

FIRE DETESTS MAY MOUNT TO 10

Two More Victims of Fatal Attorney Street Tenement Blaze Declared at Hospital to Be Past Recovery.

THREE UNDER ARREST REMANDED TO CORONER.

They Are the Owner and Lessee of the Firetrap and the Contractor Who Had Charge of the Alterations.

It is probable that of the twelve persons injured in the Attorney street tenement-house fire yesterday at least two will die. The number of dead already is fourteen. The two injured, who are in an extremely critical condition, are John Adamovsky, fireman of Engine No. 11, who suffered fractures of both legs, his right hip and general contusions of his body as the result of a fall with the fire-escape on the fifth floor, and Fecha Zwirn, forty-eight years old, one of the tenants, who was severely burned in addition to injuries caused by jumping.

Boy Victim Identified.

The last of the dead, a fourteen-year-old boy, horribly burned about the face and head, who was taken to Bellevue yesterday, was identified to-day as Morris Kutner by his father, of the same name.

Leon Sobel, of No. 68 Edgecombe avenue; shortly after the fire, of No. 112 Canton street, and Henry Breitman, of No. 41 East Seventy-ninth street, respectively the owner, lessee and contractor of the alterations of the tenement at No. 164 Attorney street, appeared through their counsel, Henry Unger, before Magistrate Wulman in Essex Market Court to-day and were remanded to Coroner Schooner. All have been under bail since yesterday.

A corrected list of the dead, including the last identification, follows: EICHLER, Mrs. ROSA, twenty-three years old. EICHLER, REBECCA, her daughter, three months. FEUERBERG, Mrs. SARAH, forty-six years. FEUERBERG, ANNIE, eight years. FEUERBERG, MINNIE, five years. FEUERBERG, HEKMAN, three years. KIRSCHNER, JACOB, forty-two years. KIRSCHNER, SARAH, nineteen years. KIRSCHNER, MORRIS, fourteen years. MILLER, Mrs. YETTA, thirty-five years. MILLER, JOSEPH, fourteen years. MILLER, ISAAC, twelve years. MILLER, SARAH, nine years. MILLER, YETTA, seven years.

The injured tenants, so far as the police and hospital records can be reconciled, are as follows: BARR, JACOB, twenty-six years old, contusions from jumping three stories, at Gouverneur Hospital, will recover. KIRSCHNER, JACOB, forty-two, feet burned, at Gouverneur; may recover. KIRSCHNER, SOLOMON, seven, burns, Bellevue. KIRSCHNER, NATHAN, four, burns; Bellevue. KIRSCHNER, KATIE, twelve, burned; Bellevue. ROMEINER, UDEL, forty, reported dangerously burned, not at Bellevue, at Gouverneur; alterations reported to have been cared for by relatives. EVIDER, ISIDORE, forty-eight, injured by fall from fire-escape and badly burned, at Bellevue; will probably die. The injured firemen are: ADAMOVSKY, JOHN, twenty-three, of Engine No. 11, both legs fractured, fractured hip and general contusions of the body, will probably die; at Gouverneur. BENSCH, WILLIAM, twenty-five, Engine No. 11, contusions of head and thigh; at Gouverneur; will recover. BLOOM, PHILIP, twenty-two, neck No. 11, wounds of head and body; taken to truck house. LIENHATER, BERNARD, Engine No. 11, overcome by smoke; recovered. WHITE, JOHN, Engine No. 11, contusions; treated at Gouverneur Hospital and returned to work.

WAR GAME BEGINS UNDER NIGHT COVER

Gen. Bell, Commanding the "Brown" Army, Expected to Attack Grant's "Blues" in First Skirmish.

CORPS HEADQUARTERS, GAINESVILLE, Va., Sept. 5.—How hostilities are to begin at midnight to-night is the prevailing discussion among the military observers at headquarters. The belief is entertained that the "brown" army under Gen. Bell, charged with the duty of holding Thoroughfare Gap, will assume the aggressive, move rapidly toward Manassas and frustrate if possible the advance of the "blue" under Gen. Grant.

THREE BURGLAR SUSPECTS CAUGHT

House-Breakers Try to Get Into Empire Express Company's Rooms in Brooklyn—Watchman Telephones to Police.

Edward King, a watchman employed by the Empire Express Company, at No. 202 Fulton street, Brooklyn, heard some one trying to break in the front door of that office to-day, and went to the telephone to notify the police. From the sounds King learned there were three men in the party. While he was at the telephone they went around the building, climbed a couple of fences and got to the back door. They heard his telephoning the police and jumped the fence. They escaped.

Shortly afterward a policeman saw three men at Cranberry and Fulton streets and arrested them on suspicion. They gave their names as James Hill, seventeen, of No. 84 Fulton street; Daniel O'Grady, twenty-three, of the same address, and William Flynn, of No. 16 First street.

FALLS OVERBOARD FROM FERRY-BOAT

Man on Shore Sees Tumble Into Water Near Slip—Passenger Believed to Be Joseph Westel—Body Not Found.

The police of Astoria are dragging the river to-day for the body of Joseph Westel, of No. 1360 Avenue A, believing him to be the man who either fell or jumped last night from the ferry-boat Bowery Bay, as she was making the slip on the other side of the river. Some mystery clings to the disappearance of the man, as no one on the deck of the boat saw him leave the dock or strike the water.

VEGETABLE PLAY IS WELL LIKED

"Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch" Gets a Hearty Welcome at the Hands of Blase Broadwayites.

NOT MUCH OF A PIECE, BUT QUIANT AND DROLL.

Helen Lowell Scores the Hit of the Performance as Miss Hazy, and Will T. Hodge Is Capital as Stubbins.

Hail the vegetable play! We've had the b'gown drama in all its phases, from the universal towel to the double quartet, we've had the 'way-down-Easter, with its fearful change in the weather the minute the wrongly suspected heroine is turned out-of-doors; we've had the codfish play, with its thunder-and-lightning trimmings; and we've had various libels on the life less active than that of our strenuous President, but we've never had anything quite so quaint and droll down-in-the-dirt as "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," which caused an immensely amused audience to forget its troubles and almost the heat at the Savoy Theatre on Saturday night. This rehab, by Anna Crawford Plesner, of Alice Hagan Rice's stories of the side-tracked South, isn't a play, it's a change—one of the most welcome changes that has come to the jaded theatre-goer in many a day. The characters strike such a vigorous gait that the "plot" is left limping along far in the rear most of the time. But there's heart interest in plenty and enough human nature to last through a hard winter. The weeds which grow in "The Cabbage Patch" are filled with the milk of human kindness. And hailing "Mrs. Wiggs" let us

FRANKO TO CONDUCT.

Conried Announces His Association with Hertz and Vigna. Nahan Franko, the violinist, for many years concert master of the Metropolitan Opera-house orchestra, will join the conductors at the opera-house at the opening of the musical season. Manager Conried said yesterday that Mr. Franko would co-operate with Alfred Hertz and Mr. Vigna, the conductors of a year ago, and would direct the orchestra for not only German but French and Italian operatic performances.

BELASCO'S REOPENS.

Henrietta Crossman Returns in "Sweet Kitty Bellairs." Belasco's Theatre began its season on Saturday night with Miss Henrietta Crossman in "Sweet Kitty Bellairs," resuming her brilliant run of last season. The performance was, of course, a highly artistic one and the audience large and fashionable. Mrs. Crossman was cordially received and was given several curtain calls. The engagement is for but three weeks when David Warfield is to appear there in Mr. Belasco's latest production, "The Music Master."

JAMES BUTLER 132 GROCERY STORES. Seasonable Cent-Savers. For the first half of the week we present some money-savers, which are always seasonable, more especially now, when so many things must be cleaned and put in order at the close of the school holidays. Some are fortunate enough to be able to ignore these small economies. Others, unfortunately, affect to despise them. Most of us, however, believe with wise old Ben Franklin that "saving the pennies makes the dollars fast," and that "he who buys by the penny maintains not only himself but other people." The sensible, frugal housekeeper will welcome these special offers and lay in a stock of the "cleansers." For her also we shed some bright economical sidelights on the ever-present problem—what to eat and drink. In spite of our low profit-shorn prices, we continue the free gift to every customer of Double "S. & H." Trading Stamps. For every 10 cents paid over the counter two green trading stamps are given. They cost you nothing and bring you something worth having. Butler's Best Borax Soap, Triumph Floating Soap, 10c. Your choice of 3 cakes of either for 2c. Handy Ironing Wax, 1c. With Handle.
