HELD FOR EXAMINATION.

Another Youth is Alleged to Be Implicated in the Robbery, and Detectives Recover Part of the Stolen Jewels.

Matthew Hawkins, twenty years old, of No. 245 West Fourth street, who, until four years ago was a jockey, but was then ruled off the turf for riding as a prisoner before Magistrate Cornell in the Yorkville Court to-day charged with the robbery of $2,500 worth of diamonds from Mrs. H. JACK MARTIN'S LAST RIDE.

Jack Martin, who rode Outcome, winner of the fifth race, will not be seen in the saddle again this year. It was but recently that he underwent an operation to his thigh, occasioned by his fall, and the abscess has now formed again, so that Dr. Gildersleeve will have to scrape the thigh clean.

NEW PITCHER TO HAVE GOOD TRYOUT

McGraw will not sign Bartley, the new pitcher whom he tried out yesterday, until he can show more of what he can do. It is believed that America is much the superior of Bartley. The Texas youth, whose home is in Cincinnati, will be worked outside of the box for a few days yet.

So far as the Cincinnati Club is concerned, the minor league managers may now rest in peace and figure on the men still left to them as certain for their team for next season. President Herrmann has made the announcement that the Reds now are supplied with all the minor league talent that is wanted for experimenting purposes in the spring, and that any new additions to the team will be acquired by trading veterans, and not by purchase from the minor leagues.

"In the eight men we have secured for next season," said Mr. Herrmann, "we have about as good a selection as any club in either league can boast of. We chose these men with a view of possibly strengthening the team in positions where changes might seem desirable, although just at present there appears to be no reason for making any additions to our aggregation as it stands. While all the men look good, there is no telling that any one of them will be able to make fast company."

PIRATES COSTLY SAYS DREYFUSS

Declares that the Three-Time Champions Have Not Netted Fortune as Rumored.

When the present baseball season is over and gone, Barney Dreyfuss, president and owner of the three champions, may write a book, taking for its theme, "An Expensive Luxury." The owner of a team which has now won for the third time the National League pennant figures that he has lost money in baseball. He says that the same amount of time, energy and capital expended in almost any other business would have yielded far greater returns. Any one who wants now to trade a business of like magnitude in Pittsburgh or elsewhere for the price-championship ball team may get the chance. Before leaving for the East Dreyfuss said:

"I hope to win the pennant next year again, and this would make four in a row, one more than any team ever won. This time I will have enough. A baseball team is an expensive luxury, not a source of wealth, as is thought by many. The general impression seems to be that a great fortune is made each year by a winning ball team. I would like to say that if I depended upon baseball for my living I would be hungry often. I have the figures to prove this. I will trade my stock at par for a similar amount of stock at par in any good business in Pittsburgh. I will gladly take my money out of the ball team and invest it in any well-established newspaper and will make more money."

DELMAR FOR SMATHERS?

Smathers is looking for a horse to beat C. K. G. Billings' Lou Dillon on the Seewoodway. He sees that Major Delmar (2:01-4) is the only horse having a chance to brush with Lou Dillon, and wants to buy him. He offered Mr. Fred H. Parks, of New York, owner of Major Delmar, $30,000 for the great gelding, but Mr. Parks declined the offer. Fifty thousand dollars is about the price placed on the second fastest trotter in the world. Smathers, however, is not the sort of a man to let money stand in his way, and he may yet secure Major Delmar. He loves to drive a fast trotter. If he should get Major Delmar New Yorkers would see some real horse racing. The Seewoodway when he met Mr. Billings driving Lou Dillon.

PHILA. GIANTS' FAREWELL.

There will be another farewell baseball game on Olympia Field, One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street and Lenox avenue, on Sunday. This time it will be the Philadelphia Giants who will make their last bow of the season to New York fans. They have enjoyed a successful run here, and the Murray Hill, who will oppose them, want to score a victory and make up for a recent defeat.

M'CHESNEY THE HORSE THAT HAS SCARED ALL THE EASTERN STARS INTO TEMPORARY RETIREMENT

Can Lay Claim to Being Champion, Four-Year-Old of the Season—Beat Everything Out West.

Since "Big Mac's" Performance in Twin City Handicap Waterboy's Owner Has Dodged All Chances for a Meeting of the Pair.

This is McChesney, champion four-year-old of the year. The writer says champion because he has beaten all the good horses in the East bar one. The single exception is Waterboy, and the owner of the big black son of Watercross does not send him against McChesney for fear the reputation of Waterboy would be tarnished by defeat.

That McChesney has scared the Eastern turfmen into seven kinds of fits there is no question. McChesney was the best three-year-old in the West last year, and when his owners, Durnell & Herz, determined to race their string at New Orleans during the winter they took McChesney along with them.

"Big Mac" was kept in easy training and won a race or two. Reverses overtook the stable, and E. E. Smathers, who had acquired a reputation as a plunger in the trotting game, came down to look McChesney over. He wanted to get into the running game and wanted a good horse. He bought McChesney, paying, it is believed, $30,000 for him.

McChesney's first start was in the Montgomery Handicap at Memphis, and he was badly beaten. But he went on up, the circuit and soon proved his superiority.

When he had demonstrated that he was the best the West had, Secretary John Boden, jr., of the Brighton Beach Association, saw an opportunity to furnish a great drawing card for his association, and he wired E. E. Smathers asking if McChesney would come on and meet Waterboy.

The owner of Waterboy at that time was willing, and this is how McChesney came to make the journey East. In his preparation for the match, however, he went lame and the race had to be declared off.

It looked at the time as if the owner of McChesney was trying to dodge out of the match and he was subjected to all sorts of criticism. The writer confesses to having had strong opinions on the matter.

Great Western Horse Is Now Fit for a Race with Any Man's Horse, but Can't Get On with Top Notchers

MUNROE FAILS AS A WRESTLER

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 16.—Jack Munroe, the minor pugilist, made his debut before a Worcester audience last night as a wrestler, but failed to create the impression that he knew anything about the game. Munroe's opponent was Harvey Parker, a light-weight, and for an hour Parker simply toyed with the big man from the mines.

The conditions of the match were catch-as-catch-can, and Munroe's contract called for him to throw Parker twice in an hour. Instead, Parker won the first fall with a hammer-lock in twenty-nine minutes. In the second bout Munroe was severely punished every second of the time, and his shoulders were within a half-inch of the floor when time was called.

Before the men entered the ring there was a long delay, as Munroe insisted upon seeing the color of the money before he went on.

In weight Munroe had fifty pounds the advantage of Parker, but the latter had the science, and with the exception of the first five minutes Munroe was on the defensive. His great strength enabled him to break many dangerous holds, but as fast as he could wriggle out of one he was locked in another. At no time during the contest was Parker in danger of being thrown.

After the referee rendered his decision Parker said he would like to meet every pugilist in the wrestling game, and said he would agree to throw all such wrestlers without a handicap.

CARTER MATCHED TO MEET WALCOTT

Patrons of pugilism in Boston will be given a great treat on the evening of Oct. 7. On that date, in the ring of the Criterion A. C., "Kid" Carter, the sturdy South Brooklyn light heavy-weight, will measure blows with "Joe" Walcott, the ebony-hued fellow and holder of the world's water-weight championship. According to the conditions covering the bout, it is scheduled for fifteen rounds, and the men are to meet at catch-weights. This latter condition will give Carter the advantage of about twenty-five pounds.

ROUND ONE WAS MARTIN'S FINISH

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 15.—Sam McVey, the husky colored fighter, called "Denver Ed" Martin down and out in the first round here last night. McVey had the upper hand from the start, and when he started at "Denver Ed" it was evident that Martin was in for a brief trip.

McVey is regarded as the only man capable of giving Jeffries an argument for his title.

DUFFEY COMING HOME.

Arthur Duffey, the marvellous American sprinter, who has the distinction of being the only man in the world who has run 100 yards in 9 3/4 seconds, called for home on the White Star liner Cymric last Friday. Duffey has been abroad a little over three months, and during that time he has succeeded in capturing a trunkful of trophies. In fact, he has been more successful on this trip to England than on any of his previous trips, and he has visited the home of King Edward three times. He won the English championship with ease in 10 seconds and lowered the record at several championship meetings.

GEORGE MONROE GETS BROKEN JAW

Fight with Jimmy Devine Brought to an Abrupt End by Referee Crowhurst in the Fourth Round.

(Special to The Evening World.) PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—The George Monroe-Jimmy Devine boxing match at the Southern Athletic Club came to an abrupt end in the fourth round last night. Referee Bert Crowhurst stopping the contest on account of Monroe's jaw being broken. The boys had boxed fast until the time of the accident, and the spectators were worked up to a pitch of excitement.

The pair had a great rally, swinging both hands, when Monroe suddenly stepped back and put his hand to his face. The referee saw there was something wrong, and told Devine to go back to his corner. Dr. O'Connor, the club physician, was called and a brief examination disclosed a clean break at the angle of the right jaw. Monroe was taken to St. Agnes's Hospital, and it will be at least a month before he will be able to return to the ring.

The contest was one of the best seen at the club until the accident happened, and Monroe had the better of each round except the first. Just before the bell rang at the end of the opening round Devine caught the New Yorker with a pretty swing on the point of the nose. Monroe took count eight and was stung on his feet when he arose.

MARTIN DUFFY AN EASY WINNER

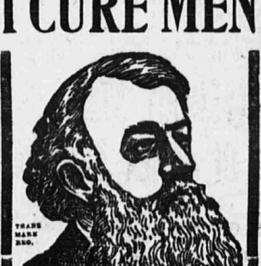

(Special to The Evening World.) KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 16.—After having gone to the floor repeatedly in a wild collection of punches headed any place from the belt to the top of the head, "Philadelphia Tommy" Ryan was saved a complete knockout by his seconds throwing up the towel within two seconds of the end of the eighth round at the Missouri Athletic Club last night. Martin Duffy, of Chicago, being given the decision by Referee Porteus.

The fight, if it may be called that, was one of the most unsatisfactory ever given by the Missouri Athletic Club. Judging from the exhibition given last night, Ryan has seen his best days in the ring. To all appearances he was in good condition, but he was slow and his blows lacked steam. At times he would show a brilliant dash of his old self, but in the instant following he would dive into almost amateurish tactics.

While the crowd yelled "Fakie" and blazed freely, the fight was not a put-up affair, or it would have been done more cleverly. Ryan did all that he could do, and it was disappointing, and while Duffy towered above his Philadelphia opponent in every point of the game, he, too, fell short of expectations.

Duffy was not in the best of condition, and realizing this, started in right at the going to make it a short affair, which is decidedly not his style of boxing. In the second round he had his larger opponent weaving about the ring, and it looked as though he had come, but the Chicagoan slowed down a bit, apparently to give the crowd a run for its money, and the bout went through nearly eight rounds, with the result always a foregone conclusion.
