

CAR KILLS MISS SMITH.

Woman Ground to Death by a Trolley on Eighth Avenue.

HURRY TO GET HOME.

Jumped Before Car Stopped and Lost Her Life in a Tragic Way.

Wohn out by a long day's work at Greenbacking, and impatient to get home to the widowed sister waiting for her, Miss Mary Smith, jumped too soon from a south bound Eighth Avenue street car...

When an ambulance came from the hospital, Dr. Knappeler suffered no pain, for the blow on the back of her head must have killed her instantly.

There was nothing in the pockets of Miss Smith's clothing to give any clue to her identity, and it was not until this morning that her sister, distracted by her absence from home over night, sought and found her at the Morgue.

Miss Smith, who was forty-two years old, was a seamstress, and usually worked with her sister in their home at No. 125 East Eighty-eighth street.

Both the avenue and the cross-town cars were crowded, and there was a pathetic scene as Miss Smith was taken from beneath the car and carried to the sidewalk.

SCHLEY WILL BE RETIRED.

AGE LIMIT WILL PREVENT HIM FROM CONTINUING.

Oct. 9 is the date for his leaving the Active List—his successor.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 4.—Next Wednesday, the 9th of October, Rear-Admiral Schley will retire from the active list of the Navy by age limit, and from present prospect will take place while the Court of Inquiry is still in session.

His retirement will promote two captains to Rear-Admirals, Capt. Frank Wildes, who was in command of the Boston during the battle of Manila Bay, now heads the list of captains.

He was promoted for war service, and under the law his advancement must not retard the regular course of promotions. Therefore Capt. Henry Glass, who stands next to him on the list of captains, also will enter the list of Rear-Admirals of the navy.

Other promotions resulting from Admiral Schley's retirement will be those of Commanders F. P. Gilmore and Eugene H. C. Lutzke, who become Captains, and Lieutenant-Commanders Sidney A. Staunton and Charles W. Bartlett, who become Commanders.

PAWNEE FIRM'S GOODS.

Masowsky Took $1,500 Worth of Silverware from Employers.

Frank Masowsky, of No. 78 Avenue A, who is employed by Lewis Bros., of 125 West 125th street and 125 West 125th street station, last night while trying to pawn some silverware, seventy-five pawn-tickets were found on him.

Masowsky's defense was unique. He said he did not think that he had done wrong; that he would do better for the goods if he could sell them on credit and the silverware found were estimated to be valued at $1,500.

Hanging Stayed by Respite. HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 4.—Gov. Stone today ordered a respite for George W. McMurray, Jr., the Allegheny county murderer, recommended to be hanged by the Board of Pardons.

ACID MAY KILL LOVER.

Samuel Feldman's Jealousy Caused Him to Take Poison.

DYING IN THE HOSPITAL.

Couldn't Bear to See Other Men Talking to Sweetheart, but Left Property to Her.

While his countrymen are rejoicing in the great Hebrew feast of Succoth—the Harvest Festival—Samuel Feldman, handsome young merchant of the east side and madly jealous lover, lies dying in Gouverneur Hospital.

Before swallowing a fatal dose of carbolic acid at midnight last night, Feldman wrote in pencil on the back of a business card: "My Dear Bessie: I leave you all I have in the world."

Feldman, who is twenty-six years old and spoke six languages fluently, was engaged to be married to Bessie Hatkowsky, a remarkably pretty girl of eighteen, whose home is in Orchard street.

It was in the same way throughout that the young man conducted a cigar store. He was wildly, almost insanely, jealous of the girl. On several occasions when he saw her talking to some other man, his paroxysms of anger were alarming.

Recently Feldman sold out his cigar store, selling his sweetheart the business, which he expected to amass wealth. He went to live with Sigmund, 73-15 1st St., at No. 451 Grand street.

Wheat was very dull at the opening figure to-day, but soon moved up a grade on Argentine shipments and covering. There was no speculation in either market, even scalpers being discouraged over the market.

THANKS FROM CHILIANS.

Commandant of Training-Ship Pleasued with Treatment Here.

Commandant Gonzalez, of the Chilean training-ship Gen. Baquedano, now visiting this port, through Acting Consul G. L. Duval, has announced officially that the sailor from the Baquedano who was roughly handled by the police was not a navy officer, as was reported, nor even a Chilean, but simply the bandmaster.

BRIDEROOM 16, BRIDE 41.

Kansas Boy Marries Woman Who Will Be a Mother to Him.

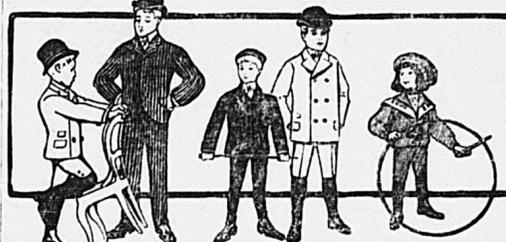

TOPEKA, Kan., Oct. 4.—Lafayette Smith, sixteen years old, and Mrs. Clara M. Harvey, who admitted that she was forty-one, were married by Probate Judge Fagan after the boy's father had declared that he wanted his son to marry.

The Probate Judge at first refused to issue the license and told the youth that he was too young to assume the duties of a husband. The father then spoke up and said that he wanted his son to wed, and the knot was tied.
