

SEEKING WORK IN VAIN, WIFE DIES

Mrs. Emma Reill, Unable to Pay for Room in Boarding-House, Tries for Several Days to Obtain Employment.

Mrs. Emma Reill, a young and modest woman, who walked the streets looking for employment until she was exhausted after she and her husband had been rendered homeless because they were unable to pay for their room in a boarding-house at No. 171 Duffield street, Brooklyn, lies dead to-day in the landlady's home.

Ten days ago Mrs. Reill went to the Long Island college hospital to be treated for a weak heart. While she was in the hospital her husband, who was behind in his rent, was obliged to give up their room in Mrs. O'Brien's house.

Mrs. Reill left the hospital Wednesday and went back to her boarding-house expecting to find her husband there. She was informed that he had left. Mrs. O'Brien gave her her meals during the day and allowed her to sleep in her room for the night.

Men's hand-tailored blue serge suits Saturday at $10

BLUE SERGE is still the most popular suit for Summer wear, and especially for outing purposes. We've planned a blue serge suit with the sole thought of making our clothing department the most-talked-of section of its kind in New York, and even though you do not care to buy a serge suit at present we'd like to have you see these suits because they'll surely impress you as being the handsomest and best suits ever offered for the price. They are tailored as well as made-to-measure suits.

Men's blue serge suits, $10. WE guarantee these blue serge suits. There are so many blue serge suits of the non-descript order that fade, crock and pull, that we do not want you to associate these suits with the ordinary creations sold for $10.

These blue serge suits are warranted fast colors—made of very fine grade of worsted serge, either in double or single breasted styles; trousers have the belt loops, so as to avoid the necessity of suspenders, and just imagine this blue serge suit with a white-pleated shirt, belt and straw hat; you couldn't be dressed better for the Summer if you had a $35 outfit.

The workmanship is the very finest—they are worthy of Simpson Crawford Co.'s label in every respect—only 250 of these splendid suits for Saturday—33 to 46 chest—at $10.

$10 for men's $15 suits. Another 200 lot of men's $15.00, suits that created such a great furor last Saturday will be ready for you to-morrow.

These exceptional values are the outcome of a recent purchase from a manufacturer who was forced to make a sacrifice because of the backward season.

IN THE face of our prices and the handsome dresses one can ill afford to have graduation dresses made to order. Impossible for any dressmaker to give the exclusive fashion touch of our creations—besides the prices in many instances are lower than they would charge for the bare making. You'll certainly appreciate this argument when you've seen our showing.

Practical parents make this store buying headquarters for girls' and misses' apparel—experience has taught them it is possible to save money and besides secure something that is above the ordinary creations designed for girls and misses.

2.95 for misses' white shirt waist suits of fine sheer lawn; waist hamstitched and tucked; skirt has deep hem and tucks; sizes 14 and 16.

5.75 for girls' fine lawn dresses; waist trimmed with fine needlework and tucks; skirt has 5-inch hem and tucks; extra full

2.75 for girls' $5 white organdie dresses, one piece; waist made with large bertha; trimmed with Val. lace and baby ribbon; sizes 6 to 14.

Just 5,000 men's 1.50 negligee shirts at 65c

HERE are your Decoration Day shirts—at about half price—those new smart effects that will be worn by all up-to-date dressers this year. We consider it the greatest negligee bargain treat we've ever offered, and so will you, too.

These shirts are as well as hot weather relief in these shirts, and you'll be just as proud of them as though you went to an exclusive haberdasher's and paid $1.50 or even $2. for they are not ordinary shirts.

We had a chance to secure several thousand yards of high-priced materials—all in short lengths and the handsomest patterns you ever saw—at a price phenomenally low. We took them to a manufacturer and had them made up according to the latest styles. Because this is the dull season for him he conceded just half the regular price for his best workmanship.

There are various weaves and makes of plain, plaited negligee styles—imported and domestic madras and printed feather-weight cottons—dark and light effects or white—cuffs attached or separate.

Saturday—great sale of $1.25 pajamas at 75c.

WHAT do you think of this for a remarkable bargain—nothing like cool madras pajamas for Summer wear, and here's an opportunity to secure your season's supply at about half—only for Saturday—it's there or never.

100 doz. men's summer weight woven madras pajamas—superior quality goods, military cut, pearl buttons, side opening, desirable patterns—blue, tan and black with white stripes, &c., light and dark colorings—made to sell at 1.25, at 75c.

Men's high grade Summer underwear at 39c and 50c THIS Saturday sale represents the best values in Summer underwear for men. In fact prices are as low as many stores ask for like qualities in August. It's obvious you'll want a season's supply at 39c, 50c or 75c.

39c for men's 59c, good quality Balbriggan shirts and drawers.

50c for men's $1 Japanese cowweb crepe shirts and drawers.

50c for men's 75c, and $1 Sea Island cotton shirts and drawers.

INVENTOR STRICKEN SHOOTS HIMSELF

Henry M. Livor, Suffering from Apoplectic Stroke, Dies in the Presence of His Wife—Daughter Not Told of Suicide.

Henry M. Livor, an inventor, who shot and killed himself to-day in his home, at No. 102 West One Hundred and Thirtieth street, presumably because he was stricken with apoplexy two weeks ago and had been unable to complete the invention of an electrical water filter.

Livor, who was fifty-six years old, had conducted a prosperous machinery business, but retired to work on his inventions. For several years he had been working on the filtration of water by means of an electrical current. He induced a promoter to advance money on the invention and everything was going nicely when Livor was stricken, and the promoter withdrew his support.

He was in his bed to-day when she asked his wife to get him a glass of water. She had hardly stepped from the room when she heard a noise and returned to find her husband sitting on the edge of the bed with a revolver in his hand and a bullet wound in his head.

"Well, Mary, I've done it at last," he said, and fell over on the bed. He was dead before Dr. Wren arrived with an ambulance from the J. Hood Wright Hospital.

Livor's eighteen-year-old daughter was in the house at the time, but she was ignorant of her father's suicide. When the ambulance arrived she was simply told that her father had suffered another apoplectic stroke. She was taken to her room. Besides the daughter, Livor had two sons, who are in business in Massachusetts.

TEETH ACHE; CUT WRISTS. Young Man Needs to Death from Self-Inflicted Wounds. Edward Anderson, a young salesman, of No. 510 Canal street, committed suicide to-day by cutting the veins in his wrists. Anderson was employed by a downtown firm and had had no trouble.

He went to bed last night with a bad toothache, and when he failed to get up to-day his father broke in the door of his room and found him dead in bed.
