

“OBEY THE LAW”

Mine President Testifies that He Does Not Believe a Union Man Should Commit an Illegal Act.

VIOLENCE HURTS THE UNION.

MacVeagh is Told that the Public Will Not Support an Organization that Favors Lawlessness or Unfairness.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 18.—Mr. MacVeagh, who resumed the cross-examination of President Mitchell today, said he would be glad to see an expression as to the influence of acts of violence upon the temper and disposition of the union men said that he would not assume that the acts of violence are true.

MOLINEUX MAY CONTEST WIFE'S SUIT FOR DIVORCE.

ner. Molineux drew from his pockets a bundle of papers of legal appearance and spread them out on the table.

Admits Subject of Talk. After the talk in the restaurant Mr. Battle said that it was too early to say what action Molineux would take in regard to the contemplated divorce suit of his wife.

Can Not Understand It. "I am not going to talk about this matter now," he said, "at least not till I have seen my lawyers. There is one thing, though, I must say. I cannot see what she has against her husband, except that he was charged with a crime, and after being imprisoned four years, was tried for his life and acquitted."

Engages Expensive Suite. But Mrs. Molineux has engaged a suite of three of the best rooms in the Cataract Hotel, which have been largely redecorated to suit her tastes.

Overdrew Her Account. W. M. K. Olcott, one of Roland B. Molineux's counsel, said:

MRS. MOLINEUX LIVES LIKE A MILLIONAIRE. SIOUX FALLS, S. D., Nov. 18.—Of all the well-known men and women who
