EENINGS RACE TRACK, WASHINGTON, D. C., March 27.—This was another perfect day for racing purposes with soft southerly breezes and sunny skies. Trees are budding, shrubs are flowering and the grass has taken on the bright emerald color that tell of an early spring.

Those fortunate enough to get to the race track felt that it was good to even breathe of nature again to feel thankful that there is such a thing as fresh air and sunshine is not what people go to the races for.

This afternoon's card was the best of the meeting, and this, coupled with a good track and fine weather, enabled the crowd to enjoy a most pleasant afternoon.

The attendance was up to the average.

SCHWAB'S TAX IS SWORN OFF

President of the Steel Trust Makes Oath that He Is Not a Legal Resident of New York.

WAS ASSESSED AT $500,000.

Directorate of the Great Steel Corporation Split Into Factions and Mr. Schwab Has to Fight to Keep Control.

Charles M. Schwab, president of the United States Steel Corporation, appeared at the Tax Department office this afternoon and swore off an assessment of $500,000 on his personal property in this city on the ground that he is not a resident.

Mr. Schwab declared, in spite of the fact that he is building a $2,000,000 residence on Riverside Drive, between Seventy-third and Seventy-fourth streets, which he expects to occupy in a few months, that he is not a resident of New York, and is therefore not assessable on one dollar's worth of personal property.

According to the secrecy with which the Tax Department officials preserve facts which should be public property, it could not be learned what city or State Mr. Schwab declared himself to be a resident.

It is understood, however, that the steel magnate asserts that he never abandoned Pittsburgh, Pa., as his residence when he moved from there to New York to take charge of the Steel Trust.

When Mr. Schwab takes possession of his new residence he will then, he says, declare himself to be a resident of this city, but not before.

Trouble in the Trust.

Discussions have sprung up among "insiders" of the big Steel Trust. C. M. Schwab, the President of the Trust, discovered on his return from Europe that a movement was under way to depose him.

The directorate of the Steel Trust is split into factions. One of these has centered its energies in Judge E. H. Gary, chairman of the Executive Committee. Another faction inclines to James Gayley, First Vice-President. Mr. Gayley is not antagonistic to Mr. Schwab, but can more properly be described as Mr. Schwab's heir. Should it develop that Schwab is a loser his strength will more than likely descend to Gayley.

The third faction has named Henry C. Frick as its representative. Mr. Frick is not an active candidate for the presidency of the Steel Trust, and has discouraged attempts by his friends to put him in that attitude. But it is well known in steel and iron circles that he is Tommy Foster's most formidable opponent of the Schwab regime.

STEEL TRUST CHECKS STOCKHOLDERS' SUITS.

TRENTON, N. J., March 27.—The United States Steel Corporation to-day filed in the office of the Secretary of State articles amending the charter of the National Steel Company, which were filed yesterday for the purpose of merging the Carnegie Company, the National Steel Company and the American Steel Hoop Company.

The amended articles change the name from the National Steel Company, as filed yesterday, to the Carnegie Steel Company. The papers are the same as those filed yesterday, with the single important exception, in connection with the provision that there shall be maintained in this State a registered agency at which shall be kept a list of the stockholders of the concern for inspection of the stockholders, there is an added provision as follows:

"If a registered agent may refuse permission to examine the same (except as to the entries affecting the shares owned by such stockholder) unless satisfied that such examination and the information to be acquired thereby is desired for legitimate purposes and not for a purpose hostile to the interests of the corporation or its individual stockholders and the determination of the registered agent shall be final and conclusive."

This provision is also interesting in connection with Assembly bill 270, which passed the House this week. That bill provides that no suit can be brought by minority stockholders in the name of a corporation without the written consent of 50 per cent. of the stockholders.

Under the provision of the amended charter filed to-day by the Carnegie Steel Company it is very difficult for a stockholder to ascertain the names of the stockholders of 50 per cent. of the stock of the company, unless the managers are willing.

FILIPINOS LOSE 45 IN HOT FIGHT.

San Miguel, the Rebellious Leader, Thought to Be Among Those Left Dead After Rout by Macabebe Scouts.

THREE AMERICANS KILLED.

MANILA, March 27.—Two companies of Macabebe scouts signally defeated the main body of San Miguel's force to-day. It is believed San Miguel was killed. Lieut. Reese was seriously wounded. The scouts lost three men killed and had eleven men wounded.

The enemy occupied an entrenched position midway between Marquina, San Francisco and Del Monte, and had erected a stone fort, which was garrisoned by two hundred men. The First and Fourth Companies of Macabebe, commanded by Lieut. Reese and Nickerson respectively, attacked the enemy's position.

The two officers led a gallant and successful charge, during which Lieut. Reese fell seriously wounded. The enemy then broke and ran, leaving forty-five men dead on the field, including a general officer, who is believed to be San Miguel, though his identification is incomplete.

GAMBLERS IN POLICE NET

Police Captain Gallagher, of the East Twenty-second street station, with twenty men of his command, raided a gambling house at No. 231 East Fourteenth street, near Third avenue, at 4.30 o'clock this afternoon.

About a dozen men were arrested. Much excitement was caused in the neighborhood while the raid was in progress and a large crowd gathered. The raid was a success, judging from the number of prisoners.

Inspector McCluskey sent a dozen Central Office men under Detectives Valley and Collins to No. 34 West Third street, where a pool-room in the cellar, alleged to be owned by William Bailey, was raided.

Bailey and the alleged proprietor, Patrick J. Carey, and ten employees were arrested. Eighty-five men were in the place at the time. Much paraphernalia was secured.

MORGAN LET OFF EASILY BY GATES.

Tells How Schwab Came to Him at 2 A. M. to Talk Over Louisville and Nashville, but Will Not Reply to the Merger King for Unfriendly Remark.

John W. Gates, who is supposed to look on a million dollars with scorn, was the star to-day in the Interstate Commerce Commission hearing about the famous Louisville and Nashville deal.

It is said, and no man has denied it, that Gates cleaned up $15,000,000 in this transaction, and it was testified to by his son Charley to-day that the negotiations at which the transfer of the system was arranged occupied only one hour. Fifteen millions for an hour should make even John W. Gates chesny, and he certainly showed a bit of self-consciousness to-day when he took the stand.

All the Interstate Commerce Commissioners—Knapp, Clements, Yeomans, Prunty and Fifer—were in their seats. There was quite a collection of financiers, Wall street celebrities, lawyers and curiosity seekers and all studied Gates very closely. The Kentucky Railroad Commission was represented by State Attorney-General C. J. Pratt and Bennett H. Young.

Among the others present were Rudolph Kepler, president of the Stock Exchange; Francis Lynde Stetson, counsel for J. P. Morgan & Co.; John F. Harris, of Harris, Gates & Co.; Edwin Hawley, J. M. Culp, vice-president of the Southern Railway, and John Skelton Williams, president of the Seaboard Air Line.

He wore a blue serge suit, a blue polka-dot scarf with a pearl in it half as big as a man's thumb. Mr. Gates dropped into the witness chair leisurely.

"Tell us about the purchase of the Nashville road stock," Col. Young said.

FLOWER'S BAIL IS NOW $20,000

Mining Promoter Arraigned on Five New Indictments and Sent Back to Tombs for Want of Bondsmen.

BIG BAIL HAD BEEN REDUCED

Five new indictments were returned against Dr. R. C. Flower by the Grand Jury to-day. One of them superseded the one founded on the complaint of Mrs. Belle Taylor, the author, on which Dr. Flower was held originally in $50,000 bail. He had managed to have this bail reduced by Justice Greenbaum to $5,000, but when he was arraigned before Judge Newburger in General Sessions on the new indictments he was placed under $20,000 bail, covering the five indictments. All the indictments were filed with grand jury in connection with mining stock transactions.

As soon as Dr. Flower's bail was fixed Mrs. Cornelia Starr came forward and offered to furnish security for the entire sum. Assistant District Attorney Minor, who has charge of the bail department in the District Attorney's office, would not accept her as surety, and the prisoner's counsel had to hunt other bondsmen.

Mrs. Starr offered to go bail for $50,000 the other day for the doctor, but her bond was rejected then on the ground that she could qualify in only $25,000 worth of real estate instead of $50,000.

The reason a new indictment was drawn on the complaint of Mrs. Taylor was that as the first was drawn hurriedly it was feared that it might not withstand attack.

The other four indictments also charge grand larceny. Algen Soliman, President of the South Norfolk, Conn., Savings Bank, charges Flower with swindling him out of $1,500 in April, 1900; H. A. Buttick, of No. 64 Broadway, gave up $50 in 1899; H. C. Woodruff, of No. 86 Broadway, lost $40 in January, 1901; and S. W. Woolley, $20 in April, 1901.

Andrew D. Mejoy, his former associate with whom he has been fighting so vigorously or late appeared before the Grand Jury as a witness against him.

After Mr. Starr appeared to accept Mrs. Starr's bail "Joe" Moss, Flower's counsel, went before Supreme Court Justice Davis and asked the Court to compel the District Attorney to accept Mrs. Starr as security. Justice Davis refused to interfere in the matter.

SAYS HE HEARD PENNELL THREAT.

Bartender at the Hotel Roland, on East Fifty-ninth Street, Where Pennell Met Mrs. Burdick, Declares the Lawyer Told Him There Was a Man He Wanted Out of the Way.

NEW WITNESS WILL BE STAR AT INQUEST NEXT MONDAY.

Two Letters Said to Have Been Written by Mrs. Pennell on Day of Her Death to New Haven Woman Will Be Offered to Show She Did Not Plan Suicide.

That Arthur Pennell intended to kill Edward Burdick of Buffalo and threatened to put him out of the way is vouched for by Alexander J. Quinn, of No. 251 West Thirty-ninth street, this city, who was a bartender in the Hotel Roland in Fifty-ninth street last December while Pennell and Mrs. Burdick were there together. Quinn has been ordered to Buffalo and will be the star witness at the Pennell inquest which begins on Monday.

Quinn went to work in the Hotel Roland last October and remained there as a bartender until Jan. 1. In December Mrs. Burdick was a guest at the house. Pennell did not stop there regularly, but he called on Mrs. Burdick every day. He spent some of his time in the bar, according to Quinn, and drank as a man would drink who was laboring under an intense mental strain.

One day, Quinn says, Pennell was in the bar drinking. He became confidential with the bartender and made the following remark: "There is one man in this world I am going to kill if I have to hang for it."

After this, according to Quinn, Pennell went into details concerning the trouble into which he had been plunged by his relations with Mrs. Burdick. He said that if the divorce suit ever came to trial it would mean his ruin, socially and in a business way, and that he would go to any length to put a stop to it.

Quinn did not realize the importance of what he had heard until he read the testimony given by Mrs. Burdick at the Buffalo inquest into the death of her husband. When he found that the man who had talked to him over the bar was Pennell he wrote to District Attorney Coatsworth, of Buffalo, outlining his story.

Mr. Coatsworth notified the police and Chief of Detectives Cusack asked Inspector McCluskey to look up Quinn. This was done. From what the Central Office men learned the man is reliable. His former employer discredits the story.

MRS. PENNELL WROTE NOT OF DIVORCE.

NEW HAVEN, March 27.—Two letters which are expected to figure in the Pennell inquest at Buffalo next Monday have been sent to Buffalo from this city. Both were written by Mrs. Pennell to a girlhood friend whose name has not yet been disclosed. One bears a Buffalo postmark dated 7 o'clock on the night of the automobile tragedy.

It is said that one of the letters denies that Arthur Pennell ever intended getting a divorce, and that in neither letter is there any trace of mental depression or any hint of suicide.

The letters are said to have been forwarded to Thomas Penney, of Buffalo, who was formerly Pennell's law partner.

EMPRESS FALLS FROM HER HORSE

Wife of Kaiser Wilhelm Thrown While Riding with the Emperor and Prince Adelbert Near Hunting Lodge.

BERLIN, March 27.—The Empress Augusta Victoria, wife of Kaiser Wilhelm, was thrown from her horse while riding in the Grunewald Forest to-day and sustained a fracture of her right arm. She was carried to the royal hunting lodge by members of her suite and a physician hastily summoned from Berlin.

The physician was placed in an automobile and whirled the five miles to the hunting lodge at a terrific speed. He set the injured arm and then the Empress was removed to the Royal Palace.

It is said that the fracture is not a serious one and that there is little likelihood that she will suffer any complications.

The Empress left the Royal Palace this morning, accompanied by the Emperor, her son, Prince Adelbert, and her suite, and rode out to Grunewald Forest through the Thiergarten and Charlottenburg.

The royal party were proceeding at a gallop near the hunting lodge when Her Majesty's horse stumbled. He fell to his knees, and the Empress was thrown over his head. She struck on her right side with her arm doubled under her.

She fell heavily. The Emperor, who was just behind her, sprang from his horse with great agility and assisted her to rise. She complained of her right arm, from which she suffered great pain. The Emperor had her carried to the hunting lodge, and word sent to the palace to Berlin.
