

"THE SMILE THAT WON'T COME OFF." Why Should It?

REPUBLICANS CONTROL THE STATE LEGISLATURE

Several Surprising Losses Made by the Democrats in Both Branches—Republicans Have 143 and Democrats 57.

Some surprising changes were accomplished in the Legislature, which will be overwhelmingly Republican, insuring the election of a Republican to succeed Chauncey M. Depew in the United States Senate. Returns to The World from the 60 Senatorial and 150 Assembly districts indicate larger majorities in both houses than the Republicans have had in seven years. In the Senate the Democrats will have 37 Senators and the Democrats 13. In the Assembly the Republicans will have 106 Assemblymen and the Democrats 44.

Last session the Senate stood 29 Republicans and 21 Democrats and the Assembly 77 Republicans and 53 Democrats. The most unexpected changes were in Manhattan, Brooklyn and Buffalo. In Manhattan, George W. Plunkitt, one of the most prominent and influential Tammany leaders, was defeated by Martin Saxe, his Republican opponent, in the Fifteenth District. In Brooklyn, the Democrats lost the Fourth, Sixth and Ninth Senate Districts. In Erie County the Democrats lost one Senator, making a total loss of five over last session. The Senate will consequently stand 37 Republicans and 13 Democrats. The Republicans gained nine or ten Assemblymen, four strong Tammany districts in Manhattan, but reclaimed two, the Fifth, where Richard Van Cott, the son of the late Postmaster Cornelius Van Cott, was defeated, and the Twenty-third, where Newcomb, the Republican candidate, went down to defeat. The Democrats lost five districts in Kings, but reclaimed the one represented by Remsen, the "Gas Grab" Republican candidate. They also lost two in Queens and five in other parts of the State, making sixteen in all, but recovered four, leaving the net loss, according to present indications, nine. The new Legislature will be divided as follows:

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

Table showing the composition of the Senate and Assembly, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

EMPEROR WILLIAM SENDS HIS CONGRATULATIONS TO ROOSEVELT

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt has received the following cablegram from Emperor William: Neues Palais, Nov. 9. President Roosevelt, U. S. A. Washington: Sincerest congratulations. May Heaven give you prosperity. Teim quod bonum felix faustumque sit populo Americano. WILLIAM, I. R. A free translation of the Latin in the above cablegram is: "May your good administration be happy and prosperous to the American people."

PLATT TO ENTERTAIN LEAD N. J. REPUBLICANS

OWEGO, N. Y., Nov. 9.—United States Senator Thomas C. Platt has issued invitations to the State officials, members of the Legislature, Senator Depew, ex-Gov. Black, ex-Lieut.-Gov. Woodruff, Elihu Root, the members of Congress from this State and to many other Republicans of prominence and their wives to be his guests at a breakfast to be given next Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock at the Alwaga House. The latter is his Owego home when he comes here for wintering, voting, business or social purposes. It is expected that there will be at least two hundred guests.

ROOSEVELT GETS FLOOD OF NOTES

Thousands of Congratulatory Telegrams Received—President, in Buoyant Mood, Sends a General Acknowledgment. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt was overwhelmed with congratulations to-day. They were presented by many people in person and were received by mail and by telegraph from almost every city in the country. Thousands of telegrams already have been received and they are coming yet in an unbroken flood. Four operators were kept busy to-day receiving the messages over the wires at the White House telegraph bureau. Before noon one operator alone had taken more than three hundred telegrams. The others were equally busy. It will be physically impossible for the President and Secretary Loeb to acknowledge each message received, in accordance with the usual custom at the White House, but President Roosevelt desires it to be understood that he appreciates to the full the expression of his friends and would be glad if it were possible for him personally to greet and thank every one of them. The President was in exuberant spirits to-day. Among the messages was one from Gov. Odell of New York, who wrote: "The overwhelming majority which has been given you in New York State must be a great gratification to you. Words cannot express my personal pleasure at the result, and I know that you will share in the delight and pleasure at having also a Republican Governor of the State for the next two years. Governor Higgins's majority is over 50,000. Please accept my sincerest congratulations." Senator Platt of New York, wired: "Heartiest congratulations. I knew it could not be otherwise."

PARKER COMING TO PRACTICE LAW?

Rumor-Mongers Have Already Assigned Him to Places in Two Legal Partnerships in New York City. Now that the election is over, rumor-mongers have got busy with Judge Parker's plans for the future, and it is predicted, with some plausibility, that he will engage in the practice of law, for which his judicial career and high legal attainments assure him of more than ordinary success. One story, emanating from the ubiquitous "intimate friend of an intimate friend" of the Democratic standard bearer, has it that Judge Parker will shortly come to this city and enter the law firm of Sheehan & Collin, of which William F. Sheehan is now the senior member, and which has offices in the Mutual Life Building. When the former Lieutenant-Governor was seen by an Evening World reporter at the Waldorf-Astoria to-day he refused either to deny or affirm the report. "I don't know anything about it," said Sheehan, who was busy over election reports and seemed in bad humor. "I have not read the papers and am not going to read them. I have nothing to say."

M'CARREN HIT HARD IN THE BETTING

Tim Woodruff Takes $30,500 of His Money, and Mike Dady Further Cuts His Wad $15,500. This was election bet paying day in Brooklyn, and Senator McCarren's bank account was hard hit. Timothy Woodruff claimed and received from him $30,500 on a wager that Parker would not carry Brooklyn by 25,000 votes. Michael J. Dady got $15,500 on a similar wager. Most of the election betting that has been settled thus far on that side of the river was done in a Fulton street cafe. There it was said that John Dunne had won $3,000, ex-Sheriff Wingate, $2,000; D. Harry Ralston, $2,000; and Dan Bahr $2,000. Between $70,000 and $80,000 changed hands in this place before noon. Besides the bets mentioned there was a small army of smaller fry on one side or the other of wagers ranging from $3,000 down to $50.

ROOSEVELT GETS FLOOD OF NOTES

Thousands of Congratulatory Telegrams Received—President, in Buoyant Mood, Sends a General Acknowledgment. WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.—President Roosevelt was overwhelmed with congratulations to-day. They were presented by many people in person and were received by mail and by telegraph from almost every city in the country. Thousands of telegrams already have been received and they are coming yet in an unbroken flood. Four operators were kept busy to-day receiving the messages over the wires at the White House telegraph bureau. Before noon one operator alone had taken more than three hundred telegrams. The others were equally busy. It will be physically impossible for the President and Secretary Loeb to acknowledge each message received, in accordance with the usual custom at the White House, but President Roosevelt desires it to be understood that he appreciates to the full the expression of his friends and would be glad if it were possible for him personally to greet and thank every one of them. The President was in exuberant spirits to-day. Among the messages was one from Gov. Odell of New York, who wrote: "The overwhelming majority which has been given you in New York State must be a great gratification to you. Words cannot express my personal pleasure at the result, and I know that you will share in the delight and pleasure at having also a Republican Governor of the State for the next two years. Governor Higgins's majority is over 50,000. Please accept my sincerest congratulations." Senator Platt of New York, wired: "Heartiest congratulations. I knew it could not be otherwise."

GOVERNMENT PLEASED WITH ROOSEVELT'S ELECTION.

BERLIN, Nov. 9.—5:01 P. M.—Government circles regard President Roosevelt's election with satisfaction, as it means a continuance of the United States' present policy toward Germany. The relations between the President and Emperor William are believed to be of a more pleasant quality than ever before between a German sovereign and a President of the United States, as indicated by the rather frequent personal messages sent through their respective ambassadors. Some of the newspapers consider that the election will increase the friendliness between the two governments and mention the fact that President Roosevelt's suggestion of an arbitration treaty with Germany is ready for acceptance as an example of the present good feeling. Some influential persons believe that the German Government regards a reciprocity treaty with the United States as now being a possibility. Prices of American railroad shares rose 1 per cent on the Bourse to-day.

UNCLE SAM--"A Remedy That Has Such Endorsements Should Be In Every Home."

Advertisement for PERUNA's National Catarrh Remedy. Features a cartoon illustration of Uncle Sam sitting in a chair, holding a bottle of the medicine. The text emphasizes its effectiveness for various ailments and its endorsement by medical professionals.

POPE EXPRESSES PLEASURE AT ELECTION OF ROOSEVELT.

ROME, Nov. 9.—Cardinal Satolli, formerly Papal Delegate in the United States, was especially pleased with the election of Roosevelt and warmly expressed full satisfaction with the result. He added: "The Pope congratulates President Roosevelt on the splendid returns, which are sure will be for the prosperity of the glorious, strong American Republic, and for the maintenance of the most cordial relations between Washington and the Holy See."

STATE LEGISLATURE.

Table showing the composition of the State Legislature, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

CITY DELEGATION.

Table showing the composition of the City Delegation, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

SENATORS.

Table showing the composition of the Senators, listing party affiliations and district numbers.

ASSEMBLYMEN.

Table showing the composition of the Assemblymen, listing party affiliations and district numbers.