NEW PANIC IN ST. PETERSBURG; GREAT MOB RULES

Rejoicing Over Liberty is Turned by Socialists Into Wild Disorder. SHOOTING IN STREETS. Crowds Split Into Factions of "Reds" and "Whites" and Fight.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 31.—As the afternoon advanced the crowds which had all day been celebrating the granting of liberty, became unruly and there seemed to be momentary danger of great disorders. The workers all over the city left their work and drifted to the center of the city, massing before the Kazan cathedral. Fully a hundred thousand persons gathered in the great square, completely filling the space between the spreading colonnades of the cathedral.

In the gathering gloom the red banners massed behind the speakers on the cathedral steps seemed like splashes of blood against the grey edifice. The orators were mostly students and workmen. Their appeals kindled the widest enthusiasm in the crowds, which included hundreds of women and girls.

The oratory continued for hours and while it was in progress a procession was formed with students at its head bearing red flags.

A cry was set up of "To the Bastille!" and the procession started in that direction. Preparations had been made against attempts to storm the political prison, termed the Bastille.

All the afternoon two companies of the Semenovskiy regiment and four squadrons of Hussars were drawn up on Shpalernia street, with ample reserves inside. The leaders of the procession, however, had already been advised that Count Witte had announced that an amnesty proclamation was being prepared, and led the procession to the Nevsky Prospect and the Nicholas station, followed by an immense crowd all singing and shouting.

Complete darkness had settled down before their return. At the Kazan Cathedral the procession was joined by the thousands here, and singing the "Marseillaise" and shouting for a constituent assembly, the human tide, now composed of fully two hundred thousand persons, swept down the avenue and across the palace bridge to the university in the Vashki Ostrov district.

OSBORNE WRITES TO JEROME AGAIN

Makes Some More Observations About the Insurance Grafters.

James W. Osborne sent an open letter to District-Attorney Jerome to-day reiterating his charge that the most prominent men among the Jerome nominees are on terms of intimate personal and business friendship with the big insurance companies now under investigation. The officials of which Mr. Jerome has pledged himself to prosecute should the current investigation determine them guilty of misconduct in office.

Mr. Osborne criticises the announced determination of the District-Attorney to retain Charles E. Hughes to prosecute insurance cases. "Why," he asks, "retain Mr. Hughes unless you are incompetent or interested?"

"If I am elected District-Attorney of this county," continues Mr. Osborne, "I feel myself strong enough to take the insurance question in hand myself. There are legal difficulties in the way of retaining Mr. Hughes. You know that indictments have been dismissed because special counsel have appeared before the Grand Jury.

"Before you can have a trial you must have indictments. If Mr. Hughes should appear before the Grand Jury indictment would be subject to dismissal."

FATHER OF VICTIM DEFENDS HAZERS

Declares His Son, Who Was Mangled by Train, Was Not Tied to Tracks.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 31.—N. L. Pierson, of this city, whose son was killed by a train at Gambler, O., was awaiting initiation into a Greek letter fraternity Saturday night, was at Gambler at the time.

Today he declared his disbelief in the suggestion of the Coroner that young Pierson may have been tied to the track.

Mr. Pierson went to Gambler to attend the initiation, being a student of Kenyon College, and a member of the fraternity which his son was about to join. He said: "I am certain that Stuart, who had been up all night, waiting for me, dozed off. When the train came around the curve near the football field the light must have blinded him and he sprang to his feet and was caught before he had fully awakened."

GUNS OF TAMMANY TURNED ON HEARST

Concerted Attack on the Municipal Ownership Candidate Begins To-Night.

ORATORS ALL SCHOOLED

Instructed to Attack the Editor from Every Possible Point, and Keep It Up.

A concerted attack upon William Randolph Hearst, his career, his intentions, his sincerity, his morals, his money and everything else in, about and of him will be inaugurated to-night from scores of platforms by hundreds of Tammany Hall spellbinders. The organization has concluded that Jerome has won, and to work further for Osborne would be a waste of time. Hearst is recognized as the sole menace.

A meeting of 200 of the best Tammany spellbinders in training was held last night at Tammany Hall. They were addressed by Thomas F. Grady, Asa Bird Gardiner, Thomas C. T. Crain and Maurice Blumenthal. Here is the substance of their instructions:

"Get After Him," the Cry. "Get after Hearst, Hammer him. Play up the red flag. Accuse Hearst of buying outright the delegates who voted for him in St. Louis. Say that his record in Congress is a public scandal. Hammer him on everything. There is a mine of information open for you—but don't say anything that you can't prove."

The spellbinders were further instructed to defend the Mayor for signing the Hansen gas bill. An exhaustive pamphlet designed to show that the bill was a necessary measure was given to each speaker. The Mayor will himself defend the signing of the bill for the remainder of the campaign and will assist in the attack upon the advocates of the professors of law in five of the leading universities of the country.

Plan Great Parade. What is designed to be the biggest parade ever held by Tammany Hall has been arranged for to-morrow night. It will be participated in by every Assembly district below Fourteenth street, by the Eighteenth and Twentieth districts above Fourteenth street on the east side and by the Seventh and Ninth occupying a similar position on the west side.

The downtown section will form in the side streets off the Bowery and start from Livingston street at 8 o'clock, marching from the Bowery through Seventh street to First avenue, thence north to Fourteenth street, where it will join with the uptown divisions and march west. Mayor McClellan will review the parade at Tammany Hall.

RHEUMATISM AN INSIDIOUS DISEASE THAT BREAKS DOWN THE STRONGEST

Rheumatism does not come on in a day; the disease produces its work silently in the system for years. This insidious disease becomes entrenched in the blood, and some exposure to cold or damp weather, or slight indiscretion brings on an attack. Poor digestion, stomach trouble, weak kidneys, torpid liver, and a general sluggish condition of the system are responsible for Rheumatism. Food souring in the stomach poisons the blood, the failure of the kidneys and liver to act properly leaves waste matter and impurities in the system, which, coming in contact with the natural acids of the body, form uric acid. This is absorbed by the blood, and as it penetrates to the muscles, nerves and bones produces the terrible pains and aches and other disagreeable symptoms of Rheumatism. Life is made a torture by its excruciating pains, nerves are shattered, the health undermined, and if the disease is not checked it breaks down the strongest constitution. It will not do to depend on plasters, liniments, etc.; such treatment is helpful in easing the pain and reducing the inflammation, but does not reach the blood where the real trouble is located. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism by purifying and invigorating the thin, acid blood, driving out all impurities and poisons and sending a stream of strong, rich blood to wash out all irritating particles that are causing the pain and inflammation. S. S. S. stimulates the sluggish organs to better action, tones up the stomach and digestion, restores nervous energy and builds up the entire health. S. S. S. cures Rheumatism, whether acute or chronic, and the cure is thorough and lasting. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice desired without charge.
