TERRY MCGOVERN is training hard for the battle of his career. ATTELL BEATEN AT HIS OWN GAME

BY ROBERT EDGREN. (Special to The Evening World.) PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 5.—Abe Attell challenged Nelson and Britt from the ring here last night to fight for a $10,000 side bet, winner take all, and then took a six-round beating from Young Ernie.

Attell's expression changed and he began to look interested. Abe jabbed and Ernie jabbed. It was a regular jab-fest, with Attell at the business end of most of the blows that landed. Once he managed to get near enough to mix matters, and there he made a better showing.

Ernie Got Busy. Abe walked right up to Ernie at the beginning of the second session and pummed him a good right-handed punch on the chin. Ernie jabbed him off again. Then Ernie became very busy; he hoisted over Attell like a humming-bird, darting in and out. A fat man in a ring-side seat suggested that McGuigan had mixed the titles in his announcement, and the local fans chuckled.

Chase handled Parent's sacrifice. Stahl walked. Unglaub laced for ground on left for one corner, filling the bases. Burket singled to right, scoring Young and Stahl. Unglaub reached third. COLUMBIA END BREAKS A BONE

In the football game between Seton Hall College and Columbia yesterday at American League Park Henry B. Post, Columbia's left end, had a small bone broken in his forearm. The injury is likely to keep him out of the game for three weeks at least. Post received the hurt in the latter part of the second half, but after leaving the game did not say anything about it, thinking that it was a muscle bruise and would soon pass off. Last night at the football quarters Dr. F. H. Oastler, the team physician, examined the arm and discovered the break.
