CHURCH LOOTED BY ROBBER BAND

Burglars Force Their Way Into the Lexington Avenue Baptist Church and Destroy Prayer Books and Pews.

Some time Sunday night after the services in the Lexington Avenue Baptist Church, which is at the corner of One Hundred and Eleventh street, a gang of burglars entered the building by breaking a stained glass window...

The robbery was discovered Monday morning by the sexton, Miles Dilon. When he opened the church and saw the confusion everywhere he made an investigation. The water in a kitchen back of the church had been turned on and the place was flooded. What the thieves could not carry away they had destroyed. Such wholesale vandalism has not marked a robbery in this city in years.

M'CAULEY'S BAIL IS FORFEITED

Former President of the International Mercantile Agency Fails to Appear in Court When Case is Called.

When the case of Thomas N. McCauley, accused of grand larceny in connection with the affairs of the International Mercantile Agency, of which he was formerly President, was called in the Court of Special Sessions this afternoon McCauley failed to appear. His bail bond of $5,000 was forfeited.

McCaughey was arrested last month on a warrant issued in Canada on complaint of a man named Woods, who asserted that he invested $5,000 in the International Mercantile Agency and lost his money. Subsequent to this arrest other charges were preferred against McCauley by the District-Attorney's office.

"I see no reason why Mr. McCauley should not be present," explained Mr. House. "His counsel have assured him all along that he could be held as a result of this examination. We are embarrassed by the non-appearance of the defendant. Maybe he is ill."

"So ill he cannot communicate with his counsel," inquired Mr. Garvan, essentially. "The circumstances under which this $5,000 bail bond was given. At that time his three joint counsel stated that they would be responsible for the production of McCauley in this court. It was satisfied that the consciousness of guilt would not keep the defendant within the jurisdiction of the court, but I did rely upon the assurances of these three gentlemen. I am informed that they knew last Thursday that he had flown."

"As honest men they should have brought these facts to the knowledge of the District-Attorney, and not, by remaining quiet, allow this defendant to escape. I understand that McCauley since the day of his arrest has raised $100,000 by mortgaging his property in Chicago, and this despite the fact that these three gentlemen were responsible for his appearance."

"I regard the assertions of the Assistant District-Attorney as impertinent and unwarranted," complained Mr. House. "While he might feel called upon to attack me I can see no reason why he should attack his former associate, Mr. Schurman. I desire to call the attention of the Court to the fact that while Thomas McCauley was on parole in this court he put in an appearance whenever he was called upon."

The Court smoothed out the argument by reminding Mr. Baldwin that Mr. Garvan made the statement on information that he declared McCauley's bond of $5,000 to be forfeited, adding that if the defendant is produced in court to-morrow the forfeiture will be withdrawn.

'FATTY' GROTE DEAD FROM FOOT WOUND

Well-Known Politician Stepped on Broken Bottle and Deffered Medical Treatment Until His Case Was Hopeless.

William F. Grote, better known as "Fatty" Grote because of his great weight and one of the prominent figures in east side politics, died to-day in Bellevue Hospital from erysipelas resulting from an accident in his home at No. 43 East Houston street last Thursday.

Just after his return from the Democratic Convention at Saratoga he stepped on a broken bottle, and the glass penetrated his foot. He thought he had removed all of the fragments, but next day his foot began to swell. He wanted to call a doctor, but he disregarded the wound; and when he did consent to have a physician, three days later, he insisted on having only his family physician, Dr. Henry M. Groshel, of No. 275 Hivington street.

Dr. Groshel was then in the country and could not be summoned until Monday. When he saw the condition of the foot he told Mr. Grote he would have to go to the hospital, and he was removed there Monday in a private ambulance. It was too late to save his life, and he died this afternoon.

The Bellevue surgeon said that if Mr. Grote had had medical treatment earlier his life could have been saved. "Fatty" Grote, under his nickname of "Fatty" was known to hosts of friends and political acquaintances in the city. He was a prominent member of the old County Democratic and more recently of the Greater New York Democratic Party. He was a close friend of John C. Sheehan, Mayor of the city, and was a member of the board of both political organizations in his district, the sixteenth Assembly and the city council.

Mayor Love appointed him an inspector of highways, but he lost that place on Jan. 1 with the change of administration. Mr. Grote leaves a widow and eight children. The funeral will be held on Monday, the burial being in the Lutheran Cemetery at Middle Village, L. I. Mr. Grote was in the liquor business until five years ago, when he gave it up, and had since been in the real estate line.

Capt. McNally of the Church street station, and his detectives raided an alleged pool room at No. 63 Dey street this afternoon on warrants issued by Magistrate Mayo in the Tombs Court.

Five prisoners were taken in the raid, among them Bernard Thomas, of No. 64 East One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street, who is alleged to be the proprietor of the place. The other prisoners are Edward Burger, a clerk, of No. 246 Third avenue; Charles Pierce, of No. 129 East Eighty-fourth street; Joseph Hines, of No. 208 West One Hundred and Thirtieth street; and Thomas Brown, of No. 41 West Thirty-ninth street.

They were charged with aiding and abetting in the conduct of a pool-room. The police effected an entrance with an axe, Capt. McNally swung the axe and cut his hand while breaking in the door. On the door was painted: "Porto Rico Tea and Coffee Exchange."

Two of Capt. McNally's detectives were inside the place when the raid was made. The prisoners were arraigned in the Tombs Court later and held for examination to-morrow morning.

John Maknucki and John Busba are believed to be fatally injured. Both were horribly burned and lacerated about the face and body.

(Special to The Evening World.) AMERICAN LEAGUE PARK, Sept. 28.—Columbia played horse with Franklin and Marshall in the game at American League Park this afternoon, defeating the Pennsylvanians by a score of 28 to 0 in halves of 15 and 10 minutes respectively. The Columbia attack was splendidly fast and even complete substitute line had an easy time with the players from the Keystone State. Capt. Stangland and Sam Smyth distinguished themselves by long runs of 50 and 60 yards each for touchdowns. Morley tried out nearly thirty men in the game.

FIRST HALF. Columbia won the toss, taking the south goal. Donovan ran the ball back to nearly midfield and Duell and Buell crashed through the F. and M. line as if it were paper. A hurdle by Buell gained ten yards. Duell put the ball on the F. and M. 25-yard line. Columbia was tearing off five yards at a clip. Duell and Fisher put the ball on the 5-yard line. Stangland scored on a guard kick. Score—Columbia, 5; F. and M., 0.

Duell failed at goal. Time—1 minute. Donovan again put the leather on the kick-off and ran the ball back 25 yards to the 25-yard line. Duell gained ten yards between Mann and Dilgrated. Duell put the ball on the center line. Duell grabbed off 10 yards through Mann. Fisher got one in the pit of the stomach and Linden took his place. Linden gained six yards through Cronin. Duell was rained by the Blue.

Duell carried the ball three times running and scored. Score—COLUMBIA, 15; F. AND M., 0.

Stangland kicked off for Columbia to Henrich, who carried it back to the twenty-five yard line. Two lines of the Columbia line netted five yards' loss and Stangland punted weakly to Donovan. Duell carried the ball to the 25-yard line to F. and M.'s thirty-six-yard line. Stangland twice carried the ball, running the yards for touchdowns. COLUMBIA, 15; F. AND M., 0.

Duell failed at goal. Donovan, who was hurt, fumbled the kick off and the ball ended with F. and M. holding the ball at her twenty-yard line. Score—COLUMBIA, 15; F. AND M., 0.
