WOMAN LEAPED INTO EAST RIVER. Susan Johnson's Attempt at Suicide Frustrated by Two Men Who Jumped into the Water and Rescued Her.

Susan Johnson, forty-five years old, leaped from the East River at the foot of Colburn street late this afternoon. Her attempt at suicide was frustrated by John Oakley, of No. 58 Front street, and Robert Moran, of No. 128 Division avenue, Brooklyn. They happened to be on the pier, they jumped into the water and rescued the struggling woman. She refused to give her address and was taken to Government hospital.

Countess Olga Landsdorff Produces the Documents in Her Suit for $50,000 Against Lawyer Franklin M. Olds.

Two hundred letters, written in German and English, and said to be filled with burning words of love, burdened the stenographer's notebook to-day in the United States Circuit Court room, where Judge Wallace presided. The trial of "Olga" Landsdorff's suit for $50,000 damages for alleged breach of promise against Franklin M. Olds, a wealthy lawyer, was begun in earnest.

Countess Olga Landsdorff, a niece of Baron de Newville, an aristocratic social favorite, is a young woman of striking appearance. Her hair, arranged in waving clusters about a fair, delicately featured face, is of a rich auburn color. Her eyes are large, deep brown and of a peculiar brilliance. The fair-haired plaintiff admitted on the witness stand at the preliminary hearing that she was twenty-five years old.

TAMMANY HALL GETS A SHOCK IN M'ADOO'S DEPUTY

Appointment by the Police Commissioner of Harris Lindsley to Succeed Cowan Causes Great Surprise, Because He Has Few Acquaintances Among Local Politicians.

APPOINTEE IS A LAWYER AND A LIEUTENANT IN 12TH REGIMENT.

He Served in the War with Spain as an Officer in the Sixth Volunteer Infantry—Mr. McAdoo Says He Had Good Training for His New Job in Police Department.

There was a great deal of surprise expressed in political circles this afternoon when it was announced that Police Commissioner McAdoo had appointed Harris Lindsley to serve as Third Deputy. Tammany men asked each other who Lindsley was and none of them could tell.

The new appointee is a young man and a Democrat. He was born in Nashville, Tenn., thirty-four years ago, has lived in New York five years, is a lawyer, a Lieutenant in the Twelfth Regiment, of which Cornelius Vanderbilt is a member, and a veteran of the war with Spain.

McAdoo says he is lucky. He considered himself lucky to get Mr. Lindsley. No open complaint was heard among the Tammany politicians who have been trying to get the place. They are disposed to give young Mr. Lindsley a chance to show what he can do.

This appointment was made, said the Commissioner, "without the intervention of any one. I knew Mr. Lindsley through mutual friends and decided to appoint him if he would accept the place, before anything was said to me about it. He has had good training for the place and will, I believe, prove to be an efficient deputy."

Comes of Good Stock. Mr. Lindsley was born in Nashville, Tenn., the father of New England stock, while his mother is of the well-known Tennessee family of Harrison. His grandfather, J. George Harrison, was pay director of the United States Navy.

After going through the schools of Nashville, Mr. Lindsley entered Princeton University, remaining two years and obtaining a certificate from the faculty. Then he entered the law school of Columbia University, taking a course of a year, after which he went to Washington, where he was graduated from the Columbia law school in 1891.

Volunteered in the War. He entered the law office of Webb & Webb, remaining until the outbreak of the war with Spain, when he was commissioned second lieutenant in the Sixth Volunteer Infantry, commanded by Col. Tyson and Lieut. Col. Rowan.

Companioned McAdoo. Mr. Lindsley took occasion to remark that he had never had an unkind word said to him by either Cowan or the retiring deputy leaves with his highest regard and best wishes. Mr. McAdoo was enthusiastic in declaring that Mr. Cowan's leaving had nothing to do with the "lid" or con-

NINE FAMILIES FLEE FROM FIRE

Panic in a Madison Avenue Apartment-House Caused by a Small Blaze in a Real Estate Office.

Fire started from some unknown cause in the real estate office of Sealer & Moore, at No. 189 Madison avenue, late this afternoon. Nine families live in the apartment-house over the store and the thick smoke so frightened them that within fifteen minutes the entire place was emptied.

The smoke poured in great volumes into the candy store of Mrs. Miriam Berman, at No. 189 Madison avenue, and Mrs. Berman was overcome. A woman found her unconscious on the floor of her shop and carried her out to safety. After a stubborn fight the flames were subdued. The damage was about $2,000.

LOST THE DIAMOND RING.

Rodgers Got It From Zussman, Who Had Him Arrested. John Rodgers, a Custom-House inspector, of No. 230 East Seventy-eighth street, was arrested to-day by Detective Sergeant Levinger, of the Central Office, on the complaint of Louis Zussman, a jeweler, of No. 54 East Broadway, who claimed that Rodgers stole a diamond ring from him.

Zussman said that on March 11, Rodgers took a ring from him in his shop. It was valued at $100. As often he asked for it so often was he put aside. Rodgers, who is a veteran of the Spanish war, and receives a pension of $18 a month for being blind four times, said that he lost the ring.

HEATHERBLOOM NOT SOLD. The report that Howard Willets, the millionaire horse show exhibitor, has sold Heatherbloom, the champion high jumper of the world, to a horseman in Virginia, is not true, says Harry Williams, the superintendent and trainer of Mr. Willets's horses. Williams says Mr. Willets has no intention of selling Heatherbloom.

Entry for Benning's races will be found on Page 5.
