

IRVINE SHOULD BE THRASHED

Mrs. Elliott Declares Rector's Insinuations Against Her and Bishop Talbot Are Brutal and Without Foundation.

GIVES HER VERSION OF CAUSE OF TROUBLE.

Strong Influence Being Used to Limit New Charges Against Bishop to "Upjohn Letter" and to Keep Woman Out.

(Special to The Evening World.)

HUNTINGDON, Pa., Dec. 28.—With the grace of a queen and the manner of a woman who is in the habit of leading, with the voice that only culture brings, Mrs. Emma Desha Elliott declared to-day that if her father, Gen. Desha, were alive the Rev. I. N. W. Irvine would be horsewhipped.

"I wish he were alive," she said. "Dr. Irvine should be horsewhipped. It is not my intention to discuss the controversy between Bishop Talbot and Dr. Irvine.

"Such cruel, unkind things have been published about me. It is so difficult for a woman to prove otherwise once the tongue of scandal has taken liberties, however unjust and uncalled for, with her name.

"I have hesitated to reply to the base, false, cruel insinuations that have been leveled against me by a man whom I befriended, who broke bread at my table and who took money from my hand."

Will Aid Exposure. "Why should not I do my part in showing this man to the world in his true colors? He has again tried to cast reflections upon me by stating that I wore purple when Bishop Talbot visited me. Suppose I did? I frankly admit that I wore a gown of purple on several occasions when Bishop Talbot was a visitor to my house, but I had the gown made in Philadelphia long before I ever met or knew Bishop Talbot.

TRIED DYNAMITE TO ESCAPE.

Convict Exploded in Car and One Man Was Killed and Others Hurt. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Dec. 23.—While a train carrying 130 convicts in the employ of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Railroad Company was going from Birmingham to the prison, Will Miller, a negro convict, exploded a stick of dynamite in one of the coaches with a view to effecting a wholesale release.

TRYING TO KEEP WOMAN OUT OF NEW CHARGES.

Herbert Noble, lawyer and churchman, went to Philadelphia to-day, and before nightfall the finishing touches will have been made to the new charges against Bishop Gilbert Talbot.

URGES LETTER AS LIMIT.

Prominent churchmen throughout the United States are urging that if the Talbot scandal must be dragged into the light, the Upjohn letter alone should be written by Talbot, in which he makes accusations against Irvine, should mark the limit of disclosure.

SUBWAY ROUTE FOR EAST SIDE IS DRAWN UP

ALONG RIVER FRONT AWAY DOWNTOWN.

Also Suggests Line on West Side and Up Seventh Avenue to Connect with Present Road—Cross Lines, Too.

(Special to The Evening World.)

Chief Engineer Parsons this afternoon submitted suggestions for new subway routes to the Rapid Transit Board. The east side route proposed begins at the South Ferry, thence along South street, across Cigarettes slip to Front street, thence along William street, under the Brooklyn Bridge, under Park row to Chambers street to Broadway, and under Broadway to Union square, thence passing beneath the Subway under Fifteenth street to Lexington avenue and under Lexington avenue and the Harlem River and private property to a terminal loop under Third avenue to East One Hundred and Forty-second street and Morris avenue, with a branch continuing under Morris avenue to connect with the Subway at East One Hundred and Forty-ninth street.

He suggests a new west side line commencing at the Battery and passing under Battery Park and Greenwich street, West Broadway, Fifth avenue, Broadway, Twenty-fourth and Twenty-fifth streets to Seventh avenue, and under Seventh avenue to a connection with the present subway between Forty-second and Forty-fifth streets, together with a cross-town connection at Forty-fourth street.

He says: "On the east side line, on account of the narrowness of the streets and other local conditions, it would be possible to construct but two tracks from South Ferry to Thirty-fourth street and Lexington avenue, but from that point north it would be desirable to construct four tracks, the local tracks above and the express tracks below.

"On the west side line there should be four tracks extending south from Forty-second street to some point below Chambers street.

ODELL BEATEN; DEPEW SENATOR.

crowd that ever squeezed itself into the Republican State Committee rooms. There was no lack of enthusiasm on the part of Senator Depew, however. He was the happiest man in the whole town when he came out of the conference at the Republican Club and announced that he had won. The famous Depew smile was never so broad, the Depew chest was never stuck out quite so far. In fact, there wasn't an inch of the Depew frame that wasn't vibrating with the happiness of the moment.

ONLY A SHORT CONFERENCE.

Senator Depew had gone into that conference with Senator Malby on one side of him, Speaker Fred Nixon on the other and Senator Elsborg forming a rear guard. They had an appointment with Gov. Odell and that there was uncertainty about the result of the conference was indicated by the rather strained look on Senator Depew's ordinarily amiable face.

EXPRESSION NEVER CHANGED.

Senator Depew's expression never changed a bit when he said this and he acted as though the Governor had been fighting for him from the first. Continuing, he said:

"It's the optimist who always wins in this world. The optimist is a hooper and he wins when his hopes are based on material things. No man but Gov. Odell could have brought harmony out of this situation and I am very grateful to him."

WANT PUBLIC HEARING.

Whether the inquiry at Reading shall be secret or public is a matter not yet wholly determined. Under the canon of the church it must be a "secret" hearing, but this scandal has gained such widespread publicity that many leading churchmen are insisting that detail of the evidence be made public.

BLACK WILL WITHDRAW.

"Then Black will withdraw." "I presume so."

Gov. Odell refused to volunteer anything, and was to be pumped out of him by questions. Asked if he had seen any of Black's friends, he said he had; but admitted he hadn't seen any since he announced that Depew had won the fight. The Governor only smiled once during the talk, and that was when some one told him that Senator Depew had claimed him as the good fairy who had directed his fortunes to victory.

TROLLEY AS AN AMBULANCE.

Used a Man Out of Wagon and Is Used to Carry Him to Car House. NEWARK, N. J., Dec. 23.—Morris Ruben, eighteen years old, who lives in Passaic, is in the City Hospital here with a fractured skull and otherwise injured about the face and back, and is in a serious condition as the result of being thrown from his wagon to-day when it was struck by a trolley car.

Position of Body of Woman Found in Delancy Street

she met her death. An hour and a half before her body was discovered she left the residence of Mrs. Thomas Hart, at No. 127 East Twenty-fourth street, with the intention of going uptown.

She was the widow of "Laughing Larry" Butler, a well-known character, who was for many years a car starter at Forty-third street and First avenue. He died at his post of duty a month ago. After the funeral Mrs. Butler closed her home at No. 48 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and went to live with her sister, Miss Kate Collins, a domestic, in the employ of William A. Hervey, of No. 67 West One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street.

Butler left some life insurance money which his widow collected. His death was a great blow to her and she began to drink. On Tuesday she left Mr. Hervey's home and was not seen again until late yesterday morning, when she called at the home of Mrs. Mary McCormack, at No. 234 East Twenty-fifth street.

She refused to tell where she had spent the night and after a short stay went to the home of Mrs. Hart, where she remained until 1:30 o'clock in the evening. It is supposed that instead of getting on a Second avenue car bound uptown she got on a southbound car and got off in the heart of the east side.

Samuel Heller, janitor of the tenement-house, at No. 12 Delancy street, discovered the body of Mrs. Butler at 2 o'clock last night. She was lying in an airshaft at the foot of a narrow iron stairway. Her head was jammed between the stairway and the brick wall so tightly that considerable force had to be exerted in extracting her.

Possibly half an hour before the discovery of the body Butler was passing through the hall when he bumped into a man who jumped out from behind the stairway. It appeared as though he had just come from the door leading to the air shaft. Heller saw that the man was not one of the tenants.

The man was well dressed, but not in the style of the neighborhood. He appeared to be agitated.

"What are you doing here?" asked Heller. "I am a building inspector," he replied. He almost ran down the hall and called at the home of Mrs. Mary McCormack, at No. 234 East Twenty-fifth street.

The janitor went up through the building putting out the hall lights. He got up with some of the tenants on the stairs and when he got back to the lower hall started for the cellar to attend to his work. Then it was that he found the body.

Senator Depew's re-election and that is why I, in common with other Republicans, am for him. All I or any other Republican has ever wanted to do in this matter is to please and satisfy the members of the party which we represent and to which we belong."

BLACK WOULD SEE NOBODY.

Former Governor Black locked himself in his office to-day and would see nobody. An Evening World reporter wrote him of the announcement of Depew's selection and asked for an expression of opinion on the matter.

Mr. Black sent back word that he had absolutely nothing to say at this time on the Senatorship, and that there would be no use, waiting as he didn't expect to have anything to say.

When it first became known publicly that there had been differences of opinion over party policy between Senator Platt and Gov. Odell, public attention was directed to the two seats in the United States Senate, held by Platt and Depew. Platt went before the Legislature for re-election two years ago and was returned, but three Republican State Senators refused to support him. The campaign to return Depew practically began at that time, and was continued up to to-day when he was able to announce its success.

Last summer prior to the meeting of the State Convention, it was reported in political circles that former Gov. Frank S. Black desired to go to the United States Senate, and that he would have the support of Gov. Odell. Never, however, did Mr. Black announce himself a candidate, and not at any time did Gov. Odell openly express himself as favoring him.

When Senator Platt sought to nominate Timothy L. Woodruff for Governor, it was said that Gov. Odell, in order to secure the support of Mr. Black and his friends for Higgins, had agreed to aid Black in the Senatorship contest. Senator Platt was not in the city yesterday nor to-day when the closing conference was held.
