

VETERANS HAIL FIGHTING CHIEF

President Roosevelt's First Public Appearance Since Illness at G. A. R. Encampment.

RODE DOWN LONG LINE.

Many Notables of Last Procession of Silver-Haired Defenders Were Missed from Ranks of To-Day's Parade.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 8.—President Roosevelt this morning, for the first time since he became an invalid and was brought from an Indianapolis hospital operating table, left the White House.

Only such an occasion and the opportunity to pay tribute to the war veterans of the Nation as was afforded by the encampment ceremonies would have obtained his physician's permission to even drive along the line of parade, which the President graciously agreed to do, being unable to review the silvered legion as was first planned.

Veterans Salute President.

He was carried down stairs from his room on the second floor of the temporary White House, in an invalid chair, at 11.10 this morning, and amid the cheers of a large crowd was placed in a carriage, in which there was a board to support his injured leg. He was accompanied by Secretary Cortelyou and Col. Bingham, his military aides. His carriage was guarded by a platoon of mounted police under command of Major Sylvester, Superintendent of Police.

As the carriage appeared on the avenue the President was greeted with loud cheers. The President stopped at the reviewing stand for a moment until the marshals of the parade and Rawlins Post, of Minneapolis, the right of line, had passed, and then drove down the avenue to the Peace Monument, at the foot of the Capitol steps.

The veterans faced the carriage as the President drove by and saluted him. There was continuous cheering from the crowds as the President drove along.

Mrs. Roosevelt Joins Husband.

Less than thirty-five minutes were consumed in the journey. During its progress the President found that the beard used to rest his limb was uncomfortable and it was discarded. When the White House was reached the President did not alight. Instead Secretary Cortelyou and Col. Bingham got out, and, much to the surprise and delight of the waiting crowds, Mrs. Roosevelt emerged, entered the carriage and was driven rapidly away with the President. The drive had been arranged beforehand, but had not been announced. It took the President and Mrs. Roosevelt through the northwest section of the city.

The remnants of the magnificent armies of Grant, Sherman, Thomas, Slocum and Sheridan, which participated in the grand review at the close of the civil war, saluted the President as again today they passed up the historic Pennsylvania avenue. The survivors of the bronzed, black-haired legions who marched twenty-four abreast for two days before President Johnson with flowers in the muzzles of their guns and with victory and the hope of the future shining in their faces, had become old white-haired veterans, with their active service behind them.

Many Faces Missing.

The ten years that have elapsed since the former review of the Grand Army here in 1892 have sadly reclaimed the ranks of the old heroes. Most of the figures in the parade on that memorable occasion, including Gen. Benjamin F. Butler, who rode in a carriage, being even then too feeble to walk; ex-President Hayes, who marched on foot with his old comrades; Gen. Rosecrans, ex-Gov. Powell, the loyal Governor of the Mountain State, and "Uncle Jerry" Ruess, who strode along at the head of the Iron Brigade of Wisconsin, have gone to their last bivouac.

It was an ideal autumn day. Although the procession was not to move until 10 o'clock the swarming crowds were abroad early, lining the sidewalks and overlooking the great stands along the line of march. Windows, roofs and every corner of the city were filled with people.

NO STANDING ORDER ARGUED IN COURT.

Appellate Term Reserves Decision in Case Brought by Fire Commissioner Against Metropolitan Opera House.

Arguments were made in the Appellate Terms of the Supreme Court today on Fire Commissioner Struglia's appeal from the Civil Justice Bolt's order dismissing the case against Maurice Grau for allowing persons to stand in the Metropolitan Opera House.

This case grows out of the order which the Commissioner issued some months ago against the theatres. Some of the theatre managements obeyed the order and allowed no patrons to stand during a performance.

On the night of April 21 firemen conducted 311 persons standing in the Metropolitan. Mr. Grau was asked to clear the space. He refused, saying the space was not a passageway and did not come under the Commissioner's order. Suit to recover the usual $50 fine was brought by the Commissioner in the Eighth District Court. Justice Bolt dismissed the action. Decision was reserved by the Appellate Term.

TO AIR POLITICS IN DIVORCE SUIT

Wife of Ex-Sheriff O'Brien Will Tell Democratic Secrets at Trial.

MADE DEAL WITH CROKER

Agreed to Deliver O'Brien Democracy to Tammany and Was Promised Police Commissionership.

The mentioning of nine co-respondents and the statement that her husband, former Sheriff James O'Brien, was to have been made Police Commissioner in the event of the election a year ago of Edward M. Shepard, are features of the cross bill filed by Mrs. O'Brien in the divorce suit of the Democratic politician, which will be called for trial in the Supreme Court, branch No. 2, next week.

In her cross petition Mrs. O'Brien asks that the trial be held in open court and incidentally promises to divulge much of the unwritten political history of the city in which her husband was connected.

After mentioning nine co-respondents, identifying them as "women who will be designated by the names of Martha, Cora, Maud, Grace, Jessie or Rose, Mary McCarrick, Theresa Kugel and 'May' or Mary Russell," she states in her complaint:

Made Deal with Croker.

"In July, 1899," says the complaint, "he removed to more pretentious apartments at No. 2187 Broadway. Last fall he made a deal with Richard Croker whereby he was to give the support of the O'Brien Democracy to Edward M. Shepard, candidate for Mayor, on the promise that if Mr. Shepard was elected he (O'Brien) was to receive the appointment of Police Commissioner.

Robert L. Turk, counsel for Mrs. O'Brien, intimates that many of the political deals in New York will be aired during the divorce suit. O'Brien is credited with having been the discoverer of Richard Croker. They later became bitter enemies, and it was O'Brien who swore to the affidavit charging Croker with the murder of John McKenna, whom he shot and killed in a fight with O'Brien and his friends.

TOOK ROOF OFF WIDOW'S HOUSE

Mrs. Thurber Complains in Court of Attempt to Raze Building She Occupied.

SHE'S AFRAID TO GO OUT

"Why, Your Honor, that man with a face like a naked skull, that persecuted me so that I can't step out of my own door without fear that they will tear the house down while I am gone," said Mrs. Frankie Thurber, a prosperous and attractive milliner, to Magistrate Crane, in Jefferson Market Court today.

The man with the face described by Mrs. Thurber was Joseph J. Mills, and while he is not in the description, he admitted that he did want to tear the house down.

Mills, who is little and wrinkled beyond his years, and who has made money as a boarding-house proprietor at No. 37 East Twenty-first street, called on his principal tenant, Mrs. Thurber, a defenseless widow, and because of this call he was held by Magistrate Crane in $200 bonds.

Trying to Tear Down Building.

Mrs. Thurber occupied all of the first floor of the Twenty-first street house. In the front was her parlor where she sold her goods. Next was her bedroom and then came the workroom where she has kept twenty-two girls busy.

Stevens & Co., owners of the building, have been trying to tear it down so that they could put up a bigger one, and Mills was willing to get out, but Mrs. Thurber had paid her rent until December and would not move. Then Mills is said to have been employed by the owners to get Mrs. Thurber out. This was work he thought he would like, as he said she owed him $10 for board.

Big Fire in Birmingham.

Largest Hardware House in South Destroyed This Morning.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 8.—The buildings of the Moore and Handley Hardware Company on Powell avenue, the largest wholesale hardware house in the South, were destroyed by fire this morning, as were a number of loaded freight cars on an adjoining siding. The loss will reach nearly half a million dollars.

Killed Another to Save Son.

SHREVEPORT, La., Oct. 8.—Dr. G. B. Crawford, a prominent physician of Lovelock, La., shot and killed John A. Vickers in a Texas street saloon. Crawford's son and Vickers had a dispute and Dr. Crawford says he shot to save his son's life, as Vickers was advancing upon young Crawford with a knife.

STRAIGHT-FORWARD EVIDENCE FROM MEN OF NATIONAL PROMINENCE.

That Pe-ru-na Cures Catarrh Wherever Located.

Congressmen, Governors, Generals, Consuls, Recommend Pe-ru-na.

No other remedy has received the unqualified endorsement of so many distinguished American citizens as Peruna. The pharmacopoeia does not furnish a catarrh remedy so well known. It is acknowledged on all hands that Peruna and catarrh are so indelibly associated that to speak of one is to think of the other.

Congressman H. H. POWERS.

Congressman Fred S. Goodrich.

Fred S. Goodrich, ex-member of Congress from Florida (51st session), writes the following letter from Shawnee, Okla.:

"I am assured and am satisfied that your Peruna is not only a cure for catarrh, but also a most vigorous tonic, and as so many of my friends have been benefited by its use, I have no hesitation in recommending it to the public."—Fred S. Goodrich.

than all the other remedies combined. It is exactly as Congressman Goodrich, of Oklahoma, says: "Peruna is not only a cure for catarrh, but also a most vigorous tonic. These two facts are beyond controversy. Any remedy that operates to tone up the whole nervous system will also operate beneficially upon catarrh. Catarrh is simply a flabby condition of the mucous membrane. This flabbiness has been brought about by exposure to cold, which finally depresses the nerves supplying the mucous membrane. Peruna operates immediately to strengthen these nerves and give tone to the mucous membrane. There is no other internal catarrh remedy that has proven effective in all cases.

Some things may be successfully imitated, but Peruna cannot be. Every one purchasing Peruna should look out for imitations. Examine each package carefully. If you have ever used Peruna or if you have ever tasted it, you are not in the slightest danger of being misled by these imitations, but all those beginning the use of Peruna should beware.

Beware of imitations. Believe no one who tells you that he has a remedy that is making the same cures that Peruna is making.

If you have any doubt as to the genuineness of the bottle of Peruna you are using, write to Dr. Hartman and the fraud, if there be any, will soon be detected.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Hon. D. A. Nunn, ex-Congressman from Tennessee, writes:

"I cheerfully recommend Peruna to all those suffering from catarrhal troubles."—D. A. Nunn.

The most distinguished men of the United States have no hesitation in lending their influence to assist in letting the people know of the virtues of Peruna. Nearly one-half the people are in some degree affected by catarrh. Therefore it is almost a national curse and it is of national import that the people should know of Peruna.

Peruna Cannot Be Imitated.

HUGGED BY BRIDE IN PRISON VAN.

Young Wife of Plate Printer Accused of Grand Larceny Dragged Away from Husband by Police.

Standing in the Kings County Prison van, Charles Hoeffelch, a young plate printer, who was accused of grand larceny by his former employer, was publicly embraced this morning by his wife, whom he married three weeks ago and took to his home at No. 93 South Tenth street, Brooklyn. They were separated with difficulty by two big policemen.

It is charged by Alfred Wise, junior member of the firm of William Wise & Co., Flatbush avenue and Nevins street, that Hoeffelch and his bride spent their honeymoon on money stolen from his company. He declared to Magistrate Dooley in the Myrtle Avenue Court that the peculations of the young plate printer would reach $500.

"The way he got into us was most ingenious," said Mr. Wise. "He would receive a time check from the bookkeeper on which was marked the amount of money he was entitled to. Then, he would raise this after getting the necessary 'O. K.' to such a sum as he needed. In one instance he raised a check for $5.90 to $35.90. He has been having a good time on our money for some months."

Magistrate Dooley held Hoeffelch for a further examination to-morrow under bail in the sum of $1,000 which was not forthcoming. The prisoner protests that he is innocent of the charge made against him.

Commander McLean Sails Home. COLON, Colombia, Oct. 8.—Commander McLean, of the United States cruiser Cincinnati, sailed for New York yesterday on the steamship Segura. The Isthmus is quiet.

THE ROAD TO SUCCESS IS THROUGH THE WANT COLUMNS OF THE WORLD.

Jewelry That Can Be Handed Down as Heirlooms.

There are some jewelry stores where you expect to pay a high price when you make a purchase. You pay the excess to be comfortable in your mind as to the quality. That is the tariff on confidence. You want jewelry your children may wear.

There are other jewelry stores where you expect to buy very cheap—knowing that you will never feel quite sure about the quality. The LAMBERT STORE is still another kind. For twenty-six years a large portion of New York's population has reposed implicit confidence in the LAMBERT JEWELRY STORE. Never has one cent tariff been collected on that confidence. Why? Because we began by manufacturing a large portion of our jewelry and buying standard staples, like watches and chains, from the men who make them. We cut out the middleman's profit, instead of adding a premium for confidence. We nourished and cultivated the LAMBERT GUARANTEE, attached to everything we sell, until its value was recognized everywhere.

The result is shown, not only in the unapproached prices, but in our recently enlarged factory and store, to which we are prepared to cordially welcome you.

Substantial Solid Gold Man's Watch for $60.00.

We do not state boastfully that we have the largest stock of watches in New York. It is necessary to the business we do.

We have men's gold watches from $25 up. Plain polished Roman gold watches in heavy cases, specially adapted to engraving, in which work our staff of engravers is especially schooled.

Gold Vest Chains for Which Others Charge More

All of solid, 14 karat gold throughout, hand-made and the smartest designs the market affords. Bought from a manufacturer who is his own superintendent and salesman. No middlemen. They are sold elsewhere—notably in Fifth Avenue stores, but at a higher price. Our prices range from $12 to $60.

Solid Gold Guard Chains Which We Make Ourselves

All of the guard chains which we sell we make ourselves, with a very few exceptions. Solid gold, with solid gold slides, from $10 upward. The prices range as high as $175 to $250 for specially designed chains. The same care is given to the manufacture of the lowest price chain. Those at $20 to $30 are exceptionally reasonable.

Lambert Wedding Rings Outlive the Years

Had the LAMBERT factory depended solely on its Wedding Rings its reputation would have been made. They are known all over the world. Seamless, of purest gold, and cheaper than any retailer can sell them.

Special Pride in a Lady's Gold Watch for $20.00.
