

RICH MAN FACES BIGAMY CHARGE

Jules Stein, Head of Casket Trust, Sued by Two Women, One for Separation, the Other for Annulment of Marriage.

WIFE NO. 1 HAS TWO DAUGHTERS AND A SON.

In Affidavit Says She Learned of Husband's Alleged Second Marriage Through Newspaper Notice of Suit for Separation.

One wife and the mother of his three grown children charging him with bigamy as a suit for separation to be tried to-day in the Supreme Court...

Notice Amazes Wife No. 1. The second Mrs. Stein, who is seeking an annulment of her marriage, was Miss Edythe Johnson...

According to an affidavit of the first Mrs. Stein, she learned of what she terms her husband's "bigamous marriage" through a notice in a newspaper...

Received Only $15 Since 1902. The story of Mrs. Fannie Stein, as related in her complaint, is that she was abandoned in 1890 while living at the Hotel Emerson...

A BRIGHT IDEA. Japanese Military Suits for Boys. The newest, naggiest and most artistic conception in the line of boys' suits is an adaptation of the uniform of His Imperial Highness the Crown Prince "Yoshihito" of Japan.

The suits were designed by a well-known specialist and promise to attain enormous popularity. The imperial colors of red and gold lend artificiality with the naval red and white, and contrast strongly with their dark navy backgrounds.

THE BUSY SEASON IS APPROACHING. The volume of advertising in The World is increasing. There is no one who knows what World Wants cannot fill.

Over 60 advertising agencies and branch offices in the three cities where advertising men for The World are received at main office rooms.

NEW PLAY FULL OF COLOR.

Henry Miller Produces "Frederic Lemaitre" by Clyde Fitch.

"Frederic Lemaitre," the very colorful title of a one-act play by Clyde Fitch bubbling over with color—the shade local to Paris—gave Henry Miller the opportunity of providing to an appreciative audience at the Hudson Theatre last night the mental stimulus so badly lacking in the comedy it precedes.

Miss Kulp, who played the part of the stage-struck ingenue who left the actor's apartment under a shower of petals from the roses she had sent him previously—the audience could have guessed the playwright from this touch had Mr. Fitch's name been omitted from the programme—looked very charming, but there was something about her acting that suggested that Kulp might be her real name.

ACCIDENT DUE TO PLUMES ON HEARSE

Horses Attached to Wagon Take Fright and Run Away—Driver Thrown Off and Severely Injured.

Henry Fuller, sixty-two years old, a driver for the J. B. & J. M. Cornell Iron Company, was thrown from his wagon in a runaway accident to-day and badly injured.

William K. Vanderbilt, Jr., who never before has shown any of his horses at any horse show, will make his first appearance in the ring with his entire stable of high steppers at the Thirtieth Annual Horse Show of the Durand Riding Academy...
