ROOSEVELT SAYS HE CANNOT STOP JEW MASSACRES

President Decides He Can Do Nothing Just Now to Check Mobs. OSCAR STRAUS SEES HIM. Czar's Government Horrified, Count Witte Reports, but Powerless.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—President Roosevelt has decided that no action can be taken by this Government at present which will be of any benefit to the Jews in Russia. This information was made public at the White House to-day in the following statement: "Oscar Straus called upon the President early this morning, not to ask him for action, but to consult with him as to whether there was any possibility of action which would result in a cessation of the horrors connected with the massacre of the Jews in Russia. 'The President stated that, of course, he had been watching with the deepest concern the reports of these massacres; that he had been appealed to within the last few weeks to try to take some action, not only in behalf of the Jews in Russia, but in behalf of the Armenians, Poles and Finns. 'The result of the President's inquiries coincide with statements printed in a cablegram from Count Witte to Jacob B. Schiff, shown the President by Mr. Straus, as follows: 'The Government is horrified at these outrages. You know that I do not sympathize with savage outbreaks. All I can do to stop the disorder is done, but as the country is in such an unsettled state the local authorities are often powerless. 'In the conditions of social disorder which actually exist in Russia the President does not see that any action can be taken by this Government at present which will be of any benefit to the unfortunate sufferers for whom we feel such keen sympathy.'"

JEW CUT DOWN IN NEW OUTBREAK.

TOMSK, Siberia, Nov. 6.—The troops to-day were forced to charge with bayonet against a mob which was pillaging Jewish houses. A number were killed and many were wounded. The city is still sacked.

3-DAY MASSACRE IN BESSARABIA.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 6.—The news from the interior shows that there has been little improvement. In some places disorders have recommenced with redoubled fury. The horrible story of massacre at Odessa is not fully known here. In the Caucasus the Tartars and Russians are cutting each other's throats and the Armenians are giving themselves up to pillage and incendiarism. From Bucharest, Bessarabia, comes an entirely new revolting tale. A three-day attack on the Jews began Thursday with every indication of police organization. Jewish students were beaten, the Jewish stores in the markets were sacked during the day and during the night the plunder of residences commenced. Troops arrived on the scene but the following day the work of pillage was resumed before the eyes of the soldiers and police. The prayers of the hunted Jews for mercy were unavailing. Toward noon the torch was applied to stores and houses. The police would not permit the Jews to fight the fire and the troops were withdrawn. Then the pillage began afresh. It was temporarily stopped Saturday morning through the efforts of the Russian peasants; but the police spread false reports, which aroused the mobs there was a renewal of the work of plunder and massacre.

A telephone message from Moscow says the Jews are being stricken with fear of a massacre there. Many of them have abandoned their lodgings and are sleeping in the houses of friends.

FIREMAN LOST LIFE AS OTHERS MADE RESCUES

Assistant Foreman Daniel J. Sheehan Killed by a Falling Wall. PANIC IN TENEMENTS. Fifty Families Fled in Terror as the Flames Spread Over Buildings.

Assistant Foreman Daniel J. Sheehan, of Engine Company No. 67, lost his life to-day in a fire that destroyed the five-story tenement-house at No. 281 St. Nicholas avenue and gutted the upper floors of the three adjoining houses in the row—Nos. 279, 283 and 285. Sheehan was killed by being buried under a wall that was thrown down on his head by the bursting of a boiler. Five firemen he was leading through a smoke-filled alley between two of the burning houses consider their escape from death almost miraculous. Though they were all more or less badly cut and bruised by the falling brick and burning timber, none was very seriously hurt. After the injured men had been dragged to safety and had their wounds dressed by surgeons, they led in the work of recovering their officer's body, digging desperately for twenty-five minutes to recover it from under the tons of debris that buried him. Many Thrilling Rescues. There were many thrilling rescues and the wildest sort of panic among the fifty families in the four tenements. The fire started in the dumbwaiter shaft on the fifth floor of No. 281 St. Nicholas avenue, which is on the corner of One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, from spontaneous combustion of a bundle of rubbish. It gathered furnace heat in the narrow shaft and spread upward, six floors—Hyepion, 101 (Crimmins), 7 to 1 and 2 to 1. Mrs. Frank Foster, 106 (Henderson), 1 to 2 to 1 and 3 to 1. CLOSE MAYORALTY ELECTION IN 'FRISCO. SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 6.—The promise of perfect weather to-morrow indicates that the latest vote event in this city will be polled. This the fusion managers claim, will be to the advantage of their ticket, headed by John S. Patridge for Mayor. The United Republican and Democratic parties are hopeful of success over the Union Labor ticket, led by Mayor Schmitt. The Union Labor people are equally confident, and point to the fact that the betting odds are in their favor.

SEVENTH RACE—Maltie Donahue (6 to 1), 1, Charly (3 to 5 for place), 2, Benevolent 3. BY FRANK W. THORP. (Special to the Evening World.) AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, N. Y., Nov. 6.—There was no mud at Aqueduct this afternoon, as many expected from the showers of the early morning. Just enough rain had fallen to lay the dust, and the track was in excellent condition. More than the usual Monday attendance was attracted by the offering of seven races of a most promising sort. The crowd came to the track grumbling, however, because the Long Island Railroad raised the fare one nickel to-day. The stakes to-day was the Sea-Cliff, a practical walkover for Kiamasha, who had only Alvin to beat. The other fields were well balanced. The good two-year-old colt Phylax was shot at Gravesend this morning. He was suffering from blood poisoning. Brother Frank had No Trouble. Brother Frank made all the running in the opening event and handily won the race by a length and a half from Bellmickler. The latter ran third all the way until into the homestretch, where he moved on and beat Prince Frederick for the place by a half length. Hermitage by a Head. Royal Window went to the front in the second and made the pace, followed by Hambrage, Debar and Zeala in close order. There was no change in the stretch. The Royal Window drew up and Hermitage fought it out with Debar, the former winning by a head from Debar, who beat Lindale a length and a half for the place. Cassandra Came Like a Flash. Cousin Kate and Andria made the running for the first three furlongs in the third race, when Cassandra shot to the front and won by three lengths from Andria, who beat Lindale two lengths for the place. Only Two Started. The fourth race was nothing but a walkover for Kiamasha, who won all the way by four lengths from Amber Jack, the only other starter. New Mown Hay by a Nose. The talent were divided on New Mown Hay and Fioralia in the fifth race, and now accurate their judgment proved as he was shown by the red-hot drive through the last sixteenth Gold Rose made the early pace. Then Fioralia, went to the front and New Mown Hay, closing strong on the last sixteenth, got in time to beat by a nose in a terrific drive. Gold Rose was six lengths away. Pioneer Made All the Running. Pioneer went to the front in the sixth race and won easily by two lengths from Maid of Timbuctoo, who was second all the way. Yachting Girl was third, a length away. Four Hurled in The PENNA. EXCAVATION. Laborers Caught by a Rock as It Was Being Hoisted to a Truck. Four laborers employed in the big cutting at Twelfth avenue and Thirty-second street were badly injured this afternoon by being caught by a rock that slipped from the tacks as it was being hoisted to a truck. The men were taken to Roosevelt Hospital.

JEROME DECLARES HE IS CONFIDENT THAT HE WILL WIN

Climbs Through Window to Address Enthusiastic Crowd Downtown at Final Day Meeting of Vigorous Campaign.

Jerome's crayon portrait, which has looked down on every big Jerome meeting this campaign, faced 1,000 business men—brokers, bankers and clerks—in Beaver Hall, at Beaver, Pearl and Wall streets, where the District Attorney addressed his last noonday crowd to-day. The good-sized hall on the ground floor had been made gay with bunting and flags and medallions. A band played at the street door as 12 o'clock drew near, but the audience needed no "Marching Through Georgia" to bring it together.

JEROME STILL THE FAVORITE AT 2 TO 1

Thousands of Dollars Placed on McClellan To-Day at 2 1-2 and 2 to 1.

The pressure of six rolls of Tammany Hall and Hearst money kept the odds in the election betting on the curb fairly steady to-day. McClellan ruled favorite all through at from 2 to 1-2 to 1, although backers of the field handling Hearst money were willing to take 2 to 1 to get their money down. M. B. Mendham placed $25,000 on McClellan against $10,000. Brokers handling the Hearst betting roll offered 1 to 2 toward the close of the market, figuring that the fight is between Hearst and McClellan, and that including Ivins in the field is of no advantage in placing bets. Horwag & Glazier bet $17,500 against $35,000 on Hearst in several bets with various brokers, including Wrenn Bros., De Witt P. Rosenheim bet $1,000 to $500 on McClellan with J. J. Judge. Mr. Rosenheim also bet $1,700 against $3,400 on Jerome in sums ranging from $50 to $250. C. Hutchins bet $2,500 to $1,000 on McClellan with W. Marks, Dawitt & Co. bet $5,000 to $2,000 the same way with Marks, and then put up $15,000 on McClellan against Rogers & Gould. Sutor Bros., E. D. Brown & Son and others. "Jerome—first in peace, first in war, first in the hearts of his fellow-citizens!" "I've come through windows before," began Jerome, "but never before into the midst of my friends." He was in fine fettle, forcible and witty, driving his words home with vigor. (Continued on Second Page, 1st Column)
