

DO COPS WEAR HIS OVERCOATS? IS A FAILURE

Dr. Louis H. Warner, in an Address Before the Hundred Years Club, Denies Its Efficacy as Cure for Blood-Poisoning.

ONLY APPARENT SUCCESS. BELIEVES MORE HARM IS DONE BY THIS POWERFUL DRUG THAN THE DESTRUCTION OF BACTERIA CAN COMPENSATE FOR.

The value of formalin as a cure for blood poisoning was denied by Dr. Louis H. Warner, the well-known pathologist, in a lecture on "Bacteria and Their Work" before the Hundred Years Club at the Hotel Majestic last night.

TECHNICAL ERROR IN ORDER. THROUGH SOME MISUNDERSTANDING, DEPUTY ASSISTANT DISTRICT ATTORNEY SMITH WHO DREW UP THE ORDER, STATED IN THE DOCUMENT THAT THE ORDER WAS FOUND IN THE HALLWAY OF SAMILSON'S STORE, AND NOT IN THE CASE.

CONCERNING FORMALIN. DR. WARNER SAID IN HIS LECTURE: "ALTHOUGH THE EXPERIMENTS BEING UNDERTAKEN IN THE HOSPITALS OF THE CITY REVEAL HAVE NOT GONE FAR ENOUGH FOR AN ENTIRELY CONCLUSIVE JUDGMENT, I AM MUCH AFRAID THAT THE APPARENT SUCCESSSES ACHIEVED SO FAR WILL PROVE NOT SUCCESSFUL AFTER ALL."

THE FEVER ACTION OF FORMALIN IS TO REDUCE THE TEMPERATURE AND AS A HIGH TEMPERATURE USUALLY ACCOMPANIES SEPTIC INFLAMMATION, THE ACTION OF ADMINISTRATION ARE NATURALLY LOOKED UPON AS FAVORABLE.

CONTINUED TREATMENT IMPOSSIBLE. "THIS RESULT HAS BEEN FOUND TO BE ONLY TEMPORARY, HOWEVER. WITH IMPERFECT ELIMINATION OF WASTE MATTER, INFLAMMATION IS CREATED AND NEW FIELDS FOR THE BACTERIA ARE PREPARED. UNDER CONTINUED TREATMENT OF THIS KIND THE HEALTH OF THE BODY WOULD BE REDUCED TO SUCH A POINT THAT FURTHER TREATMENT WOULD BE IMPOSSIBLE."

AFTER READING THIS MORNING'S REPORTS ON THE HOSPITAL CASES WHICH THE PRESS AND PUBLIC HAVE BEEN WATCHING WITH SUCH INTEREST DURING THE PAST FEW DAYS I AM MORE CONVINCED THAN EVER THAT THE TREATMENT IS NOT A SUCCESS.

FORMALIN IS A GAS OF PUNY ODOUR WHICH BECOMES A LIQUID AT 22 DEGREES BELOW ZERO. IT IS DERIVED FROM GASEOUS METHYL ALCOHOL AND BELONGS TO THE CHEMICAL FAMILY OF HYDROCARBONS, BEING IN FACT A COMBINATION OF CARBON, OXYGEN AND HYDROGEN.

DO COPS WEAR HIS OVERCOATS? IS A FAILURE

Something Mighty Queer About Police Retention of His Property, Thinks the Disconsolate Mr. Samilson.

GARMENTS WERE STOLEN. MYSTIFIED BY HIS FAILURE TO LOCATE TWELVE OVERCOATS WHICH HE SAYS WERE TAKEN FROM HIS STORE, TOGETHER WITH THE THEFT WHO ATTEMPTED TO STEAL THEM, PHILIP H. SAMILSON, A WHOLESALE CLOTHING MERCHANT, OF NO. 73 EAST BROADWAY, WILL APPEAR TO THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY FOR REDRESS.

Although it has been proved conclusively that the goods belong to him, and he has obtained an order for their return, Samilson has found it to be a case of "nothing doing" every time he has tried to get them back.

During his absence from the city burglars entered the store. Mrs. Samilson was awakened at midnight by the ringing of the alarm, and hastening downstairs, saw two young men carrying a large bundle of overcoats toward the front door.

Mrs. Samilson Held On. Seizing one she managed to tear the bundle from him. The thief nearest the door got away, but Mrs. Samilson held the other until her cries attracted the attention of a passing policeman, who took the thief and his swar to the Madison street station.

The jury disagreed when the case was brought to trial before Recorder Goff, and the prisoner, who gave his name as Max Bernstein, of No. 123 Suffolk street, was released on $1,000 bail.

By this time Samilson began to worry over his overcoats, which he feared would be a total loss if they were not disposed of before the end of the winter. He applied to Capt. Kramer at the Madison Street Police Station for his goods. He was told that he would have to get an order from the District Attorney for them.

Technical Error in Order. Through some misunderstanding, Deputy Assistant District Attorney Smith who drew up the order, stated in the document that the order was found in the hallway of Samilson's store, and not in the case.

When Samilson presented the order to Clerk at Police Headquarters, he was informed that he could not get back his goods until the facts in the order agreed with those in the case. He was annoyed, the clothes returned to the District Attorney's office and explained why he was unable to regain his property.

"That order is all right," said the deputy assistant in charge. "Go back to Headquarters and get your coat. Obeyed to the command, which he explained the first time he sought the property clerk and met with a refusal.

"I will wait until I can see Mr. Jerome himself," said Samilson to-day. "I am done with trying to get anything from the police. I have been refused from pillar to post, and I am thoroughly tired of it."

When Samilson presented the order to Clerk at Police Headquarters, he was informed that he could not get back his goods until the facts in the order agreed with those in the case. He was annoyed, the clothes returned to the District Attorney's office and explained why he was unable to regain his property.

FUGITIVE GARFIELD CAUGHT IN DIXIE. BROKER WHO LEFT NEW YORK DEPOSITORS IN THE LURCH IS ARRESTED IN NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 22.—James A. L. Garfield, junior member of the defunct brokerage firm of Wright & Garfield, of New York, has been arrested here as a fugitive from justice. His firm failed some time ago, leaving depositors in the lurch, and Garfield is accused of getting $100,000 in false pretences. N. Sasso, of New York, who is in this city, found Garfield here, and meeting him in the St. Charles Hotel, sought to recover $1,000 which he lent with Garfield. Failing in this, he caused his arrest. Garfield was locked up to await the arrival of an officer with a requisition from New York.

The prisoner, in speaking about his troubles, said that in 1920 he was induced to go into a brokerage and banking business with Wright. He put in all his money, and things went along smoothly until last year, when he realized that the business was going to ruin. He did all in his power to save the firm, but there was some mismanagement, and when he saw that the case was hopeless, he left New York.

"You see, I never knew anything about the books," he said, "but when I found out that the firm was going to the wall, I just made up my mind to get out of New York before the crash came. Since that time I have been working in Texas, and two months ago I came here and became a life insurance agent."

BROKE DOOR TO GET BILL. Plumber Held to Court and Held in $500 Bail. Oscar Stevenson and his wife were awakened last midnight by the violent ringing of the doorbell and the banging on the front door of their home, at No. 33 East One Hundred and Twenty-seventh street. Mr. Stevenson raised his window and asked two men below if the house was on fire.

"No, but I'm Fred Hein, the plumber, and I want to collect a bill for $3.00," said one of them.

"I'll not pay the bill," said Stevenson, "I'll tear the house down now."

Stevenson ran out the back door and came back with a policeman, who found Hein crawling through the hole in the window and asked him to kick out the pane. His companion had escaped.

"I'll not pay the bill," said Stevenson, "I'll tear the house down now."

Big Property-Owner Now Has a Monopoly of Business on Disputed Land and Does Not Want to Share It—Old Maps Shown.

James Caffray, whom some call the "Czar of Far Rockaway," is defending in court his claim to the entire ocean front at the popular watering place, where he has been a power for years.

The heirs of Justice J. J. Donahue say that part of the beach is their property and are trying to prove title before Justice Wilgoot M. Smith in the Supreme Court, Long Island City. In doing this they have traced the ownership of the lands back to the time the Rockaway Indians sold great stretches of the sandy beach for prices that nowadays will only buy a twenty-foot lot.

Maps more than a century old have been introduced and residents whose memory goes back many years have been called as witnesses to prove that Caffray's monopoly of the shore front is not valid.

The thousands who visit the Rockaways in the summer time are familiar with Caffray's Beach, which is the only place at Far Rockaway where surf bathing can be indulged in.

The beach is cut off from the mainland by an inlet of the sea, which is spanned by a wooden bridge. It is held that in order to emphasize his ownership of the beach Caffray has at times closed these bridges and compelled visitors to pay ferriage to the beach.

Caffray has a two-fold object in fighting for the land. He desires to retain ownership and preserve his monopoly. He also desires to simply an ordinary cold or fever, they are all alike to Prof. Adkin. He cures them all, he cures you quickly, painlessly, permanently at your own home. He also tells you a secret method by which you may keep yourself in perfect health. Without exaggeration it can be safely said that Prof. Adkin is the most interesting, remarkable and wonderful physical healer of the age. His only talk, his only thought is, How to cure incurables, to bring hope to the hopeless, joy, sunshine and happiness to the miserable and suffering. He is truly carrying on a grand work. He is President of one of the largest healing institutions in the world. He employs twenty eminent physicians and specialists to assist him with his work. He spends thousands of dollars every year in giving free advice and help to the sick. No matter where you live, the services of the best specialists may be yours. All you have to do is to write a letter to Prof. Adkin describing your case, and he will immediately dispatch you a booklet and explain the proper home treatment for your speedy recovery. This will not cost you a single cent. No money is asked for this service, none is taken. If you are sick and want to make a donation for the purpose of carrying on the work, such will be thankfully received. Prof. Adkin will not accept a cent from anyone who writes him within the next thirty days, a free copy of his wonderful new book, entitled "How to be cured and How to cure others." This book is highly indorsed by leading physicians. It contains invaluable information in regard to diseases and what to do in cases of emergency. It should be in every home. Remember it costs you nothing if you write to Prof. Adkin now.

Mrs. C. A. Brownell, of Dane, Oklahoma, writes: "I was tortured for months by terrible pains in my head, and this, together with loss of sleep, began to affect my mind. Your treatment has done wonders for me. I am now able to sleep and the terrible pains in my head are gone. Thank God, hope has taken the place of despondency and I have a new lease of life."

Alex. Moffat, of 338 Brown St., Rochester, N. Y., writes: "When I applied to you for treatment I was as I might say a physical wreck, suffering from pains in the chest and stomach, also poor digestion and on the verge of nervous prostration. I had tried most everything and had about given up when I tried your treatment. My pains have gone, my nerves are strong and I feel like a new man. I wish you success in your noble work."

Mr. J. N. Purdy, Purdy's, N. Y., writes: "I have been suffering from severe stricture and bladder trouble for over three years. I was given up by my physician as incurable. My urine had to be drawn from me and the scalding and burning was intense. I took advantage of your offer, and to my great astonishment, I was relieved on the second day. Your cures are certainly wonderful."

Mrs. M. A. Lynch, of 1522 Girard ave., Los Angeles, Cal., writes: "Two months ago I was almost prostrated with insomnia and general debility, from which I had suffered sixteen years. I could sleep at most only two or three hours out of the twenty-four. I suffered, with severe headache and neuralgia, could scarcely endure a sound. I feel like a new being. The results of Vitasopathic treatment in my case have certainly been wonderful."

If sick be sure to write Prof. Adkin at once for help. Be sure to state the leading symptoms of your disease, how long you have been sick, etc. Your letter will be treated with the strictest confidence and receive immediate attention. Address Prof. Thomas F. Adkin, office 179 E. Rochester, N. Y.

SICKNESS RIFE IN THIS STATION. TWELVE STRICKEN IN WHAT COMMISSIONER GREENE CALLED LONG ISLAND CITY'S "PEST HOLE."

Twelve policemen reported sick at the Long Island City station to-day, the station which Commissioner Greene characterized as the "rottenest pest hole of a building" he ever saw.

But among certain members of the Long Island City police force immunity is felt. Sgt. Wood, known as "Gold-Plated Bill," because he insists on having his brass buttons plated with gold, has rented a room in a house opposite the station, and there he sleeps while on reserve duty.

"Gold-Plated Bill" is a feature of the Greater New York Police Department. He is the overlooked aesthete of the force. He is a clean second-hand, the beautiful Comte Robert de Montaigne-Fenezas. He does not deny that he cannot sleep except on perfumed pillows. He says that the design of the wall paper and the carpet must harmonize or he is unhappy. He was an organizer of the Society for the Beautification of the Force.

When they sent him to the unsanitary tenement house police station in Long Island City "pest hole" he hastened and rented the room across the street. He does not like the name of "Gold-Plated Bill," much preferring "Gold-Plated Bill," but his companions have fastened the name indelibly to him.

BULLETS IN BODY; KEPT ON WORKING

Game Man Is Thomas Flynn, Who Was Shot by Person He Refuses to Name.

The gamest man who has ever come under the observation of the Queens County authorities is Thomas Flynn, who was arrested to-day, while shoveling coal on the Astoria water front, with a bullet in his breast and another in his right groin. He refuses to tell who shot him, although the police have in custody Henry Eblein, of Astoria, whom they accuse of the crime.

It came to the knowledge of the police that Eblein and Flynn had quarreled and that Flynn had been shot. Detectives went to Flynn's home to investigate and were told that he was at work. When they found him he denied that he had been shot, but medical examination showed two serious wounds.

Flynn denied that Eblein had shot him, nor would he tell how the bullet came to be fired into his body. He objected to having the wounds probed, saying that he wanted to go back to work. Eblein was held on a charge of felonious assault, preferred by the police. Flynn is in a serious condition in the hospital in Queens County Jail.
