

BAUER HELD FOR CUTTING UP HIS VICTIM

Coroner's Jury Finds that He Murdered the "L" Ticket Chopper.

The coroner's jury to-day held Jacob Frederick Bauer for the murder of Thomas P. Corcoran, the ticket chopper on the Third Avenue elevated line, in a room at No. 149 Third Avenue, Bauer, who is an elevator man at the Union Square Hotel, was the coolest man in the coroner's court in the Criminal Court building and gazed with indifference at the morbid crowd of men who jammed the place to listen to the gruesome details of the shooting of Corcoran and the chopping up of the body.

Capt. Husey, of the East Twenty-second street police station, stated that Bauer worked with bare feet while dismembering his victim, because a microscopic examination shows that he literally waded in blood.

Traces of blood were also found between his fingers and under his fingernails.

George La Nole, the man who lay all night in the room next to the one in which the murder was committed and listened to the crunching of bone as the body of Corcoran was dismembered, and H. C. Hillman, who slept all night in another room in the house No. 149 Third Avenue, were brought to the House of Detention to testify.

The workman who found the head of the victim in the lumber yard, where, wrapped in paper, it had been tossed, were also on hand to tell of the ghastly find.

Bauer's way through the Tombs from the bridge was through a row of faces that pressed against bars to catch a look at him and then curse at him. There was a desire on the part of the prisoners of Murderers' Row to behold the man who had shot a man to death, then cut up his body and tried to dispose of it, yet whose make-up was that of a dandy and whose solace was his prayer book.

The murder of Corcoran, a ticket chopper on the elevated railroad, was committed yesterday morning at 2 o'clock, on the third floor of No. 149 Third Avenue, in a room occupied by Bauer.

Corcoran and Bauer, who had never met before, went to the room occupied by Bauer at 2 A. M. La Nole, who had arrived in the city and gone to the house for the first time and was in the next room, heard a shot; then he heard the cutting up of a body.

When Bauer left the room at 7 o'clock La Nole, who had been afraid to pass the door, ran out and went to the police. They arrested Bauer as he was leaving the house a second time. He had the victim's legs and arms in a dress-suit case. The head was found later in a lumber yard wrapped in paper, and the trunk was in a clothes hamper in the room.

Justice Morgan J. O'Brien, George Westinghouse and former President Cleveland, trustees of the Equitable society, went into session again to-day in the rooms of Mr. Cleveland at the Hotel Buckingham, Fifth street and Fifth Avenue, and adjourned after electing John D. Kernan, of Onondaga County, and William C. Redfield, of Brooklyn, for recommendation for election to the Board of Directors.

J. D. Kernan is the son of former United States Senator Francis Kernan. He is a native of Onondaga County, the State of New York and is a well-known lawyer in Utica and New York.

William C. Redfield is a manufacturer and the head of the firm of J. H. Williams & Co., drop castings, of Brooklyn. He was prominent in the public life of that borough under the Low administration, and is a successful business man.

BIG PLASTER OF HEARST FLAGS

Municipal Ownership People

Order Banners and Lithographs—Ereil for Sheriff, Stearn for District-Attorney.

The Municipal Ownership League, which last night nominated William R. Hearst for Mayor, John Ford for Comptroller and J. C. Phelps Stokes for President of the Board of Aldermen, is going to open headquarters in the Hoffman House in a few days. These will be run separately from the headquarters of Columbus Circle.

The League is going to conduct a lively campaign, and have ordered enough banners and lithographs to plaster the city. It has been decided to run William F. Grell for Sheriff on the Municipal Ownership ticket, and Clarence Shearn, Hearst's lawyer, will probably run for District-Attorney. Mr. Grell was elected Sheriff by Tammany once, and two years ago, when turned down, ran independently. He got 12,000 votes.

Sunshine Society Minutes.

Resolutions of the Policy-Holders Sunshine Society, to be engraved on the finest Japanese vellum and distributed in bindings of rich morocco among those policy-holders who should cheer up and realize that even commercialism and commissions may be tinged with romance:

"Whereas, it has been brought to the attention of the Policy-Holders Sunshine Society that despite allegations to the contrary our philanthropic patron, President McCurdy, of the Mutual Life Insurance Company, has a heart that can be touched by the tender influence of love and that it appears that he has demonstrated this beyond peradventure of a doubt in the manner in which he has sealed to his soul and to the commissions on our dearly bequeathed premiums his son-in-law, Louis A. Thebaud,

"And whereas, it further appears the President McCurdy gave particular evidence of his philanthropy and missionary spirit in rewarding the said Louis A. Thebaud, after he had mar-

FINDS MISSING BRIDE AFTER MANY SLIPS

From Baltic's Pier to Ellis Island and Back Again Went Meriden Man.

Nellie Morgan, a pretty little English lass, reached New York yesterday from Birmingham on the Baltic, and she was to have been married last night at Meriden, Conn., to Thomas Boyd, a young mechanic of that city. The wedding feast was spoiled, for she did not meet Thomas yesterday, but the original programme will be carried out to-night, even if it is Friday the thirteenth.

Thomas came down from Meriden yesterday morning and went to meet the Baltic. He had no pass and was not allowed on the pier. All he had was his citizenship papers. While he was trying to argue that these documents should pass him anywhere, Nellie Morgan, having none to greet her, had been sent to Ellis Island with the other immigrants.

Thomas, after great difficulty, learned how to get to Ellis Island, but when he reached the Barge Office the last boat had gone. He walked or ran around Battery Park all night and got a pass to-day as soon as the office opened.

On the first boat that went to Ellis Island Thomas was a passenger. And on the first boat from Ellis Island to the Barge Office Nellie was a passenger. She had cried all night and threatened to have hysterics if she was not allowed to start immediately for Meriden to look for Thomas.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

GIRL OF 13 TRIES TO ELOPE.

Ran Away with a Man of Thirty, Who Will Be Prosecuted for Abduction.

the public school at Garment's Church closed Wednesday afternoon, Miss Myrtle Holt, aged thirteen, instead of going home met her sweetheart, Charles Kissell, aged thirty. They boarded a train for Corning, N. Y., last night. Her father, a member of the girl's learned of the runaway and telegraphed to Corning, directing their arrest upon their arrival.

Chief Ryan went to Corning yesterday and got the girl Kissell will be prosecuted for abduction.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

When Thomas got to Ellis Island and could not find Nellie he gave vent to loud cries and accused the whole immigration system of trying to steal his bride. Finally he was persuaded to go back to the Barge Office and there he found Nellie, who was just about to start to Meriden in charge of a matron.

W.M. VOGEL & SON.

Suits and Overcoats for Men, $15.

Clothes that by their very character present strong arguments in their own favor—arguments that will convince you of their worth. Scan them ever so critically, yet with each look will be revealed another element of superiority. Our $15 suits and overcoats are of so high a standard of excellence that none short of a high-grade custom tailor can equal them—and even he doesn't pretend to do it at our prices. If you would see these $15 suits and overcoats made with our new "Concave" Shoulder and "Closefitting" Collar, you would be prompt to indorse the Wm. Vogel & Son claim of superiority.

$15 Suits and Overcoats.

We would have you know that even at this moderate price the new series of suits involves the better grades of fabrics, in a diversity of color schemes and weaves. Cheviots in plain or fancy designs, Cassimeres in new tones and effects, Tibets in black and blue. These suits are fashioned in single and double breasted sack models.

The series of new overcoats involves several topcoats and medium-length models in all the new shades of Coverts, Oxfords, black Tibets and wide-wale Cheviots.

Other Suits and Overcoats, $15 to $40.

W.M. VOGEL & SON,

Broadway, Houston St.

BASEBALL KINGS AT GARDEN.

The Giants and the Athletics have accepted the invitation of the Physical Culture Show to attend the exhibition of strength, loveliness and breakfast food at Madison Square Garden. The members of both teams, with mascots and admiring fans, will occupy boxes at the Garden to-night.

Open Saturday Night.

Sixth Avenue, Corner 18th St. Corner 21st St. HARLEM: 260 West 125th St. 16 Other Retail Establishments in Philadelphia and Chicago

ETA SHOEMAKERS' FIT FRAZIN & OPPENHEIM SHOE MAKER.

$3 SHOES

SLIP your foot into a Frazin & Oppenheim $3 Shoe. It fits as if it were made for you. Its trim elegance, its quality of leather and its quality of making please immediately. Made in countless styles, exclusively for men and women wearers of good shoes.

$4 and $5 Custom making

THE Shoes are the best arguments for superiority that we could possibly advance. The fine leather—the careful hand making—the minute attention to every little individuality are all examples of the value of custom making in your shoes. Stunningly swell shapes on specially designed lasts. In styles for the man and woman of discriminating requirements.

OURS is the greatest shoe business in the world with the greatest values in the land at one and two dollars. Thousands of feet are fitted daily with this comfortable and service-giving footwear in our colossal 18th Street establishment. Stability is the keynote of making—of styling—of quality through and through. For popular priced footwear there is none to compare with the Frazin & Oppenheim values you will receive in return for your $1 and $2 investment.

The Best Shoes in the Land at $1 and $2

Ten of a kind—and a mighty good kind. Good and clean both.

Royal Bengals

LITTLE CIGARS—PACKAGE OF TEN, 15 CENTS

Good simply because the tobacco is high-grade selected leaf, fermented, blended, mellowed and enriched by two years in the American Cigar Company's warehouses and stemmeries.

Clean because every operation is carried through in the finest cigar-factory in the world, equipped especially for the making of Royal Bengals, and with every sanitary appliance known.

IN EVERY PACKAGE IS NOW BEING PLACED A HANDSOME SOUVENIR PICTURE

AMERICAN CIGAR CO., Manufacturers

J.B. The Corset of To-day.

Recognized and welcomed as the correct and indispensable foundation for the costume of to-day. Following the exact lines of living models, it is exquisitely molded, combining all the requisites of grace, comfort and durability.

The New Fall Models.

now on exhibition at all the leading stores, are the shapeliest and most graceful Corsets yet made, and their shapeliness is of a character that endures through constant wear. Made in such a wide variety of styles and sizes that no matter what your figure, there is a J. B. Corset that will fit it exactly and comfortably. Prices from $1 up.

JOSEPH BECKEL & CO., Manufacturers, N. Y.

Open Saturday Night. Sixth Avenue, Corner 21st St. Exclusively a $3 Store of Men's and Women's Shoes. FREE—Our Big Catalog is ready for you to order by mail.

HUNGRY LIONS COWED BY A NERVY WOMAN

The entire staff of the Hippodrome and a number of press representatives stood about to-day in nervous dread, waiting for Mlle. Claire Heliot to lead those twelve lions from their lairs. It was rumored that the kings of the jungles were riled after four weeks of confinement in close quarters. It was noised about that they had not tasted raw meat for many days and would undoubtedly make a quick-lunch stampede for the tempting morsel, Mlle. Heliot.

Roars that might be interpreted as both rage and ravenously burst at intervals from the wings.

The erection of a large circular cage, that appeared only too frail to the apprehensive onlookers, was rehearsed until the vigorous stage-shifters brought their record down to one minute and a half. Then the red lion dived on wheels, with the beasts peering savagely from behind the iron-bound arena.

When Mlle. Claire, clad in a black-and-white striped, red-bound wrapper (as it may have been a jumper, or a morning gown, or studio apron, as befitted an artiste), stood alone—dressed, save with her bravely lashed whip and her own stout heart.

From iron bars alone kept off those roaring fiends.

Beasts Friked Like Kittens.

The gates were opened and the lions came leaping into the ring, as tame as kittens, while the lady cried: "Clitust!" As variously interpreted this monosyllabic means "Get a wriggle on," "You will, will you?" do.

The first stunt was entitled: "First class in jungle geography, stand up." The twelve pupils, arising before the whip of their mistress, as if it were a still warm slipper, paraded themselves on seats arranged at the back of the cage, except the shaggy Pierre, that couldn't find his place.

Then, to show how they loved teachers, the head of the class looked mild, while the lady cried: "Did no love is muser?" in fond French and hugged him with her fair sleeves.

"A little music there, to soothe these savage beasts," cried the tametress. The orchestra struck up.

The next feat was of the "Over the hurdles and let up, be merry" sort.

When Pierre Abelard, Hector and Sulpice went a nice little family meal, covers for six, Mlle. Claire presiding at the head and dispensing "beef-steak on the stick" so freely to her guests that her mistress could not refrain from licking their chops.

During all these performances the star lion in a very bad humor, he snarled at his mistress in a headlong manner; he slapped at her, and every one could see his claws were spread. And he snarled repeatedly. But his mistress treated him as if he were a mere bagatelle, anyway, though those on the side lines slipped their hands toward their hip pockets and wondered suspiciously what caliber would knock out Snarliew.

GIRL BURNED BY BONFIRE.

Workman Saves Child's Life by Throwing His Coat Around Her.

Mary O'Grady, the seven-year-old daughter of Michael O'Grady, of No. 105 Park Avenue, was playing in the rear yard of the house at No. 105 Park Avenue today, when a spark from a bonfire a boy had built fell on her dress and ignited it.

Enveloped in flames the child ran out in the street where a workman who was passing took off his coat and wrapped it around her, extinguishing the flames. The child was badly burned. She was taken to Harlem Hospital.

BASEBALL KINGS AT GARDEN.

The Giants and the Athletics have accepted the invitation of the Physical Culture Show to attend the exhibition of strength, loveliness and breakfast food at Madison Square Garden. The members of both teams, with mascots and admiring fans, will occupy boxes at the Garden to-night.

Open Saturday Night.

Sixth Avenue, Corner 18th St. Corner 21st St. HARLEM: 260 West 125th St. 16 Other Retail Establishments in Philadelphia and Chicago

ETA SHOEMAKERS' FIT FRAZIN & OPPENHEIM SHOE MAKER.

$3 SHOES

SLIP your foot into a Frazin & Oppenheim $3 Shoe. It fits as if it were made for you. Its trim elegance, its quality of leather and its quality of making please immediately. Made in countless styles, exclusively for men and women wearers of good shoes.

$4 and $5 Custom making

THE Shoes are the best arguments for superiority that we could possibly advance. The fine leather—the careful hand making—the minute attention to every little individuality are all examples of the value of custom making in your shoes. Stunningly swell shapes on specially designed lasts. In styles for the man and woman of discriminating requirements.

OURS is the greatest shoe business in the world with the greatest values in the land at one and two dollars. Thousands of feet are fitted daily with this comfortable and service-giving footwear in our colossal 18th Street establishment. Stability is the keynote of making—of styling—of quality through and through. For popular priced footwear there is none to compare with the Frazin & Oppenheim values you will receive in return for your $1 and $2 investment.

The Best Shoes in the Land at $1 and $2

The Effects of Opiales.

THAT INFANTS are peculiarly susceptible to opium and its various preparations, all of which are narcotic, is well known. Even in the smallest doses, if continued, these opiates cause changes in the functions and growth of the cells which are likely to become permanent, causing imbecility, mental perversion, a craving for alcohol or narcotics in later life. Nervous diseases, such as intractable nervous dyspepsia and lack of staying powers are a result of dosing with opiates or narcotics to keep children quiet in their infancy. The rule among physicians is that children should never receive opiates in the smallest doses for more than a day at a time, and only then if unavoidable.

The administration of Anodynes, Drops, Cordials, Soothing Syrups and other narcotics to children by any but a physician cannot be too strongly decried, and the druggist should not be a party to it. Children who are ill need the attention of a physician, and it is nothing less than a crime to dose them willfully with narcotics.

Castoria contains no narcotics if it bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher. Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Chas. H. Fletcher.

Legs Young Spring Lamb 12 1/2c PRIME RIB ROAST 10c & 12c PORTERHOUSE STEAK 15c

I. Steigerwald Packing Co.

Headquarters for MEATS, POULTRY AND PROVISIONS. Special prices to Hotels, Restaurants, Institutions and Steamships. Orders by mail or telephone promptly and carefully shipped. 223 FIRST AVENUE, Telephone 765—ORCHARD. Bet. 13th and 14th Sts.

Sugar Cured Smoked Ham 12 1/2c Legs of Mutton 10c Fresh Ham 10c