REPUBLICANS BOLT FUSION; TO GO ALONE

Decide This Afternoon on a Straight Ticket Led by J. L. Hamilton.

LEADERS BACK HALPIN.

Refuse to "Buckle Down to Every Humiliating Proposition" of Allies.

The Republican organization withdrew from the Fusion conference at the Fifth Avenue Hotel this afternoon and a straight Republican ticket, to be headed by County Clerk Thomas L. Hamilton, will be put in the field against McClinton, the Citizens' Union and Municipal Ownership organizations have not decided upon what course to follow.

The meeting was called at 4:30 o'clock. Chairman Halpin relinquished the chair to Thomas Gillerman, of the Municipal Ownership League, and, briefly announced that the Republicans had decided to go it alone.

Mr. Imeson, for the Municipal Ownership organization, said that his party was pledged to fusion and intended to carry out the original idea. R. Fulton Cutting, for the Citizens' Union, had nothing to say.

The conference was presided by a meeting of all the Republican district leaders of Manhattan at the Republican Club with leaders from Brooklyn, Queens and Richmond. The sentiment was almost unanimous that the Republicans should place a city ticket and tickets in all boroughs in the field.

Mr. Halpin called meeting. The call for the meeting at the Republican Club was sent out by County Chairman Halpin last night, following the declaration of Boss Odell that he did not think fusion possible.

Leaders Back. "I want an expression of opinion from every man here," said Mr. Halpin. "I want to know if it is the sentiment of the Republican organization that we should buckle down to every humiliating proposition made to us or whether we ought to go it alone."

SQUIRES HAD EQUITABLE BLACK BOOK

Was a Partner with Jordan in Rope and Twine Speculations.

LOANS FROM COMPANY.

Made $6,770 Profit, but the Equitable Books Never Saw the Money.

A mysterious little black book, purporting to be the private account of "George H. Squire, Trustee," was sprung late this afternoon at the investigation of the Equitable Life Assurance Society by the legislative investigators.

Henry Greaves, a young Equitable clerk, who made the entries in the "trustee" book, revealed that Thomas D. Jordan, who was discharged from the comptrollership of the society, and George H. Squire were engaged in 1900 in selling Rope and Twine and Audit Company stocks, which had been given as collateral to the society for a personal loan to John E. Seares.

Before Squire opened his secret "trustee" account, Marcus Hartley, a director of the Equitable, had a similar account in the Mercantile Trust Company. This account was switched to the name of Squire.

Jordan held the check books, but three months controlled the account. Jordan, Squire and W. H. McKeary, it took the names of two of this trio to make a check payable.

In the little black book it appeared that a check had been drawn against the Squire "trustee" account in favor of the "T. W. A. No. 3 account" in the Mercantile Trust Company.

The black book also carried the profits and bonus of a loan to the Pittsburgh Coal Company. The profits and bonus amounted to $6,770.33. "The Equitable's books never saw the money."

BY FRANK W. THORP.

(Special to The Evening World.) BRIGHTON BEACH RACE TRACK, N. Y., Sept. 27.—Seven races proved a potent attraction at Brighton Beach this afternoon, for there were more people on hand than at any previous time of the meeting.

The fields were not large in all the races, and the players figured that they had at least a fair chance of guessing the winners.

The strike feature of the day was the second half of the running of the Produce stakes, this being for two-year-old fillies. The distance was six furlongs. The other races were fairly interesting, though they lacked class.

The weather was more comfortable and the track was holding fast. Airmore hanging on long enough to be third two lengths back of Lancastrian.

Charley All the Way, Easily. Charley went to the front at the start, made all the running, and won with great ease by three lengths from Lancastrian, who was off slow and finished very strong. Delmore and High Rank ran prominently to the stretch, when they stopped, Airmore hanging on long enough to be third two lengths back of Lancastrian.

Close Fit in Steeplechase. Grandpa took the lead early and turned into the stretch twenty lengths in front of Plausker. Grandpa pulled up all through the stretch, but was by a head. Plausker was thirty lengths in front of Pious.

Aeronaut by Six Lengths. Aeronaut and Chieftain went to the front, and opened up a gap of eight lengths on Laurelita and Druid. They held this position until near the stretch, where Chieftain stopped as though left with a club. Aeronaut held on, however, and won by six lengths from Druid, who beat Suffice two lengths for the place.

Zienap Off Slowly. St. Ursula went to the front and made the pace, followed by Tiptoe. Last Harry and Chieftain were practically left, and Zienap began slow, as usual. She gradually made up, and was compelled to go to the outside. In the straight Harry held away and Zienap went to the front. Zienap got through at the head of the stretch, but Harry held on and won by a length and a half. Aeronaut was three lengths in front of Single Shot.

Lord of the Vale Hidden Out. Lord of the Vale went to the front soon after the start, made all the running, and won ridden out by three lengths from Oxford, who beat Larable a length. Larable was off badly and would have been second with an even chance. There was an offer in this race of a piece of plate valued at $200 for breaking of the track record, 1:38, or a piece of plate valued at $100 for breaking the mile record, 1:27.5. None of the horses tried for the record and the race was slow.

A Two-Horse Race. Quadrille and Platoon raced to the front at the start and finished the race between them. Quadrille winning cleverly by a length from Platoon, who was annihilated by ten lengths for the place.
