

OIL TRUST WINS AND GETS DELAY IN ROGERS CASE

Attorney-General Hadley May Go Back with Questions Unanswered. NEW LAWYER APPEARS. Has Another Case on Hand, So the Supreme Court Argument Must Wait. READY FOR LONG FIGHT. Missouri Man Accused of Attempting to Try His Case in the Newspapers.

TROOPS SUFFER MAKING WORLD'S RECORD MARCH

Men Gaunt and Horses Like Skeletons as 1,400 Mile Tramp Is Ended. CAUGHT IN BLIZZARD. To Escape Freezing They Kept on the Go for Ninety Mills in Storm. CLOTHING IN TATTERS. One Man Died of Exposure and Others Scarcely Able to Reach Their Destination.

BANK TELLER AND HIS BRIDE, WHO WERE CAUGHT IN JAMAICA

SLASHED NURSE'S THROAT WITH RAZOR. STIR ON THE BALTIC OVER "FAKE" NEWS. DEATHS OF TWO WOMEN SIMILAR

Man Said to Be Conrad Nitzel Attacks Annie Carroll in Her Home. There was considerable of a stir on the White Star steamship Baltic, which arrived to-day, when the passengers according to the main saloon on the morning of Jan. 8 found three remarkable bulletins posted. They were in the form of wireless messages, and though they were at first taken seriously it was afterwards discovered they were the work of some wag.

Counsel for Henry H. Rogers, taking advantage of the delay in the Supreme Court, to-day gained a decided advantage over Attorney-General Hadley of Missouri. Ever since the arrival of the young Attorney-General in New York to assist in the prosecution of the Standard Oil Co. the eminent lawyers on the Rockefeller side have been fighting for delay. It appears now that Mr. Hadley may have to go back to Missouri without having accomplished what he came here to do.

FORT SAM HOUSTON, Tex., Jan. 12.—The Sixth Field Battery of the United States Artillery, commanded by Capt. G. W. Gatchel, entered Fort Sam Houston to-day amid the cheers of the local garrison. The battery broke the world's record for long distance practice marches of artillery, having covered the estimated 1,400 miles from Fort Riley, Kansas, to Fort Sam Houston in thirty-five days.

Mr. Curtis is a big man, with a big head and a big voice. He is earnest and forceful and commands attention. His first move was the characteristic Standard Oil move—a move for adjournment.

ALDERMEN READY TO TAKE UP CONTESTS. Committee Organizes and Gets Notice of Six Fights for Seats in the Board. The Committee on Privileges and Elections of the new Board of Aldermen met this afternoon at the City Hall, Chairman Charles Kuntze presiding, to consider contests.

CONTESTS TO OPEN SOME BALLOT BOXES. Fight for Assembly Seats Is Expected to Aid Hearst's Contentions. The Assembly Committee on Privileges and Elections met and organized to-day in Parlor 81, of the Cadillac Hotel, to take evidence in connection with contests in this county and in Kings. There are four contests, in each case a Municipal Ownership candidate for the Assembly claiming that he was defrauded when his Tammany opponent got the certificate of election.

COOK RESCUED WAITER WHO TRIED SUICIDE. Saw Him Jump Into River and Fished Him Up with a Boathook. Edward J. Flinn, a waiter, tired of life, who has been living at the Mills Hotel, attempted suicide this afternoon by jumping into the Hudson River at West 117th street.

PROF. GUNTON LOSES FIRST POINT IN SUIT. Court Holds that Throwing Paper in Auto Was a Legal Service. Professor George Gunton, editor of Gunton's Magazine, will have to defend the suit of Anisela R. Gunton, the wife of his youth and mother of his children, against him for a separation.

THE CALL OF THE WORLD. In 1935, the twenty-third year of The World's continuous growth since its printing began in 1893, it printed, in its morning and Sunday editions only, 25,000 columns of advertising, an increase of 8,400 columns, divided into 1,104,959 single paid advertisements, a gain over 1934.

MRS. MINOR MORRIS RECOVERING HEALTH. WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—The condition of Mrs. Minor Morris, the principal in the recent White House episode, was so much improved to-day that she was able to answer inquiries over the telephone as to her health.

PRETTY SISTERS SAY TAILOR BEAT THEM. Trouble Grew Out of Charge He Made for Renovating a Seal-skin Coat and Muff. Charged with beating Lillian and Agnes Burns, two handsome sisters of No. 22 West 124th street, Edward Burton, a tailor of No. 60 Columbus avenue, was held in $1,000 bail for further hearing by Magistrate Dakor in the West Side Court to-day.

CAT TURNED ON GAS, EIGHT NEAR DEATH. Joseph Steinthal, his wife and six children came near dying from gas to-day. When they were restored to consciousness they stepped off a playing card and fell into a gas stove, the cook of a gas stove, and after turning on the gas sought a new play thing for the children.

SEAMLESS WEDDING RINGS. Graduates of Old Bill to Gather in Yale Club Luncheon Jan. 19. A Yale Alumni dinner will be held at Sherry's on Friday night, Jan. 19, under the auspices of the Yale Club, but open to all.

GROWTH BY PERIODS. Advs. Published. 1883 86,577. 1886 448,793. 1890 782,794. 1900 874,958. 1905 1,134,959.

WANT DOCK IN GREENPOINT. Delegation Urges Mayor to Favor Plans for Improvement. A delegation of Greenpoint merchants, headed by Mr. O'Hara, of St. Anthony's Church, called on the Mayor this afternoon and asked him to approve a scheme for the improvement of White Creek, near Newtown Creek, in Greenpoint.

UNPURNISHED ROOMS WANTED. A woman who has been in the city for some time and who is looking for a room to rent, is looking for a room to rent in the city.

OPTICAL DEPARTMENT. All eyes are examined and fitted with eyeglasses. The department is equipped with the latest optical instruments.

OIL ADEN SHIP CATCHES FIRE DOON IN THE BAY

Captain's Wife and Crew of the Nannie Swan Promptly Desert. The Standard Oil barkentine Nannie Swan, loaded with coal oil and ready to sail for Pernambuco, caught fire this afternoon while at anchor in the Narrows off Stapleton, S. I. Capt. Higgins was not aboard and his wife and seven members of the crew deserted the ship and went ashore.

MRS. CHADWICK IDENTIFIED AS MADAM DEVERE

Registered as Such in Ohio Prison, Where She Begins Term. COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 12.—Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick arrived at the penitentiary to-day from Cleveland to begin a sentence of ten years for conspiracy to wreck the Citizens National Bank at Oberlin. The woman was taken through the baggage-room under the general waiting-room in the Union Station and hastily placed in a carriage in the driveway and hurried to prison.

BANK SNEAK GOT $3,150 AS CARRIER TALKED

Money Had Just Been Drawn and Was in Satchel. NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 12.—A mystery on robbery occurred to-day in the National Newark Bank, at Clinton and Broad streets. A satchel containing $3,150 disappeared from the bank counter while the man who had just drawn the money turned for a minute to speak with a friend.

Without an active head the men of the crew were unable to do effective work in fighting the fire. Mrs. Higgins became frightened as the flames burst through the forward hatch and crew went with her, taking all the while the flames spread rapidly and got into the cargo of oil, which was in small cases. These exploded rapidly, making tremendous explosions, but because of the fog the fire could not be seen from shore.

As an ex-convict in the secretary's office of the penitentiary, Chadwick was lying in wait for the prison as Mrs. Devere. This woman, who will not allow her name to be used, was brought to the prison and after taking a good look at Mrs. Chadwick, unmistakably pronounced the same woman who had served a term in the penitentiary from Lucas County beginning in 1911 for forgery.

BAD NEWS DROVE TO DRINK AND SUICIDE. Cavanagh Found Dying in Boarding-House with Gas Turned on Full. Two weeks ago John Cavanagh, forty-five years old, got bad news of some sort through the mails and began drinking so hard he lost his job as head waiter at the Martin House, Broadway and Fortieth streets. He had a furnished room in the flat of Mrs. Eileen Bogan, at No. 94 Eighth avenue.

SYMPATHIZED BUT HELD MAN FOR TRIAL. Charles Sturtevant, fifty-five years old, a descendant of the famous old family of that name, was found dead in his bed in the city of New York, at No. 100 West 117th street, to-day by his son, George F. Sturtevant. Heart disease is believed to have been the cause of death.

GOES TO WASHINGTON ON THOMPSON CASE. WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—In response to a summons from Secretary Bell, of the Department of Commerce and Labor, Dr. George W. Stoner, the Marine Hospital officer who signed the affidavit regarding the possession of a machine gun by Mrs. Lovis M. Thompson of England, upon her arrival at New York, to-day by his son, George F. Sturtevant. Heart disease is believed to have been the cause of death.

DEATHS OF TWO WOMEN SIMILAR. Mrs. Seaman was about eighty years of age and lived alone except for one boarder, David Robinson, a landscape gardener. Robinson left the house on Tuesday afternoon and according to the police Mrs. Seaman must have died shortly after he left the house.

COOK RESCUED WAITER WHO TRIED SUICIDE. Saw Him Jump Into River and Fished Him Up with a Boathook. Edward J. Flinn, a waiter, tired of life, who has been living at the Mills Hotel, attempted suicide this afternoon by jumping into the Hudson River at West 117th street.

DEATHS OF TWO WOMEN SIMILAR. Mrs. Seaman was about eighty years of age and lived alone except for one boarder, David Robinson, a landscape gardener. Robinson left the house on Tuesday afternoon and according to the police Mrs. Seaman must have died shortly after he left the house.

DEATHS OF TWO WOMEN SIMILAR. Mrs. Seaman was about eighty years of age and lived alone except for one boarder, David Robinson, a landscape gardener. Robinson left the house on Tuesday afternoon and according to the police Mrs. Seaman must have died shortly after he left the house.

SEAMLESS WEDDING RINGS. Graduates of Old Bill to Gather in Yale Club Luncheon Jan. 19. A Yale Alumni dinner will be held at Sherry's on Friday night, Jan. 19, under the auspices of the Yale Club, but open to all.

SEAMLESS WEDDING RINGS. Graduates of Old Bill to Gather in Yale Club Luncheon Jan. 19. A Yale Alumni dinner will be held at Sherry's on Friday night, Jan. 19, under the auspices of the Yale Club, but open to all.

SEAMLESS WEDDING RINGS. Graduates of Old Bill to Gather in Yale Club Luncheon Jan. 19. A Yale Alumni dinner will be held at Sherry's on Friday night, Jan. 19, under the auspices of the Yale Club, but open to all.