GRAVESEND, RACE TRACK, Sept. 12.—Contrary to general expectations the track at Gravesend this afternoon was in fairly good shape.

In the opening dash there was an extraordinary plunge on Jim Beattie, where Monterey closed strong.

In the Flatlands, a two-year-old selling stake, there were no less than twenty-seven horses.

In the opening dash there was an extraordinary plunge on Jim Beattie, where Monterey closed strong.

Lady Doddington went to the front with Clark Griffith in the second, and they raced hand and hand to the stretch.

Spring went to the front at the start of the handicap and won easily by six lengths from Voladay, which was second all the way, beating Cigar Lighter half a length.

Muffins raced at the front in the Flatlands stakes, and was joined by Ho-ray. These two raced together to the stretch, followed by Arklirta and Sidney F. In the stretch Ho-ray went to the front and stayed there, winning by three lengths from Zienap, which beat Clark Griffith four lengths for the place.
