Beat Marion Lynch, Another Long Shot, in the Opening Event at New Orleans, with Wissendine Third.

THE TRACK IN BAD SHAPE.

Card a Good One, but the Poor Going Caused Many Scratches—A Big Crowd Was on Hand and Speculation Brik.

THE WINNERS.

- First Race—Bud Embry 1, Marion Lynch 2, Wissendine 3. Second Race—Blue Blaze 1, Boston 2, The Carlton 3. Third Race—Spec 1, Henry McDaniel 2, Glennie 3. Fourth Race—Stammy 1, Tolson 2, A. F. Dewey 3.

(Special to The Evening World.) NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 12.—H. T. Griffin, the well-known owner, who has a big stable here, has been suffering from a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism for the last week. Griffin left for Hot Springs yesterday to take treatment there.

The inner portion of the track was deep and sticky to-day, but the outside ten feet had dried out partially. It was a scramble for the path, and the horses with speed that got there first won.

The scratches were a sorry Moore, Jim Nap, Frank Hoot, and other true, Eugene, Marion and Alvin. The stewards had half a dozen of the "not-rich-quick" people who have been working here before them this morning. A ruling as to their operations at the track will be issued this afternoon.

FIRST RACE. Purse $500; for three-year-olds and up; selling; one mile. Starters, whits, jocks, start, fin, str. Bud Embry, 98, Seely, 7 1/2 1 1/2 15 1/2. Marion Lynch, 104, Hoar, 1 28 28 12 2 1/2. Miss Shelley, 102, Hickey, 4 2 1/2 1 1/2 1 1/2. Start good. Won easily. Time—1:44 3/8.

Sir Kingston had the call over this lot. The field was made up of non-winners at the meeting. Sir Kingston again proved a disappointment. He had early speed but after going a half dozen furlongs and the finish failed to find him among the first three. The winner turned up in Bud Embry one of the outsiders. He raced into the lead rounding the far turn and came away without an effort in the run home.

SECOND RACE. Purse $100; for three-year-olds and up; selling; six furlongs. Starters, whits, jocks, start, fin, str. Blue Blaze, 107, Fuller, 2 1 1/2 1 1/2 1 1/2. The Boston, 102, Robinson, 3 2 1/2 1 1/2 1 1/2. Morgan, 105, Hoar, 4 2 1/2 1 1/2 1 1/2. Rider Hoot, 11, Hoar, 10 10 10 1 1/2 1 1/2. Darcy, 98, Seely, 8 10 10 1 1/2 1 1/2. Fisher, 10 11 1 1/2 1 1/2. Start good. Won driving. Time—1:17 1/8.

The Boston was the good thing in this race. It was her first appearance at the meeting, and on the strength of a fast trial was heavily played by the rail birds. The public choice was Blue Blaze. The Boston set a fast clip. She led her fields until well into the final furlong. At the ed Blue Blaze came with a rush and challenged The Boston, winning by half a length in a hard drive.

THIRD RACE. Purse $200; for three-year-olds; five and one-half furlongs. Starters, whits, jocks, start, fin, str. Spec, 97, W. H. Hoar, 6 3 1/2 1 1/2 1 1/2. "FIGHTING TERRY" LIVES UP TO NAME.

Little Brooklynite, Seeking to Retain Popularity, Makes Four Matches and Wants Another.

Terry McGovern is fast achieving the reputation he enjoyed during the time the Horton lay existed. It is hardly necessary to recall those times to tell of how often Terry was matched by his manager, Sam Harris, to meet anybody in his class, and how quickly and without apparent effort he disposed of his ambitious adversaries. These accomplishments earned him the reputation of being the greatest little fighter for his size and inches that ever climbed into a ring.

His first battle will be with Tim Callahan, of Philadelphia, whom he will meet in a six-round bout before the Industrial A. C., of Philadelphia, next Wednesday night. Then he will clash with Benny Yacker, of Chicago, in a twenty-round bout on March 15, before the club offering the largest purse. Four weeks later he will box "Young Corbett" for the feather-weight championship of the world.

After that fight Terry will leave for England, where he is to meet Ben Jordan in a fifteen-round bout before the National Sporting Club, of London, on June 1, for a purse of $3,000 and a side bet of $2,500. In speaking of Terry's fights to an Evening World reporter last night, Sam Harris said: "I have made all the matches for McGovern just to show the public that Terry is the same great fighter he was a few years ago. I think the hardest fight Terry will have will be with Callahan. Callahan, in my opinion, is one of the toughest propositions in a six-round bout there is to be found. 'Young Corbett' was afraid to fight him, and I can prove what I say. "I want to arrange another fight for Terry before I leave for England. That will make five fights in all. The man I want Terry to fight is Billy Maynard, who is doing so much talking since his bout with 'Young Corbett' in Philadelphia. Maynard said he was willing to fight Terry, but I think he is afraid. He refused to accept the terms offered him for a six-round bout with McGovern. I will get at any time for McGovern to fight Maynard. I think Terry can stop him in a few rounds."

GOOD SCORES ROLLED IN BIG BOWLING TOURNEY.

Westchester County Wheelmen Five Got Big Reception When They Tallied 913 Last Night in Evening World's Event on Amann & Triess's Alleys—No Games Scheduled for To-Night.

NO GAMES TO-NIGHT. No games will be bowled in the tournament to-night this being Lincoln's Birthday. The bowlers will be given a rest 'til Friday, when the games will be resumed.

It will take more than heavy rain to keep the bowlers away from Amann & Triess's alleys, where The Evening World tournament is being held. Last night proved that conclusively. The followers of the sport were on hand in as large numbers as ever. Enthusiasm was at a high premium, too. The prospects for close games were bright. As usual there was considerable betting on the results and on high scores.

To-night there will be no games on account of it being Lincoln's Birthday. On Friday the schedule will be resumed. Six teams were scheduled to meet last night. Two out-of-town clubs were down to do business in the opening event. The out-of-towners are playing an important part in the race for the cup. All games between other than local fives are closely followed by every one. The first team up, the Westchester County Wheelmen, started off with a ruck, and early in the game showed its superiority over the Peerless organization. The Hooknites did the best, but they were never in sight of their rivals. The Jerseymen were up to the mark, and wound up with a good frame. Still they were beaten by nearly 100 pins.

The cyclists put up a very creditable game. Although Conlitis 200 was the high individual score of the game, their total of 913 is the second highest tally made to date. Every man on the Westchester team beat out his man on the other club. Jordan set the spectators wild by making one of the most difficult of splits. After the first ball, pins 9 and 7 were left standing. Few expected him to pick them off. He did it, though, and received a big ovation.

Dale made a "poodle." Dale, the first man up in the game, made a poodle with his first ball. The slip cost him a round of drinks for his team. "Honest Eddie" Pollock, the umpire, had his first argument with a player in the same game. He called a foul on Schneider in the third frame, and the bowler disputed the point. The umpire's decision was law, however. Later, in the last game, Peshl also got into a wordy war after a foul had been called on him. He wanted to discuss the matter at great length, but was hooted down by the railbirds. In the second game the competition was close. Two teams from the Nutty Nuts Club met and the second five worked hard to win out. They lost out through the poor bowling of Lawrence, who scored only 103. They had high individual scores, however, made by Reiter, who rolled 200. Lawrence was eleven pins behind him. Appel, of the first team, furnished a great deal of amusement for the spectators. He started out with six pins in the first frame and only added seven in the second. He got the same number in the next two frames, but in the fourth, giving him a total of 23. The crowd began to have fun with him when he stopped up for the fifth frame, but he rolled a strike, and in the succeeding three frames did the same thing. His total of 163 was not bad considering his poor start.

SECOND GAME. Nutty Nuts 1: City—H. Schneider, 147; Moyer, 150; Aftel, 162; Schmidt, 153; Rossner, 170. Total, 898. Nitty Nuts 1: Marbach, 138; Stewars, 149; Lawrence, 103; Reinfor, 202; Pfluhier, 192. Total, 784.

THIRD GAME. Edison City—McLoy, 183; Harris, 144; Deohi, 133; Hott, 134; Rivers, 136. Total, 810. Lincoln, City—Cohan, 180; Eckstein, 127; Tucker, 137; Gelsman, 145; Fishblatt, 138. Total, 715.

WOMAN ROLLED 184 IN TOURNEY GAME. The women bowlers in the tournament on the Harlem Circle alleys were in good form yesterday. Particularly so were the fair members of the Gleander Ladies and the Crescent Ladies teams. The former rolled the highest score of the day, and the others the second. Mrs. Beverstein carried off the honors in the individual series. She tallied 184 in the second game. The scores:

FIRST GAME. Gleander Ladies—Mrs. Gask, 100; Mrs. Beverstein, 154; Mrs. Gehler, 91; Mrs. Feldhausen, 130; Mrs. Houtzler, 131. Total, 674. Crescent Ladies—Mrs. Bates, 127; Mrs. Getty, 136; Mrs. Deivaux, 161; Mrs. Stocker, 92; Mrs. Wimmer, 124. Total, 630.

SECOND GAME. Gleander Ladies—Mrs. Gask, 135; Mrs. Beverstein, 184; Mrs. Gehler, 91; Mrs. Feldhausen, 130; Mrs. Houtzler, 131. Total, 674. Crescent Ladies—Mrs. Bates, 127; Mrs. Getty, 136; Mrs. Deivaux, 161; Mrs. Stocker, 92; Mrs. Wimmer, 124. Total, 630.

A FEW NOTES ABOUT NEW YORK BOWLERS. Mrs. Harry Abrams, President of the Manhattan Bowling Club, of Harlem, attended the affair of the Florodora Bowling Club, which was held at the German Turn Vercel, Eighty-fifth street and Lexington avenue, and in the prize bowling contest took first prize for women. Frank J. Campbell, formerly manager of the alleys at Twenty-third street and Seventh avenue, has taken the management of the alleys at Twenty-third street and Tenth avenue, and will have some of the best match games in the city. He will hold a duck pin tournament this month. He and Frank Reed are willing to play a match game of duck pin with any team in Greater New York. Mr. Campbell is a member of a team that is entered in the Evening World tournaments.

The Bowling Committee of the Royal Arcanum Wheelmen reports the class of all competitors inaugurated at the beginning of the season of 1902-03. The different prizes being awarded are as follows: Bradford prize, high score, won by L. Doncourt, 257; Sauer prize, high score, H. Reiter, 237; Ryan prize, first high average, A. J. Reids, average 205; second prize, Walter Swann, average 203; third prize, L. Doncourt, average 197.

Joe Wise, who learned all he knows about bowling by watching Tom Panna at the game on Hermand's alleys at One Hundred and Forty-seventh street and Seventh avenue, is rolling for the Union Boat Club team and is doing his work as well as a pretty good bowler. But Eddie McCaffrey, of the Hermand contingent, has something on him.

Was Joe Kennedy's hood. When Gus is around, Kennedy can do little better than 100. When he is away, Kennedy can bowl the pins over to the average tune of 110. Joe may be a great bowler some day.

"Pip" Genour, the "Alderman" with his social chat with him, and I will be at Hermand's. He knows a few things more than does Jimmy Devlin or Andy Maloney.

HART ACCEPTS M'COY'S DEFI.

Louisville Fighter Will Box New Yorker Before International Club, of Fort Erie, Canada, on April 15.

"Kid" McCoy, the heavy-weight fighter, was evidently sincere when he said he would do considerable fighting this year. Besides his bout with Jack McCormack in Philadelphia on Feb. 23 he will meet Marvin Hart, the light-heavy-weight, of Louisville. The last-named match was arranged last night. McCoy accepted the offer made by Jack Hermann, of the International A. C., of Fort Erie, for a fight between McCoy and Hart. The men are to meet in a twenty-round bout on April 15 for a purse of $5,000, of which the winner will receive 75 per cent, and the loser twenty-five. A side bet of $5,000 will also be made on the result. Assurances have been received from William Botte, of Louisville, that he will bet that amount on Hart.

Weling Has Two Fights. Al Weling, the Buffalo heavy-weight boxer, who has been making his home in Philadelphia for the last few weeks, left that city last night for Boston, where he has two fights scheduled. His first contest will be to-morrow night, when he boxes George Gardner a fifteen-round bout before the New Maverick Club, of South Boston. The second will be on Monday night, when he meets Jim Jeffords in the Criterion Athletic Club.
