Major Gardener Says They Sow Seeds of Perpetual Rebellion.

SUPPRESSED REPORT OUT.

Natives Made to Hate Americans and Good Work Has Been Undone.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—When the Senate Committee on the Philippines met today, Senator Lodge, Chairman of the committee, laid before the committee the report of Major Cornelius Gardener, Civil Governor of the Philippine Province of Tayabas, to which reference was made by Gen. Miles in his correspondence with Secretary Root.

This report had been withheld, and this caused the adoption of a resolution at the last meeting of the committee requesting the Secretary of War to send the report to the committee.

Concentrate Troops.

The paper is dated Dec. 16, 1901, and is largely a review of conditions in the province and tells what was done in the way of a campaign against the insurgents.

In a recommendation he says:

"As Civil Governor I feel it my duty to say that it is my firm conviction that the United States troops should at the earliest opportunity be concentrated in one or two garrisons. If it is possible to do so, the good sentiment and loyalty that formerly existed toward the United States Government among the people of this province should be observed and encouraged.

"Being in close touch with the people, having visited all the pueblos one or more times, having lived with them in their homes, I know that such a sentiment once existed."

Cruelties Practised.

"Of late by reason of the conduct of the troops such as the exclusive burning of the barrios in trying to lay waste to the country so that the insurgents cannot occupy it, the torturing of natives by un-called water-cure and other methods in order to obtain information, the harsh treatment of natives generally and the failure of inexperienced lately appointed lieutenants commanding posts to distinguish between those who are friendly and those who are hostile, and to treat every native as if he were, whether or no, an insurgent at heart, this favorable sentiment above referred to is being fast destroyed and a deep hatred toward us engendered.

Sowing Revolution.

"The course now being pursued in this province and in the provinces of Batangas, Laguna and Samar is, in my opinion, sowing the seeds for a perpetual revolution against us hereafter whenever a good opportunity offers. Under present conditions the political situation in this province is slowly retrograding, and the American sentiment is decreasing and we are daily making permanent enemies."

In my opinion the small number of irreconcilable insurgents still in arms although admittedly difficult to catch, does not justify the means employed and especially when taking into consideration the suffering that must be undergone by the innocent and the effect upon the relations of these people hereafter.

"The attitude of the army, thereby making most of its officers and soldiers, is decidedly hostile to the provincial and municipal government in these islands in general. In Manila especially, it is intensely so, even among the higher officers."

Outrages Overlooked.

"The work of the Philippine Commission in the establishment of provincial governments is ridiculed even in presence of the natives. It is openly stated that the army should remain in charge for the next twenty years. Outrages committed by officers and soldiers against natives in an organized municipality and province, when reported by the president or governor, to the military authorities, are often not punished.

"As an officer of the army I regret that my duty as Civil Governor of this province impels me to state the attitude of the majority in order that my civil superiors may be able intelligently to order what the situation demands."

Gen. MacArthur was again the witness before the committee today, and he began his statement with reference to the burning of villages by the native forces in 1899. He said that the order for this destruction had been issued by Gen. Land.

VERY LATEST NEWS IN BRIEFEST FORM.

MAYOR AROUSED TO MAULIFFE'S CASE.

In response to a hurried summons Col. Partridge went to the City Hall this afternoon to see Mayor Low. The purpose of the Colonel's visit it was learned was to discuss the recent startling developments in the McAuliffe case, in which official interest has suddenly awakened. Mayor Low and the Police Commissioner remained in conference for upwards of an hour.

RECKLESS CHAUFFEUR CAUSES RUNAWAY.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 10.—The police are trying to find the owner of a racing automobile which ran at break-neck speed along the White Plains speedway, causing half a dozen runaways. The machine bore the initials "O. H. M." Dr. Edward Colgate Moore's horse was frightened. It ran away, throwing the doctor and Mrs. Moore out, injuring both.

PATERSON, N. J., April 10.—Perry Barbier, thirty-two years old, was tried to-day on a charge of having abducted his fourteen-year-old cousin, Magdelina Barbier, on Aug. 15, 1900. Although Barbier has been nearly a year in prison he sticks to his story that he knows nothing of the whereabouts of the girl. She has not been seen since she disappeared, and her relatives hint at foul play. Barbier was found guilty and will be sentenced to-morrow.

GUARD HOUSE FOR SOLDIER'S HONEYMOON.

John Wilson, a soldier at Fort Hamilton who disappeared five days ago, returned to his post to-day with a bride. She is sixteen years old and was Martha Carlson, a pupil in Erasmus Hall High School in Flatbush until she eloped with Wilson. The soldier showed his marriage certificate to Col. Rogers, who took possession of it and put Wilson under arrest. He was sentenced to serve thirty days in the guard house for being absent without leave, and the tearful bride made her way to the home of her parents at No. 212 Prospect avenue, Brooklyn.

CAN SERVE BAD BEER SUNDAYS.

Because the representative of the District Attorney could not prove that there was malt in beer sold by four saloon-keepers in Brooklyn last Sunday the offenders were dismissed to-day by Magistrate Tighe. He said that seven-eighths of the larger beer sold in New York has no malt in it, and the law specifies that the selling of malt liquors constitutes an offense against the Raines law. If it cannot be shown that the beer sold is a malt liquor there is no offense. The only proof is by chemical analysis, and this costs $25.

RAPID TRANSIT BOARD HOLDS "OPEN" MEETING.

The Board of Rapid Transit Commissioners to-day held the first open business meeting it has held in eight years. Some of the Commissioners seemed to take the innovation in bad grace. The business of the open meeting consisted of the reading of the minutes and reports from superintendents. As soon as this was over reporters were excluded and the Board went into secret session. The open meeting was held on account of the criticism of the secret methods of the Board.

CARPENTER, A GENIUS, HAS REMARKABLE ESCAPE.

His name is Carpenter—Carpenter of the Mulberry Street Station. He was before Deputy Commissioner Thurston to-day charged with being drunk on duty, and he admitted it. He explained that he was ill and that a friendly bartender sent him out a glass of liquor which was too much for him. Col. Thurston gasped at this and was so overcome that he reserved decision, remarking that he would not recommend dismissal because the man told the truth.

SIX TENDERS FOR ONE LITTLE BRIDGE

It developed at the public hearing on the budget before the Board of Estimate this afternoon that six tenders are employed at the little draw-bridge at Flushing, at salaries of $780 a year each. Before consolidation one bridge tender handled this bridge and did the work well. "How many times is that bridge opened?" asked the Mayor. "About once a week," was the answer. "I shall see about this," sternly said Mayor Low.

RUSH OF POLICE ALIBIS; M'AUILLIFFE PROOF HOLDS.

Too Much Proof that One Policeman Identified by World Witness Was Not Involved—H. S. Stark's Recognition of Wardman Is Not Even Attacked by Donohue's Men.

Identification of Wardman Kiernan by three of The World's witnesses as one of the two men who thrust James McAuliffe, the murdered Glennon witness, into a cab at the West Forty-seventh street station has at last convinced Police Commissioner Partridge that the matter is one for Grand Jury action.

Col. Partridge said to-day: "I think The World has gathered sufficient evidence in the McAuliffe case to warrant the Grand Jury in investigating it. It needs but little corroboration. The World alone is entitled to the credit of getting what the Police Department could not get.

I believe there might have been a murder. I have asked Capt. Titus to have his men get me some evidence to-day as to the identifications which were somewhat mixed yesterday."

Against the identifications the police to-day presented an alibi for each accused man—two distinct alibis for one of them.

They also attacked the characters of two of the witnesses, but NO ONE (WORLD BRING FORWARD) ONE (WORLD AGAINST) H. S. STARK WHO SAW MAULIFFE THRUST FROM THE CAB ONE BLOCK FROM WHERE HE WAS FOUND DYING. STARK IDENTIFIED KIERNAN AS ONE OF THE MEN IN THE CAB.

HUGE BOULDER CRASHES INTO EVERARD MANSION.

Falls from Fifteenth Floor of New Astor Hotel Into Millionaire's Home.

An 800-pound granite boulder dropped from the fifteenth floor of the new Astor hotel, at Fifty-fifth street and Fifth avenue, to-day into the home of James Everard, the millionaire brewer.

It crashed through a new $3,000 Venetian glass skylight (just put in by Tiffany) to the third-story floor and landed in a room on the second floor.

Maid Severely Cut.

Nellie O'Keefe, Mrs. Everard's maid who was in the room, was covered with a shower of broken glass, plaster, lumber and other debris and was severely cut about the head.

Two other maids were in the hall on the second floor, but warned by the crash of the breaking skylight succeeded in reaching a place of safety.

Mr. Everard had just arisen and was dressing when the stone fell into his house. His wife had not arisen.

Olga Everard, his eight-year-old daughter, had just started out with her governess for a walk. She was on the first floor when the stone reached the building, having passed the spot where it struck not half a minute before.

Property Damage $6,000.

The property damage caused by the accident will foot up at least $6,000. Besides the skylight the stone demolished a black walnut staircase, a lot of furniture, $600 worth of carpets and much valuable bric-a-brac.

William Angeles, who had charge of the stone work on the Astor Building, entered the Everard home after the accident, stationed himself in the front hall and refused to allow any one to enter or leave. He constituted himself the boss of the household until Mr. Everard heard of his action. Then he made a hurried exit.

Mr. Everard's Escape.

One of the stones that was being swung into place broke this morning on account of a seam that had not been discovered. A small piece struck the side of the Astor Building and bounded into the Everard yard. The big end of the stone crashed down to the roof of the brewer's mansion.

The stone that wrecked the upper part of Mr. Everard's house, was not the first piece of building material that had fallen from the Astor building to-day.

Not two hours before a big scuttling came sailing down from the sixteenth floor of the new structure, struck the Socialists Still Rioting and Serious Trouble Is Anticipated To-Night.

LONDON, April 10.—A despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company from Brussels says the troops called out in connection with the riots are in a state bordering on mutiny.

Many of the militia responded to the call to the colors, but are marching through the streets singing the "Marseillaise" and the "Marsellaise" in great excitement.

Several militiamen have been arrested for insubordination and the regulars have been confined to their barracks.

Ball cartridges have been issued to the troops.

The Socialists were again active here to-day and had several clashes with the police. Shots were fired on both sides, and one policeman was wounded.

Another man was wounded and another refuge in the attic of a cafe whereupon the Socialists sacked the establishment, exploded a cartridge into the building and completed its ruin.

The flames forced the rioters to retreat.

After many of the mobs had been wounded the Socialists were active here to-day.

The Civil Guards of Schaerbeek and St. Jansmolen No. 2, at here, have been ordered to be on duty this evening, and the Burgomasters of these two companies are to be on duty at the same time.

A warrant is about to be issued for the arrest of A. Volckers, President of the Society of the Young Socialist Guard.

Missionary's Thrilling Account of How She Was Carried into the Mountains—Tsilka Baby Saved Her from Many Cruelties.

Safely delivered from the hands of brigands, Miss Ellen M. Stone arrived in New York to-day on the Hamburg-American liner Deutschland. Here is the first extended story the missionary has given of her captivity among the brigands who extorted a ransom of $60,000 for her release.

BY MISS ELLEN M. STONE.

To be at home seems doubly sweet after all I have gone through. My one object now is to hurry home to my mother, who is awaiting my return. My brother tells me she is quite ill. That makes me doubly anxious to be with her. It is a long, long time since I have seen my people and I thought I would never see them again.

I want to say that I appreciate the generosity of those who came forward to bring about my rescue. The money that was spent in my behalf will be paid back by my lecture tour.

I hope that I shall be able to resume mission work. That is my life and my work. I have no plans, though, for the present. I am in the hands of the Mission Board.

Story of Her Capture.

Now, I suppose you will want to hear all about the brigands. Well, they are not so fierce as you imagine. Although they said many insulting things and gave us many harsh words, they never struck or beat us.

It was late in the afternoon of Sept. 3 that myself and a party of ten were suddenly pounced upon by a band of brigands numbering, I should think, about fifty. The attack was so sudden that we were all surprised, and, anyhow, resistance would have been of no avail, as none of us was armed, except Mr. Tsilka, who had two revolvers with him.

When Mr. Tsilka saw the brigands carrying away his wife he attempted to fire on them with his revolvers, but was prevented by the rest of our party.

There have been several reports printed which stated that Mme. Tsilka had been held for ransom by our captors. This is a mistake. I was the one they wanted, and, no matter how old, they always take a married lady to chaperone an unmarried one.

The brigands meant to take the first married woman they came across to accompany me, but the one they first found happened to be Mrs. Wosneva, a native missionary and a widow, who was very ill at the time. Mrs. Tsilka was therefore decided on by the brigands, for which I was very thankful afterward, and I will tell you why.

Seven weeks before we were released a baby was born to Mrs. Tsilka. The brigands had by this time become so insulting and cruel in their remarks that it was becoming unbearable. The appearance of the baby stopped all this, for the reason that the brigands of Turkey believe that a curse will settle on them if they do harm to a child or its mother. Our treatment after the birth of the baby was excellent. We began to get better food, although I must admit that it was generally very good, and the sneering remarks stopped.

It was when the negotiations for our release fell through or became disturbed that we were subjected to our worst treatment. "You are to die twenty days from now," or "We will put a bullet in your brain soon," were some of the pleasant things that they said to us, but, thank heaven, none of those things happened to us.

Once I caught cold and another time I fell and wrenched my knee. These events exasperated the brigands, they seeming to think that it was my own fault that the things happened. We always travelled at night, but although the brigands ac-

MRS. TABOR SUES FOR $250,000.

WIDOW OF SENATOR WANTS MINING STOCK.

Operators Accused Holding from Her Valuable Shares in Three Companies.

DENVER, Colo., April 10.—Elizabeth B. Tabor, widow of Senator Tabor, filed two suits in the District Court for damages aggregating $250,000 and to recover possession of a large amount of mining stocks, which she alleges have been misappropriated by defendants.

One suit is against David H. Moffat. In this suit Mrs. Tabor asks for $100,000 damages and for an accounting from Mr. Moffat of the disposition of 71,250 shares of stock in the Maid of Erin silver mining company, valued at $98,750, and 9,100 shares in the Gold and Silver Extraction Company of America, limited, valued at $4,250.

Mrs. Tabor avers that her husband placed these stocks in Mr. Moffat's hands as trustee pending negotiations for the sale of them.

She alleges that the sale was never made and that the stocks were never returned to her husband.

The second suit was brought by Mrs. Tabor and Mrs. Tim Foley against George W. Trimble and A. V. Hunter, of Leadville, and John F. Cannon, to recover 30,000 shares of stock in the Tabor's Mining Company. The plaintiffs ask for $250,000 damages.
