

AL ADAMS'S SON GOES TO PRISON

Young Man Who Sought to Shoot Policy King Taken to Blackwell's Island to Serve Sentence of Six Months.

VERY REPENTANT, BUT RAILS AT HIS FRIENDS.

Declares He Has No Recollection of Incident in Father's Office, and Says Whole Thing Was Due to Drink.

Still bearing the assumed name of Louis Anderson, freely expressing his repentance and regret for the attack on his father, and discouraged because he had been deserted by his friends, Louis Adams, the son of "Al" Adams, former policy king, was today removed to Blackwell's Island.

The young man was committed to the island for six months by Magistrate Barlow in default of $1,000 bail. He was arrested for an attack upon his father on Tuesday night and charged with disorderly conduct.

Young Adams arrived at the foot of East Twenty-sixth street, on the Charlities and Correction pier, in the regular prison van, and was taken immediately aboard the Correction Department boat Minnehannock.

Several other prisoners were with him in the van, and young Adams plainly showed his disgust at being in such company, as the prisoners were mostly vagrants, very dirty and uncouth.

Met Friend of Youth. As he was crossing the gangplank he met Michael J. Burke, mate of the steamer, Burke and Adams have known each other for years, having been schoolmates and playmates together in boyhood.

"Hello, Mike," said Adams, "it's tough meeting under such circumstances. I never thought it would come to this."

The mate tried to cheer him up, and gave him some kindly advice.

Adams was locked up in the cell about the steamer along with the other prisoners. His linen was soiled, his face was covered with a week's growth of beard and he presented a general unkempt and disheveled appearance.

Regarding his arrest and sentence the young man talked freely. He said that he had no lucid recollection of what happened in his father's office the night he is said to have attempted to shoot him.

"I was drunk," continued the young man, "that is the only thing I can account for. I am sure that I never intended to harm my father."

He said also that he had been on a four weeks' drunk and that this was the result of it. "It would have been a sad awakening for me," he declared, "if in that condition I should have tried my revolver."

All Due to Drink. He laid all his disgrace and trouble to drink, and said that it was a terrible lesson for him, and one he should profit by in the future.

Regarding his sentence he said: "I have no kick coming. I am going to take my medicine and stand for it. I am surprised, though, at my friends, and that they have done nothing to get me out of this scrape. I have been a friend of theirs and I was sure that they would come to my aid, but not one of them has done so in any way."

He explained that the reason he gave the name of Anderson and was taken to the island under that name was to protect his wife and baby. He was committed to the island under the name of Louis Anderson, of No. 529 West One Hundred and Eleventh street.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

'BOSH,' SAYS JUDGE TO AUTOIST'S PLEA

Magistrate Crane Asserts on the Bench the More Chauffeurs Drink the More Automobileists Like Them.

"Bosh! This is the kind of a chauffeur the automobilists like. The more they drink the better they like them."

Magistrate Crane said that in the Harlem Court to-day as he pointed at Joseph Knott, a chauffeur in the employ of one of the members of the Tiffany family, whom he fined $10 for reckless driving.

The plea was made to the Court by Theodore S. Toney and several of Knott's friends that if the man was convicted his employer would surely dismiss him from his service. That the Magistrate didn't take any stock in this he demonstrated by characterizing it as bosh.

Toney, who is a wealthy stone man, was the victim yesterday morning of Knott's wild driving in his employer's auto, which Knott had taken from its garage without permission. Knott was intoxicated and drove his automobile into Mr. Toney's buggy at the corner of One Hundred and Twelfth street and Broadway. Toney and his driver, Dan Caffery, were thrown into the street and the horse ran away, endangering the lives of pedestrians. When Knott was arraigned in court shortly afterward Magistrate Mayo refused to hear the case because the defendant, he said, was too drunk.

Knott was sober to-day and penitent. He had played upon the sympathies of Toney, who was willing to forgive him. Knott said he was not a drinking man, but had been induced to drink by three companions whom he had taken out for a ride in his master's machine.

Other prisoners were with him in the van, and young Adams plainly showed his disgust at being in such company, as the prisoners were mostly vagrants, very dirty and uncouth.

Met Friend of Youth. As he was crossing the gangplank he met Michael J. Burke, mate of the steamer, Burke and Adams have known each other for years, having been schoolmates and playmates together in boyhood.

"Hello, Mike," said Adams, "it's tough meeting under such circumstances. I never thought it would come to this."

The mate tried to cheer him up, and gave him some kindly advice.

Adams was locked up in the cell about the steamer along with the other prisoners. His linen was soiled, his face was covered with a week's growth of beard and he presented a general unkempt and disheveled appearance.

Regarding his arrest and sentence the young man talked freely. He said that he had no lucid recollection of what happened in his father's office the night he is said to have attempted to shoot him.

"I was drunk," continued the young man, "that is the only thing I can account for. I am sure that I never intended to harm my father."

He said also that he had been on a four weeks' drunk and that this was the result of it. "It would have been a sad awakening for me," he declared, "if in that condition I should have tried my revolver."

All Due to Drink. He laid all his disgrace and trouble to drink, and said that it was a terrible lesson for him, and one he should profit by in the future.

Regarding his sentence he said: "I have no kick coming. I am going to take my medicine and stand for it. I am surprised, though, at my friends, and that they have done nothing to get me out of this scrape. I have been a friend of theirs and I was sure that they would come to my aid, but not one of them has done so in any way."

He explained that the reason he gave the name of Anderson and was taken to the island under that name was to protect his wife and baby. He was committed to the island under the name of Louis Anderson, of No. 529 West One Hundred and Eleventh street.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

CREW HAD NARROW ESCAPE. NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 4.—The tugboat Elsie K., owned by James Kennedy, of New York, sank at the foot of Jersey street, this city, to-day just as she was about to start with a scow for sea. The engineer, William Moore, his fireman, Thomas Breen and the cook, Thomas Sullivan, had a narrow escape from drowning.

Mrs. ELIZABETH WHALON.

"I Need New Vitality."

When you feel exhausted—when you grow tired easily—when you lose patience with the little cares of daily life—when you feel that your hopes and ambitions are not as high as they used to be—when you spend a sleepless night—when you get up almost as weary as when you went to bed—when you feel "used up" most of the time.

These are all signs that your nerve forces are burning low.

You need the nerve strength and new vitality that Paine's Celery Compound will give you.

Paine's Celery Compound feeds new power to your nerves.

Nothing that is written or printed can give you any idea of the full luxury and delight of being always at your best, able to live your life for all there is in it.

You cannot understand it until you have once felt the exultant thrill of the abundant new nerve force made by Paine's Celery Compound.

Mrs. Elizabeth Whalon tells how she found "new vitality."

Wells & Richardson Co., Burlington, Vt. Gentlemen:—"For a woman in advanced years Paine's Celery Compound is an ideal tonic. My life has been full of burdens and cares. Rearing my family and caring for my home, with a few outside interests, occupied my time, and with much illness in my home my strength has been taxed to the utmost. I did not find any help until I took Paine's Celery Compound. It relieved the great strain on my nervous force and gave me such added force and vitality that the other members of my household used it, feeling greatly helped in time. Having used Paine's Celery Compound and being convinced of its medicinal value, I take pleasure in endorsing it."

Try Paine's Celery Compound to-day. Take three days' treatment.

See how much better you feel. See how much more easily the trials roll away.

For over 17 years Paine's Celery Compound has been the most universally used nerve vitalizer and tonic in the world.

Remember this—Paine's Celery Compound is the prescription of one of the most famous physicians this world has ever known, Prof. E. E. Phelps, of Dartmouth University.

All reputable druggists recommend and sell Paine's Celery Compound.

WELLS, RICHARDSON & CO., BURLINGTON, VERMONT.

Franklin Simon & Co.

Direct special attention to their Misses' Suits, copies of imported models, made of red or green chevrons and broadcloths, at moderate cost.

IMPORTANT SALE SATURDAY. (ON FOURTH FLOOR.) High Class Custom Tailored

Misses' and Girls' Winter Coats, 4 to 16 years, 9.75, 12.50, 15.75.

Boys' Clothing (First Floor.)

ETON, SAILOR AND RUSSIAN SUITS, of imported Serges, in plain colors; also Scotch tweed mixtures, 3 to 12 years. Heretofore $9.75 to $11.50. 5.75

NORFOLK SUITS, of imported woollens, with two pairs of Knickerbockers, 8 to 17 years. 6.75

OVERCOATS, exclusive models of navy blue or Oxford Vicuna Cloth, lined with gray or red flannel, 3 to 9 years. Regular price, $15.00. 9.75

Franklin Simon & Co.

Are now showing a large assortment of WOMEN'S FUR LINED COATS in Broadcloths, Velours and Black Silk, trimmed with Ermine, Beaver and Persian Lamb, at popular prices.

FOR SATURDAY

Women's Fur-Lined Coats

Copy of Francis model of imported cloth, in white, black and colors; large shawl collar of moleskin fur; coat square lined. 37.50

Regular price, $75.00 FIFTH AVE., 37th and 38th Sts.

The Wanamaker Store. Store Closes at 6 P. M. Men's $3 Derby Hats at $1.75. THIS is a fine collection of both black and brown Derby Hats, made by one of our best manufacturers, from a lot of surplus bodies used regularly in the making of $3 and $3.50 hats. We had them blocked up in the best models, which we selected ourselves, and they were copied from our own high-grade goods.

A Sale of SHOES For Men and Women. IT is high time to buy new shoes, and men and women who want shoes for everyday wear will be glad of the opportunity to buy them at low prices, when they are assured that the shoes they buy are made of good leathers, well put together, and that it is not necessary to sacrifice serviceable qualities in order to secure the savings.

9,000 Yards of 75c Broadcloth At 55c a Yard. WE call this an unusually lucky purchase of a splendid staple cloth in high favor this Fall for all sorts of dresses. This particular cloth was woven six inches wider than it measures now, and has a body of unusual firmness, because of the fulling it received.

New York's Greatest "Help" Bulletin. The figures below show the number of positions offered and sought in the Sunday World Want Directory.

Table with columns for Help Wanted, Male, Female, and Miscellaneous. Lists various professions and their corresponding numbers.

H.O'Neill & Co. Untrimmed Hats. Several Splendid Offerings for Saturday. Velvet Hats. 100 dozen Silk Paon Draped Velvet Hats—Toques, Turbans, Continental and other dress shapes—in brown, blue, cardinal and black—value $3.00 each; special at $2.48.

Sterling Values in Misses' and Children's Wear. These underpriced garments are offered for Saturday only. Suits for Small Women or Misses. Made of Cheviots, semi-fitted Coats, trimmed with colored velvets and braids, plaited flare skirt models—sizes 14 and 16 years (32, 34 and 36); value $18.00; Saturday $14.75.

Boys' Dressy Clothing at Special Prices for Saturday. Boys' $7.00 Suits, $4.95. Practical clothes, dressy and satisfying for boys 3 to 16 years—two-piece. Double Breasted, Norfolk, Russian Blouse, Eton Sailor and Military Russian Suits—made of strictly all wool fabrics in this season's catch.

We are Exclusive Agents in New York for the Famous "Edwin C. Burt" Shoe. Particular women who appreciate a perfect fitting, stylish and well made Shoe now have the opportunity to purchase the celebrated $5.00 Burt Shoe at $3.50 per pair.