

HER MANNY HE SAYS "NIT"

Minnie Silberstein Still Against Hope that Her Lawyer Will Come to Her and Be Happy.

"SEE AND GLAD,"
HIS STERN COMMENT.

Remonstrated Her to Essex Court and Says He is of Her, but Her Ardor is Unchanged.

Minnie Silberstein still loves her Not even his dragging her from Market Court on a summons quelled the yearning of her heart. Lawyer Emanuel I. Sil-berstein declares that his romance is refuses to revive it.

Minnie Silberstein is with her parents East Third street. She says her husband is holding her clothes.
"He is a head taller than I," she said. "Evening World reporter today is ten years older. I nursed him through a six-weeks' illness being misled by his parents and the match at the start, months ago.

Parents threatened to break up if we ever had one and they have succeeded. Manny's parents are all Hungarians. My parents are all Germans. That was the trouble.
My father's girls against my mother's nationality.

Had All the Furniture.
I was at the house of my father half an hour Manny moved out of our home, even had just risen from. This day morning, Oct. 8. That I went to my home with muel Singerman, who brought me to the house, and with his sister, and with my mother she tried to adjust matters.

When hour Manny promised to ack my clothes. My husband had in writing to pay me $12 this I accepted after he had t from the house as I wanted notoriety. When I called at Monday, as arranged, I was out and then served with a summons. But I could not wrong if Manny loved me.

No Marriage Portion.
I thought that I went to Manny for marriage portion. I thought me. He said, "Now that the has been thrown out of court of the large band of relatives ought as witnesses against me that Manny will come to me."

When Silberstein visits the office orney she rides past the floor her husband is located to office from which he moved ago. She hopes that she him in the elevator, and his eyes she will find the old her.

When Silberstein is obdurate, lawyer to the charge that he never his promise of $12 weekly he is going her way and I courts will have to settle. I way, free, and I am glad. I of her; that is why I got ons. The judge lectured her way from me. I have counsel to discuss my case further."

BUILDER M'DONALD SHOWING MR. VREELAND HOW IT WAS DONE

MR. M'DONALD AND MR. VREELAND

Here is a photograph of John B. Mc-Donald, builder of the Subway, showing President H. H. Vreeland, of the Metropolitan Street Railway Company, how it was done. They have just emerged from the big ditch after making the trip to One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street in fourteen minutes.

Mr. Vreeland never believed that the Subway was practical, and his company did not even bid for the concession from the city. He looks very glum while Mr.
McDonald, who made good his boast of "Harlem in Fifteen Minutes," is smiling with much satisfaction at the other's apparent discomfiture.

SKULL FRACTURED, PUT IN PRISON WARD

Operation Deferred for Sixteen Hours in Case of Bellevue Hospital Patient Resulted in His Death—Autopsy To-Day.

An autopsy upon the body of James J. Martin, thirty-two years old, of No.
27 East Twenty-fifth street, was performed at the Morgue to-day by Coroner's Physician Schultze. It showed, according to Dr. Schultze, that Martin had an extensive fracture at the base of the skull, but that he was alcoholic as well.

Martin was found lying on the sidewalk at Twentieth street and Third avenue, by Policeman Hanley, of the East Twenty-second street station, Sunday morning. Witnesses, whose names the police refuse to give, say they saw him fall from a lamppost against which he had been leaning. Dr. Endworn took him to Bellevue and his case was diagnosed as alcoholism. He was sent to the prison ward. Yesterday afternoon, sixteen hours later, his condition became such that he was removed to a surgical ward, and an operation for trepaning was performed last night.

Martin died an hour later.

It was first reported that Martin had been drugged, and the police made an investigation along that line, but Capt.
Gallagher said to-day he had given up that theory. Martin's parents, whose sole support he was, were secretive about the case when information was sought from them to-day, and had evidently told the other tenants in the house to say nothing about their son's death.

TROOPS GUARD WORKMEN.

Riot Proclamation Withdrawn at Little Falls but Militia on Duty.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 18.—The workmen employed by the Richfield Springs and Oneonta Railroad continued work on the connection with the Valley line to-day under guard of soldiers.

The Sheriff's proclamation of yesterday declaring the village in a state of riot has been withdrawn and the saloons were opened as usual.

KILLS RIVAL IN ROW OVER WOMAN

After Firing Fatal Shot at Colored Waiter, Rigger Breaks Through Crowd, but is Caught by Detectives.

Jesse Pittman, a rigger, living at No.
360 West Thirty-ninth street, was arraigned in Jefferson Market Court today charged with having shot and killed George Johnson, a colored waiter, of No. 340 West Thirty-eighth street.

It is said that Johnson and Pittman had a quarrel over Georgiana Close, a negress, living at No. 340 West Thirty-eighth street, whose impartiality in distributing her favors between the two men had caused jealousy between them.
Pittman, after he had fired the fatal shot, desperately broke through a large crowd of white and colored men whom the shooting had attracted, and ran to his home, where he was arrested by three detectives.
He says he killed Johnson in self-defense.

HER DEATH STARTS INQUIRY.

Doctor Asks Coroner to Take Up Denial of Woman.

Capt. Nally, of the West One Hundredth street station, has begun an investigation into the death of Mrs.
Emma Stroub, of No. 144 West Nineteenth street, who died last night.

The physician who attended the woman notified the Coroner that an inquiry should be made, though there is no real mystery in the cause of death.
The woman was the mother of five children. The police are searching for a midwife.
