

Time.	Charge.	Judgment.
Oct. 25, 1878	Neglect to report	Reprimand
Dec. 3, 1878	Conversation	Fined two days' pay
July 22, 1878	Absent from roll-call	Fined one day's pay
Nov. 11, 1878	Conversation	Fined half day's pay
Jan. 27, 1880	Conduct unbecoming an officer	Complaint dismissed
March 17, 1880	Neglect to report	Fined half day's pay
Nov. 25, 1887	Absent from desk duty	Reprimand
August, 1894	Extortion	Dismissed from force, but courts reinstated him.

SOME OF DEVERY'S SAYINGS WHILE ACTING AS A JUDGE.

"I'm goin' to run this court like a military court. Discipline will be strictly enforced. I'm a judge now, and it is my duty to see that the rules of the Department are enforced."—Devery's announcement on his first appearance as Trial Judge, March 1, 1901.

TO POLICEMAN WHITE, Old Slip station, late at roll-call, March 15—You wouldn't have been late if you wanted to go out and make a touch. You'd have been on time. Fifteen days' pay.

TO POLICEMAN WUSTROW, Mercer street station, delinquent in reporting sick, April 5—Five days' pay. Keep your hand down and don't bend your elbow so much, and when you come here again don't be dopey.

POLICEMAN M. McMANUS, West Twenty-third street station, sentenced by Justice Jerome for non-support and on charges for that offense, May 3—This man McManus purposely failed to support his children. He does it once before.

After learning that McManus had been sentenced by Justice Jerome—There are too many little tin soldiers going around town with guns on their shoulders, degrading themselves and the whole community. It's a shame to sentence a man like McManus. He's discharged. Justice Jerome ain't goin' to run New York.

TO POLICEMAN CAVANAGH, Central Park Squad, charged with firing his revolver at a prisoner, April 26—Twenty days' pay for not hittin' him. Next time you hit him.

TO CAPT. ALBERTSON, who charged Detectives Jackson and Feigel with failing to report a pool-room subsequently raided by the Committee of Fifteen, March 22—I think you're a coward. It's cowardly to make such charges against these men. You wouldn't have made the charges if some vigilance committee hadn't raided the place. I won't stand for it. I'd have you put out of the Department if I could. Case dismissed, and I'll reprimand you for being a coward.

TO SERGT. PETTY, Madison street station, absent from duty June 13 when he was summoned to testify as an expert in gunshot wound cases by the District-Attorney—Humph! I never knew you were a gunshot expert. You'd better learn your duty before you learn any facts. Say, I don't believe you know anything about gunshot. I wouldn't believe your testimony about such things under oath. Twenty days' pay.

TO POLICEMAN ONEILL, Tremont station, charged with using violence in enforcing the Sunday law, Aug. 29—They ought to have thrown you out of the window. You'll have enough of that in a day or two when these little tin soldiers get through. You ought to have a little hatchet and go an' join those little tin soldiers, interfering with a man's business so's he can't earn an honest livin'. You're a loafer. I'll fine you thirty days' pay and prefer a charge of insubordination against you and recommend that you be broke. Oneill—I won't stand for a shake-down.

Devery—What's that? Get out of here. You're a loafer. I'll break you.

TO POLICEMAN MONAHAN, Central Park Squad, who resigned rather than accept a transfer, on complaint of a gambler—You're an old dope. You ought to be off the force.

TO POLICEMAN MARRINAN, Madison street station, who testified for Oneill at the latter's trial for insubordination, charged with appearing at inspection in soiled clothes—You're a bum. I'll fine you fifteen days' pay. Now see if you can get that remitted. Go, you loafer, and keep clear of me. Clear out, you dirty bum, you.

The Sick Babies' Fund is getting ready to close its summer campaign for 1901. All children who have money collected for the charity will please forward it at once to "Cashier of The World, Pulitzer Building, New York City." There are several entertainments yet to hear from. The Evening World would feel grateful if the promoters of these entertainments would send some statement concerning them.

The Sick Babies' Fund has given free medical treatment to nearly 10,000 children this season. All medicines have been furnished to the little sufferers free, and incidentally many hundreds of cases of starvation and destitution in poor families have been relieved. All this good work has been done with the money collected since the beginning of June from charitable children-loving readers of The Evening World.

THE CONTRIBUTORS.

To the Editor of The Evening World: Enclosed please find $1 which we collected at a fair held at Cherry Hill, 1215th St., New Brighton, Staten Island, Monday. It will help some of the sick babies.

Enclosed please find $1.00 collected for the Sick Babies' Fund. Hoping that the offering may comfort some poor little sufferers.

WOMAN DYING; AGED 'VET.' HELD

HE ADMITS BEATING HER—HAS A BRAVE RECORD.

Ochsner Says that Powerful Mrs. Gleonna would Have Injured or Killed Him.

A tottering old man in a faded G. A. P. suit appeared in Gates Avenue Court to-day charged with beating a woman so severely that she may die. He admitted it, but said he was compelled to defend himself, as the woman was strong and would have injured, if not killed, him.

Frank Ochsner is the name of the veteran. He served through the civil war, was twice wounded and was mentioned for bravery. He lives at No. 57 Liberty avenue, Brooklyn.

ROW LED TO ARRESTS.

Mrs. Heany Rained a Fuss Because Jealous of Husband.

Kate Ahearn, aged eighteen, Mrs. Ames Heany, eighteen; Barbara McGuire, forty; Mabel Golden, sixteen, and her brother William, all of No. 112 East 10th street, and Twenty-sixth street, were charged in the Harlem court to-day with disorderly conduct by Foster Smith, a neighbor, at No. 118.

There was a big row in the house last night. It is alleged that Mrs. Heany found her husband talking to Mabel Golden in the latter's room and started a disturbance. A policeman arrested them all.

Magistrate Crane held Kate Ahearn and Mrs. Heany for the Gerry Society; discharged Barbara McGuire, the janitress, and fined the Golden $5 each.

KIDNEY TROUBLE IS GENERALLY CATARRH OF KIDNEYS.

A Prominent Minnesota Lady Restored to Health.

Mrs. M. J. Danley, Treasurer of the Rebecca Lodge, I. O. O. F., writes from 121 First street, N. Minneapolis, Minn.: "Anything I can do to tell the world of the merits of Peruna I will be only too glad to do."

"I was afflicted for several years with kidney trouble which became quite serious and caused me considerable anxiety. I spent hundreds of dollars trying to be cured, but nothing gave me any permanent relief until I tried Peruna. It took less than three months and only ten bottles to effect a permanent cure, but they were worth more to me as many hundred dollars to me. I am fully restored to health, know neither ache nor pain and enjoy life."—MRS. M. J. DANLEY.

This experience has been repeated many times. We hear of such cases nearly every day. A woman is afflicted with kidney disease or disease of some other of the abdominal or pelvic organs. She spends hundreds of dollars trying to find a cure. She fails. Why? Because the nature of the disease is not recognized. One doctor treats her for inflammation, another treats her for congestion, another treats her for neuritis, and another for nervousness, and so the list goes on.

None of them are treating her for the correct ailment. Her trouble nine times out of ten is catarrh of the kidneys. Mrs. Danley had catarrh of the kidneys. As soon as she took the right remedy she made a quick recovery.

Peruna cures catarrh wherever located. It cures catarrh of the kidneys just as effectively as it cures catarrh of any other organ.

Prominent Southern Lady's Letter. Miss Laura Hopkins, of Washington, D. C., niece of Hon. E. O. Hopkins, one of the great men of the South, writes from Alabama, writes the following letter commenting on Peruna. She says: "I can cheerfully recommend Peruna for an indigestion and stomach trouble and as a good tonic."—Laura Hopkins.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, please apply to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Cancerous Sores

are most frequently to be seen upon the face, neck or breast, though they are liable to appear upon other parts of the body. When they begin to spread and eat into the flesh, sharp, piercing pains are felt as the underlying tissue is destroyed and the tender nerves exposed. Cancerous sores develop from very trifling causes; a carbuncle or boil, swollen gland, a little wart, blister on the tongue or lip, a wart, mole or bruise of some kind becomes an indolent, festering sore, which in time degenerates into cancer.

"Ten years ago I had a sore on my left temple, which the doctors pronounced a cancerous ulcer; it would bleed, and when I got well, it would never heal. After taking S. S. S. for a few days the sore began to discharge, and when all the poisonous matter had passed out I got well. I took in all about thirty bottles, continuing it for some time after the sore had healed, to be sure the poison was out of my system. Have seen no return of the cancer in ten years." JOSEPHUS REID, Gant, Audrian Co., Mo.

S. S. S. is strictly a vegetable remedy, and, while possessing purifying and healing properties, it does not contain any other medicine does, contains nothing that could derange the system. While cleansing the blood it also builds up the general health.

If you have a suspicious sore, or other blood trouble, send for our free book on Blood and Skin Diseases, and write to us for any information or advice wanted; we make no charge for this service.
