US SEES A MILLION TO PLAY IN WHEAT

Frank G. Bigelow, of Milwaukee, Accused of Taking Bank Funds.

CAUGHT IN BIG DEAL. Declared to Have Confessed to Directors and Made Restitution of Part of Losses.

(Special to The Evening World.) MILWAUKEE, April 24.—Frank G. Bigelow, President of the First National Bank of this city, and former President of the American Bankers' Association, it is charged, has defrauded the bank's funds to the extent of $1,000,000.

The directors of the bank have deposited in the bank a sum sufficient to make the institution perfectly solid, Mr. Bigelow has not yet been arrested.

The capital of the First National Bank is $1,500,000 and the surplus is $1,200,000. Mr. Bigelow had signed over property to the bank amounting to $600,000, making his net defalcation about $1,200,000.

From the surplus which will meet the amount of the defalcation the sum of $1,830,000 has been subscribed by directors to meet any demands which may be made on the bank. The aggregate wealth of the bank approaches over $30,000,000. The Comptroller of the Currency has been asked to make an immediate examination of the bank.

Mr. Bigelow's defalcation became known to the directors of the bank on Saturday night. He admitted to-day that the amount had been lost in defalcation, and he had falsified the books to cover up the defalcation.

Henry H. Winters, president of the bank, has been removed, charged with having been a party to the falsification of the books in the bank's books.

The announcement of the defalcation made by George B. Miller, one of the directors of the bank.

A notice has been issued by the directors announcing that the sum has been subscribed sufficient to protect the depositors.

Mr. Bigelow was in his office at the bank as usual up to noon looking over books and papers. He seemed greatly surprised when the directors were being called for the arrest of Mr. Bigelow and probably Mr. Goll late today.

Mr. Bigelow has long occupied a foremost place in the financial transactions of Milwaukee. Only last year he was president of the American Bankers' Association. He is also prominent in Milwaukee's social set.

Up to noon the defalcation was known to only a few, and it was realized that the news was likely to create consternation among the depositors when it became generally known. The defalcation was made to meet any emergency.

The statement issued by the directors "For value received we this afternoon, severally agree to advance and pay to the First National Bank of Milwaukee, Wis., the sum set opposite our respective names, as the same may be needed, for the payment of the notes of all deposits now in said bank, or other, within thirty days from this date.

Among the visiting bankers in conference were: E. H. Hamill, of the First National Bank, Chicago; D. F. Morgan, of the First National Bank, and Orson Smith, of the Merchants Trust Company's bank, all of Chicago.

One million and a half dollars was received from Chicago at 2 o'clock this afternoon. At that hour the news of the defalcation had spread to such an extent as to cause the run on the bank.

At 2 o'clock this afternoon, an hour before closing time at the First National Bank, the crowd of depositors seeking to withdraw their deposits had swelled to about five hundred, extending out over the sidewalk into the street.

When the run first started an official of the bank mounted a chair in the rotunda to address the crowd and announced to the eager depositors that defalcation had been discovered, but assured all depositors that their money was safe and that those holding their money would be paid in full upon demand.

There Low again told his story and begged to be let off easy. The girls who had followed him to the police station begged for his liberation.

"For the sake of the young ladies will let you off with a $10 fine," said Magistrate Maye, "but careful not to be caught brought before me on this charge or you will not escape so easy."

A very pretty and stylishly dressed woman giving the name of Mrs. A. B. Clarke, was arraigned in Centre Street Police Court this afternoon charged with creating a disturbance in the real estate office of Richard Harnett & Co., No. 73 Liberty street.

"This is the first time I have had an opportunity to make my troubles public," she declared dramatically, "I am the wife of A. B. Clarke, of the firm of Harnett & Co. He didn't come home all last night. This caused an outbreak of jealousy.

"I found him with another woman at the Columbus Circle last night. This woman is married to a man connected with the real estate firm.

"I went to see the office. As soon as I entered there was a concerted movement made to keep me from going behind the office railing. The clerks laid hands upon me and used me roughly and finally they called a policeman and caused my arrest. This man," pointing to Prandegast, "went to the Old Slip station with me and made the complaint. I insist that he realize it are caused by jealousy.

"All we want," said Prandegast, "is to keep her from interrupting the business of the office. I am sorry, Mrs. Clarke. Magistrate Mott refused to hold the woman. He advised her to go to a civil court.

CONSUMPTION

Mainly Caused by Chronic Colds and Hanging-on Coughs. The following well-known druggists have given a good deal of time to the study of consumption, and find that comparatively few cases are hereditary.

Most all are caused by neglected coughs and colds, which gradually weaken the whole pulmonary system, and before people realize it are causing a fine-looking cough, which is able to cure hanging-on coughs and eventually a collapse.

Such an unnecessary and such a pity for all could have been so different. We know of hundreds of cases where our wonderful cod liver oil preparation, Vinol, has saved a young life and a family life, which without it would have been sacrificed.

We have letters from people who were given up to die, and who positively state that Vinol, and Vinol alone, saved their lives when all else had failed to help them.

Vinol is able to cure hanging-on coughs and stubborn coughs, because it is the most perfect preparation of cod liver oil ever compounded, it contains no oil or grease to upset the delicate stomach, yet it does contain every one of the fifty odd medicinal curative elements actually taken from fresh cods' livers, and we treat and cure any case of chronic coughs, hanging-on colds or weak and debilitated conditions of New York people, and pay for the medicine ourselves if it fails to give satisfactory results.

Get Vinol from any of the following New York druggists: W. W. the undersigned, retail druggist of New York, being Sole Agents for Vinol in this city, are prepared to guarantee it in the strongest manner.
