ALL-NIGHT BATTLE GAVE JAPS VICTORY

They Stormed the Almost Impregnable Russian Position on Nanshan Hill in Charge Through Mines and Wire Entanglements and Against Batteries.

Defenses West of Taliwan Bay Have Already Been Swept Down, and the Mikado's Troops Are Pushing on to Port Arthur Without Check.

(By Associated Press.)

TOKIO, May 27—Noon.—The Japanese army swept the Russians from Kinchou last evening and in a desperate night attack stormed the almost impregnable position of the Russians at Nanshan Hill, west of Taliwan. The battle raged in the hills all through the night, and fragmentary telegrams from the Japanese headquarters report that the engagement is still in progress and that the Japanese are still pursuing the Russians south from Nanshan and the head of Taliwan Bay.

The Russians had made elaborate preparations to check the Japanese movement south on the Liaoting Peninsula toward Port Arthur. They had fortified the high ground on the south shore of Taliwan Bay.

Manquang, a stronghold of the Russians, was taken later after a hot fight.

An artillery duel continues to-day.

The extreme Russian right was at Hushangtao and the extreme left at Nanshan Hill. This hill was the strongest part of the line; a series of batteries, strongly emplaced, crowned its crest, while rifle pits extended around its sides. Mines had been placed lower down on this hill and around the base on the northern and eastern sides were stretched well-made wire entanglements. Another line of defenses, also protected with wire entanglements, extended from Yen Chia Tung, near the head of Taliwan Bay, due north of Liuchia Tien, which lies south of Kinchou.

RUSSIANS HAD STRONG FORCE.

A strong Russian force was posted at Kinchou. It consisted of infantry and artillery.

The Japanese first occupied the line of hills to the east of Kinchou. Their position had formed an almost perfect right angle, showing its southern front to Taliwan and its western front to Kinchou. Chiu Lichan hested at Chen Cha Tien, which is almost due north of Chiu Lichan, while the extreme left was at Chaitshuo, a village due east of Chiu Lichan. The extreme right was at Chaitshuo, a village due east of Chiu Lichan. Back of this angle the attacking force assembled in complete security.

The Russians apparently attempted to draw the Japanese attack last Saturday, for their batteries opened fire slowly on the enemy on that day. The Japanese, however, refused to be drawn into an attack until the positions of the Russians, their guns and their strength had been fully developed. To this end the Japanese began a series of careful manoeuvres, their officers working their way close enough to the Russian position to draw the enemy's fire. They thus secured fragments of shells for the purpose of ascertaining the calibre of the Russian guns.

They discovered that the batteries on Nanshan Hill included four Howitzers of about 15 centimetres' calibre, ten old-style cannons of between 9

MANY GIRLS IN PANIC IN A SKIRT FACTORY.

Insulation Burned from the Wire Connection of an Electric Motor and the Employees Were Greatly Alarmed.

There was a panic in the skirt factory of M. & I. Cohen, on the third floor of No. 80 Grand street, late this afternoon, which was due to an electric motor, which operates part of the machinery, getting a "hot box," burning off the insulation on an armature, causing a display of flames, which frightened the twenty-five girls employed there. One of the girls, Fannie Epstein, a forewoman, fainted at the sight of the flames and fell to the floor, near the motor, which was inclosed in a wooden box.

About a dozen of the girls made for the elevator and almost before they had been piled in the hallway waiting to be taken to one of the upper floors. They were thrown quickly out of the way by Vance Drexel, an athlete known as the "Brooklyn Ajax," who picked them up as they were handboxes and tossed them into the street.

Miss Epstein, the forewoman, fainted. She was carried down the stairs by Emanuel Rosenberg, the bookkeeper. She was uninjured. While the excitement lasted Moe Greenberg, of No. 1-2 Allen street, a sixteen-year-old boy employed in a saloon, and who is known as a "buff" because he does chores for the members of Hook and Ladder Company No. 6, and on that account wears a badge with the word "Buff" on it, worked alone at the fire, and by the time the firemen reached the building had the door unlocked, which is a seven-story

WHEN GIANTS TIED SCORE IN FIFTH.

GIANTS TIED FOR LEAD.

By winning from the Brooklynians again to-day, the Giants jumped into the lead in the pennant race, but share first place with the Chicago, who beat the St. Louis Browns. The Cincinnati lost to Pittsburgh and have dropped back to third place.
