

H. D. MINTYRE DIES SUDDENLY

Secretary of the Brooklyn Jockey Club and One of the Best Known Racing Men in the Country.

CAUSE, BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

For Years He Conducted the Affairs of the Dwyer Track at Gravesend and His Programmes Satisfied Owners and Public.

Secretary Hugh D. McIntyre, of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, died at his home, No. 507 Third street, Brooklyn, this morning of Bright's disease.

While Mr. McIntyre has not been in good health for some time, his death was unexpected. He was fifty-eight years of age and was born in Prescott, Canada.

Mr. McIntyre was considered one of the ablest racing secretaries in the United States. His knowledge of horses enabled him to frame the condition of races satisfactorily to both owners and the public, and Phil Dwyer, President of the Brooklyn Jockey Club, leaned heavily on him in the general management of the Gravesend track.

Mr. McIntyre came to New York in 1861, and became connected with the Spirit of the Times. In the fall of 1875, with Charles Foster, he started the Sportsman.

In 1878 he became Secretary of the National Jockey Club at Washington, and since 1887 had been Secretary of the Brooklyn Jockey Club. In 1888 he was also handicapper for the Monmouth Association.

While Mr. McIntyre was taken ill at Saratoga a year ago and was known to be a sick man, he was out and attending to business until a few days ago. Last December he went to Florida, returning in March much improved in health. This morning he awoke about 4 o'clock with a severe attack of chills. Mrs. McIntyre, who was with him, called a doctor, but before his arrival Mr. McIntyre relaxed into unconsciousness and never awoke.

Public funeral services will be held at the residence at 7:30 Saturday evening and will be conducted by Rev. Dr. J. M. Farrar, of the First Reformed Episcopal Church. Private services will be held Sunday morning. The interment will be in Greenwood Cemetery.

HUGH D. MINTYRE WHO DIED TO-DAY.

H. D. MINTYRE

one of his best races, which he would have to run to win the Suburban under 128 pounds, but he is determined to take his chance. Rice, the last to win so many races with the Hermance colt last year, will have the mount.

"Boston Jack" McDonald declares that Savable will win the American Derby. "The Chicago people wanted to see Irish Lad start," he said yesterday. "I wish he had been shipped, for that would have been a better race than any."

Blue Banner and Aminte, each at 100 to 1, came to the relief of the long-shot punters by finishing inside the money. There are those who remember Montana King.

J. Kneale got the pick of the Haggin yearlings sold yesterday by purchasing a half brother to Big Gun for $15,000.

Hille surprised the talent by winning a long race at the Fair Grounds at St. Louis. W. V. Elliott has been running the speedy son of Himyar in sprint races for the past two years.

Jockey Battiste, who rode Oxyrhoe, the favorite in the first race at Detroit yesterday, was set down indignantly by the judges. It was evident to everybody that he never tried a lick at any stage and took care of his mount all the way.

A Good Game Expected. The Brighton A. C. A., champions of the Greater City, will meet with the Spooner Field Club on Sunday, June 2, at Brighton Park, Cleveland and Pitkin avenues.

This will be the second meeting of these teams and although the Brighton won the first game Manager Prince, of the Spooners, declares his team will reverse the decision in the second game and avenge the first defeat of the season to the Brightons.

Poughkeepsies vs. Hoboken. The strong Poughkeepsie baseball team, which defeated the crack Hoboken team a few weeks ago, will meet the Jerseymen again at the St. George grounds, in Hoboken, on Sunday. The game promises to be bitterly contested, as the Hoboken are determined to get even with the Poughkeepsies for that defeat. Lindeman, the Hoboken's star twirler, will do the pitching for them.

A Museum Within a Museum. It is a long reach from the sixth century before Christ to the present day, but the University of Pennsylvania Museum has just incorporated a museum of that date which was discovered by Prof. Heintzsch, says the Philadelphia Record. The museum is not very big, being entirely contained in a large earthen jar, but the contents are very valuable from an historical standpoint.

Montana Society Note. The ball given at the Palace parlors over the Crimson Wing saloon last Friday night was a roaring success. Pat Henderson tuned up the castles and roared his bow about 9 P. M., and started in on "Turkey in the Straw."

"Race King will win if he is a good horse," remarked Jockey Bullman to Tommy Burns before the third race yesterday. "But you know I beat him a head with Ninipin when you rode him, and Race King was the best at that."

Duke of Kendal didn't get into any high society by winning the Myrtle Stakes. It was won last year by Francisco, carrying 8 pounds. Merry Prince won it twice. Jockey Free Advice, Lehman, Paterson, Equity and Count were among the other horses with pretensions to claim that have won the stake.

C. W. Thomas yesterday sold the two-year-old Hoppa Hollow to W. F. Matthews for $1,000, an advance of $200 over the figure he was knocked down for at the train the other day. William C. Dan made an offer for Hoppa Hollow on the strength of a five-eighths spin in 1:01 1/2 shown by the gelding.

St. Jude is one of the bad saints in Louis V. Bell's barn, judging by his performance yesterday. H. Barnaby was supposed to be a good saint when he graduated from the maiden ranks not long since, but he failed to make good the last time out. St. Jude was a 3 to 5 shot. Among those who beat him was the five-year-old maiden Aminte.

Miss Matie Oliver's Short Cake was well played in the fifth race. The filly was at 3 to 1 in the betting, and next to Andrew Miller's Julia and J. L. Holland's Bob Murphy carried more of the talent's money than any others in the race. Short Cake's chances were spoiled by the start.

E. R. Thomas says he thought of running both Hermis and Yerdarm. He realizes that Hermis is hardly up to

DOCK SAFE OR SHAMROCK NOW

New Keel Blocks Are Ready and the Yacht Will Be Correctly Placed on Them To-Day at Erie Basin.

FIRST EFFORT IMPERILS HER

Expecting Challenger's Keel to Be Like That of the First Shamrock, the Dock Men Prepared for a Flat-Bottomed Fin.

With new keel blocks prepared from accurate drawings of Shamrock III's keel, a second attempt to put the challenger in dry dock will be made at Erie Basin to-day.

Serious injury nearly resulted from the see saw contest between the challenger and the dock men. When the water was pumped out of the basin at an angle of ten degrees and her entire weight was being thrown on her fin astern, Capt. Wringe was first to notice the danger and he ordered the pumping engines stopped and the flood gates of the catwalk opened. The water rushed in and the yacht soon floated and was out of danger.

Capt. Wringe's quick foresight in all probability saved the challenger from serious injury, as the improper shifting of her weight would have bent her plates astern.

It was said that only rough drawings of the Shamrock's keel had been furnished to the dock people. They assumed that her keel was nearly flat like that of the other two Shamrocks.

On account of the threatened accident yachtsmen who have been anxiously awaiting a view of the new aspirant for cup honors did not get a look at the new five model. Only about a foot below the green strip which marks her water line had been exposed when the dock was flooded.

Enough was disclosed, however, to show that she was quite unlike Shamrock I, below the water line. Both forward and aft her lines are beautifully drawn. It was observed that she was a legitimate type of the fin keel variety.

WRESTLING FATAL TO WOULD-BE CHAMPION.

John Tucci, Who Sought Leadership of Frog Hollow, Dies as Result of a Fall.

John Tucci, a young man of brawny build, who aspired to be the champion wrestler of "Frog Hollow," the "Little Italy" of the Bronx, died to-day from a fractured skull, received on June 9 in a bout with Joseph Nero, the holder of the title. The men came together in Tucci's home at No. 549 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street. The champion proved too strong for his antagonist and gave him a toss that landed Tucci on the back of his head. He became unconscious immediately and recovered his senses only long enough, it is said, to give a statement to Coroner Gorman. The police are now searching for Nero.

A physician was called in right after the bout and advised Tucci's removal to Leabanon Hospital. The young man's condition became so grave that the Coroner was notified and later the young man's mother, being told that there was no hope for him, had him removed to his home, preferring that he should die there.

The police were in ignorance of the case until a patrolman saw an ambulance which took Tucci from the hospital to his home based on the record of the door. Inquiry revealed the part Joseph Nero had played in it and a search for the doctor was made. The champion of "Frog Hollow" lives at No. 547 East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street, and is twenty-four years of age and of powerful build. Tucci was twenty-four and was married.

"ALL 'ROUND" WILL BE A SHARP COMPETITION.

More Entries than Ever Received Expected for July 4 Meet.

The all-around championship of the Amateur Athletic Union will be held at Celtic Park on July 4 under the auspices of the Greater New York Irish Athletic Association. This is the next important athletic feature that is scheduled to take place, and the competition this year promises to be more interesting than any similar event ever held, because it is expected that the entry list will be the largest in the history of the event.

Among the youngsters that have been training for this event are J. T. Mahoney, of the Greater New York Irish Athletic Association, who has been doing a great deal of all-around work, and Sheridan, the champion discus thrower. Sheridan will be particularly strong in the weights. W. R. Knox, of the Milwaukee Athletic Club, who is a student at Beloit College, is looked upon as the best all-around man in the east, and his entries are expected to be particularly strong. He is now out, can be had from James E. Sullivan, 16-18 Park place.
