Stabs Him in the Neck and Only Prompt Assistance Saves His Life.

CROWD WOULD AVENGE. Arrival of Reserves Saves Prisoner from Angry Mob Clamoring for Him.

RESISTED A CITY MARSHAL. Officer Levied on Goods in Grocery Store and Policeman Shielded Him from Frenzied Owner.

Finally Became Enraged. Mulvihill expressed his intention of leaving on the spot and called upon the policeman for protection.

Persons who had seen the fight spread the alarm, and three policemen arrived on the scene.

Knocked Away the Knife. It happened that Policeman John Parcell, of the City Hall Station, was on his way from his home.

Outside the store there gathered a crowd of men.

McEnery was taken to Fordham Hospital with all haste.

BOY LAST SEEN ON FREIGHT CAR STILL MISSING

Strange Disappearance of Johnny Donoghue Ten Days Ago.

JUMPED ON MOVING TRAIN. Playing in Eleventh Avenue, He Was "Boosted" Into a Car and Was Carried Away.

RAILROAD'S LONG SEARCH. N. Y. Central Has Traced Sixty-nine Cars Unavailingly—Police Think the Lad is Drowned.

What has happened to little Johnny Donoghue?

His mother thinks he has been carried away in an empty freight car and then kidnapped by some tramps.

Most unusual are the circumstances surrounding the disappearance of this youngster.

It is the first time a railroad company has ever performed such a strange task.

ROCKEFELLER'S GIFT A SECRET FROM GLADDEN

Board Had $100,000 Donation Ten Days Before the Church Learned It.

COLUMBUS, O., April 1.—Dr. Washington Gladden, although moderator of the National Council of the Congregational Churches and a leader in his denomination, was not apprised of the Rockefeller gift until the matter was made public.

Mr. Rogers says that until Mr. Lincoln's emancipation proclamation slavery was legal in certain sections.

PORTLAND, Ore., April 1.—Dr. Stephen B. Wise, a prominent rabbi, in a sermon on the Prudential Committee of the American Board of Foreign Missions in regard to the gift of John D. Rockefeller and the protest of Dr. Washington Gladden, said:

It seems to me that there is nothing more helpful as a tonic than what is happening now.

MISSING BOY AND WHERE HE WAS SEEN LAST.

The Last Seen of Johnny Donoghue.

and father at No. 78 Eleventh avenue. There were eight children in the family together.

Along Eleventh avenue, between Fifty-third and Fifty-fourth streets, where freight trains of the New York Central road are constantly running backward and forward, the lad had his playground.

On the day that Johnny disappeared he and Sammy Hannigan attended school and at 3 o'clock in the afternoon started home together.

CARTER, SICK, GOES BEFORE GAS PROBERS

Trust Secretary Says Removal to Astoria Figures in Tax Tangle.

VALUES DEPRECIATED. Rich Murphy Contract Involved in This Phase of the Affairs of Monopoly.

MISSING $4,000,000 FOUND. Assistant Treasurer Whitely Explains More of the Trust Mysteries in Bookkeeping.

Secretary Robert A. Carter, of the Consolidated Gas Company, ignoring his physician, left the Crescent Athletic Club House, of Brooklyn, to-day, to present himself as a witness before the Gas Investigating Committee.

Mr. Carter, pale and weak, entered the Aldermanic Chamber leaning heavily on a cane. He said he was prepared to testify fully, if his strength would permit, and explain away the $7,000,000 discrepancy in the State tax return and the balance sheet, which witness Whitely could not account for yesterday.

Carter went over the various items contained on the balance sheets and tax returns and explained discrepancies between them with the general answer, "All values returned to the State Board of Tax Commissioners were made on the basis of the estimated cost of reproduction by all properties less the depreciation."

GIRL HE JILTED STOPS REISS'S WEDDING TRIP

Sent for His Lucia to Come from Germany, then Wed Another.

OVERTAKEN AT PIER. Was About to Sail on Bridal Trip When Mix-Up Brought the Police.

As Alfred Reiss, of No. 9 Sutton place, was walking up the gangplank of the Red Star liner Kroonland to-day, followed by his smiling bride and her father, Emil Bronson, of Hoboken, who had accompanied him to the pier to bid him bon voyage to Europe, a woman with a red hat and a bright blue dress, rushed up after Reiss and cried: "You must not go. You shall not go. You belong to me."

Mixed up with the baggage at the foot of the gangplank, falling over hatboxes and valises the two factions continued their quarrel and their pushing and shoving. Plats were shaken in the face of Reiss, he was threatened with various kinds of bodily harm and characterized as a double-dyed villain, a breaker of hearts.

Finally a policeman was called from the entrance to the pier and arrested Reiss and his father-in-law. They were taken to the Church Street Station, where they were charged with disorderly conduct.

Scratched His Face. "When I arrived I went to my uncle, and then I learned the news that Reiss was to marry Lucia. He has been in this country three years. My troupe was prepared for the wedding, and I was to go to Europe with me.
