

POLICE BILL AIMS A BLOW AT GRAFTERS

Measure Prepared by Committee of Nine Makes Many Changes in Force.

By a bill which will be taken to Albany to-day and presented to the Legislature to-night, sweeping changes will be made in the Police Department.

The bill is in the nature of a report, made by a committee after long investigation into the vicious conditions of New York. These investigations went deep into the police methods of collecting graft; into the police connection with crime; into protected crime, and into the police organizations which offer protection to members of the organizations.

The report or bill is only the preliminary work which will be done by the committee. Its members have learned so much about the conditions that they will go deeper into police affairs and will continue working.

The most radical change in the city charter suggested by the report deals with the Detective Bureau at Headquarters. This bureau has long been considered in a demoralized state. The committee, according to charges made by reformers and other city officials, consisted largely of men who got their places through political precedents, and in no way suited for detective work, and whose affiliation with crime, if not approving of criminal conditions, is manifest.

The abolition of this bureau and its thorough reorganization is suggested. Another recommendation made by the committee is the re-establishment of a chief of police, known as the active head of the uniformed force, and on him the Commissioner of Police will depend as his right-hand man and his chief adviser.

Inspector Cortright is looked upon as the choice of the present Commissioner. Some Plans Opposed.

In speaking of the present Detective Bureau, the report says: "Its unsatisfactory condition is generally conceded. The proposal to take away from the captain the power to protect and give him the power to exact, and to relieve the force as a whole from the source of so much corruption.

The report also proposes to distinguish more clearly between the constabulary and the detective duties of police administration by providing that the maintenance of order, the suppression of disturbances, and the arrest of criminals, shall continue to be the duty of the uniformed force; and that the obtaining of evidence and the investigation of alleged violations of laws, the detection of gambling and disorderly houses and the liquor traffic shall be the duty of a special branch of the detective force, and that the service under responsible central supervision.

The report was signed by Austin G. Fox, Chairman of the committee; Henry E. Forest, George McAneny, James McKee, John G. Mulholland, William C. O'Brien, Jacob H. Schiff and Isaac N. Seligman, and was issued by J. Ludlow Chryslers, secretary to the committee, at his home, Broadway and Fifty-third street, last night.

JEROME LEANS TO PROHIBITION

Tells Preacher That, Though Idea Would Not Do for New York, He Has Been Inclined to Favor It.

District-Attorney Jerome was the speaker to-day at the Methodist preachers' meeting at No. 150 Fifth avenue. His theme was, "The Need of Legislation Amending the Liquor Tax Law." In accordance with the usual rule, the meeting was behind closed doors, and the doorkeepers rigorously excluded not only reporters, but ordinary laymen, including well-known Methodists.

Mr. Jerome said that the meeting began assigned to express were entirely along the line which he has so frequently urged. The Rev. Dr. A. B. Sanford presided.

Mr. Jerome said in beginning that he wished to have members of the meeting understand that he was as much opposed as any one there to drink or to any measure which could extend the influence and power of the liquor traffic.

For some time, in fact, he had been inclined to favor even the prohibition idea, but the plain fact was that prohibition had failed even in Maine. A policy that might perhaps be carried out successfully in some communities, might have no value among the population of a great cosmopolitan city, where there are not only lacking spiritual-minded people, but many who are decidedly the reverse.

SAID POLICEMAN HIT HER.

Woman Picked Him Out in Court, but He Proved an Alibi. Detective-Sergeant Coughlin, of Police Headquarters, Brooklyn, was sitting in City Marshal Allen Irvine was arraigned on charges of assault preferred by Mrs. Gaslow, of No. 251 High street. "That's not the man who did it," said Mrs. Gaslow, pointing to Irvine. The latter was discharged. "There he is," exclaimed the woman, pointing to Coughlin, who was in court to arraign prisoners. Mrs. Gaslow said she was in her store a week ago Friday when a man who had Irvine's card came in with a warrant. While serving it he hit her. Coughlin convinced the Magistrate that he was in Manhattan all of the afternoon when the assault is alleged to have occurred. He too was discharged.

A TRAINED NURSE

After Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman, of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate nurse from the Bloekley Training School, at Philadelphia, and for six years Chief Clinic Nurse at the Philadelphia Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education, and what she has to say may be absolutely relied upon.

"I am firmly persuaded, after eight years of experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and most reliable medicine for any suffering woman to use. Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale, with severe bearing-down pains, fearful headaches and frequent dizzy spells. The doctors prescribed for me, yet I did not improve. I would lose my appetite and frequently become nauseated. I had an acute discharge and pains down through my limbs so I could hardly walk. It was as bad a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasional recurrences, but a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered unprofessional to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have found that it cures female ailments where all other medicines fail. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results—and the ablest specialists now agree that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhoea, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.
