

READ THEIR FEET, NOT THEIR PALMS

Fortune Teller Told Two Sleuths that They Were Detectives.

Mrs. Augusta Zingali, a Mexican woman thirty-three years old, a palmist, born blind, but now with perfect sight and a chin even to second sight, was arranged before Magistrate Pool in the Jefferson Market Court today on a charge of disorderly conduct.

The woman occupies a flat with her husband in West Seventeenth street. Automobiles and "swell" carriages at first attracted the attention of the police and then an "anonymous letter" to Police Commissioner Blinham decided them to investigate.

On Saturday the detectives visited the apartments and after a half dozen stunts and a display of her powers, she was taken to the police station.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

Madame, like all fortune-tellers, is short and stout, has dark skin and eyes and speaking face generally. She took almost every woman that had ascended the delicately shaded room where Madame was seated at a table in the glow of a red table lamp.

GRANDFATHER SHOT FATHER RUSHED TO AN ASYLUM

(Continued from First Page.)

She had charged him with endeavoring to hypnotize her and her brother Cecil. For the discharge of the revolver she was arrested before Magistrate Pool in the Jefferson Market Court today on a charge of disorderly conduct.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

She had taken off nearly all her clothing before she reached the breaker and phoning her father, she was taken to the hospital.

MR. ROSELL'S SISTER WADES CONGRESS LOBBY

Mrs. Cowles Breaks Iron Rule and Causes Stir Among Members.

(Special to The Evening World.) WASHINGTON, Jan. 30.—President Roosevelt's sister, Mrs. W. S. Cowles, wife of Capt. Cowles, Chief of the Bureau of Equipment of the Navy Department, unwittingly violated one of the ironclad rules of Congress today.

Mrs. Cowles, with a party of friends, went over to the House with Senator Warren. They walked to the west door of the Speaker's lobby and the Senator walked in, he having the same privileges as a member of the House.

Mrs. Cowles and her party brushed past the astonished doorknobs and walked into the lobby, which, during the sessions of the House, is sacred to members. Mrs. Cowles and her party freely walked about the lobby, looking at the weather maps, the Weather Bureau-instruments, looked at the pictures of former Senators and generally made themselves at home.

The presence of the intruders in the lobby almost caused a panic among the members at the door. Members came out and looked at the party in surprise, but no one had the temerity to tell Mrs. Cowles that she was violating one of the House rules.

The chief page was sent for, but he passed up the job. The Secretary of the House, who entered the lobby declined to advise her that visitors were not allowed in the lobby during the session.

Finally the assistant doorknobs of the House, Bert Kennedy, was sent for. Much embarrassed, he told Mrs. Cowles of the rule and asked that she and her party leave the lobby and go to the Executive gallery, which she did.

Mrs. Cowles and those with her were great admirers of the House. They were violating the rules and made no objection to leaving.

ANARCHIST AFTER KING ALFONSO

Plotter Who Followed Spain's Ruler to San Sebastian Arrested.

SAN SEBASTIAN, Spain, Jan. 30.—The police today arrested a foreign anarchist who arrived here during King Alfonso's visit.

The King today again lunched at the Hotel de Ville. He was accompanied by the Princesses Ena and Ana of Battenberg.

Princess Ena and King Alfonso arrived here today in an automobile from Biarritz to witness an automobile race. The King and the Princess returned to Biarritz.

The King today again lunched at the Hotel de Ville. He was accompanied by the Princesses Ena and Ana of Battenberg.

ROBBED AND BEATEN IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

Held Up by Thugs, Man Who Received Money Is in Hospital with Fractured Jaw.

Robbed, beaten and knocked in the head, Robert J. Roberts, well known on Staten Island, was left unconscious at the corner of Bay street and Prospect road, at Stapleton, S. I., this afternoon.

Nobody stopped to help him as he lay on the ground. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Robbed, beaten and knocked in the head, Robert J. Roberts, well known on Staten Island, was left unconscious at the corner of Bay street and Prospect road, at Stapleton, S. I., this afternoon.

Nobody stopped to help him as he lay on the ground. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Robbed, beaten and knocked in the head, Robert J. Roberts, well known on Staten Island, was left unconscious at the corner of Bay street and Prospect road, at Stapleton, S. I., this afternoon.

Nobody stopped to help him as he lay on the ground. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Robbed, beaten and knocked in the head, Robert J. Roberts, well known on Staten Island, was left unconscious at the corner of Bay street and Prospect road, at Stapleton, S. I., this afternoon.

Nobody stopped to help him as he lay on the ground. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Robbed, beaten and knocked in the head, Robert J. Roberts, well known on Staten Island, was left unconscious at the corner of Bay street and Prospect road, at Stapleton, S. I., this afternoon.

Nobody stopped to help him as he lay on the ground. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Robbed, beaten and knocked in the head, Robert J. Roberts, well known on Staten Island, was left unconscious at the corner of Bay street and Prospect road, at Stapleton, S. I., this afternoon.

Nobody stopped to help him as he lay on the ground. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Robbed, beaten and knocked in the head, Robert J. Roberts, well known on Staten Island, was left unconscious at the corner of Bay street and Prospect road, at Stapleton, S. I., this afternoon.

DELEEN VICK ON SALARY INCREASES

Resolution Introduced Calling for More Systematic Methods in that Line.

Alderman Myers, as leader of the majority in the Board, today served notice on the McClellan administration that a policy of retrenchment must be pursued.

Since Jan. 1 the heads of departments and Borough Presidents have been raising salaries and creating new positions.

Alderman Myers is chairman of the committee on salaries and offices, and he has been keeping tabs, as it were, on all these increases.

He consulted with his fellow-members of the committee, with the result that when the Board met today he introduced a resolution on the subject.

In the preamble he set forth that the increasing of salaries and creating of new positions should be done on a systematic basis.

Then followed this resolution: "Resolved, That the Board of Estimate and Apportionment be and it hereby is authorized to establish a rule requiring applications for the creation of new positions and grades and the raising of salaries to be made in conjunction with the submission of departmental estimates for the purpose of ascertaining the necessity for the same.

The resolution caused a ripple of excitement in the Board, a ripple recommending an increase of salary for the head bookkeeper in the Controller's office from $500 to $525.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

It was agreed that the resolutions were referred back to the committee after a stormy debate.

AT LEAST THAT'S THE NEWS GIVEN OUT BY RIVAL TONG LEADERS

To Ask Court to Enjoin Merger of Railroad Interests.

The feud between the Chinatown Tong, or societies, the Hip Sing and the On Leong, has been revived again. Representatives of the rival assassination syndicates were summoned to a conference in the chambers of Judge Warren W. Foster, of the Court of General Sessions, this afternoon to sign a treaty of peace.

By the terms of the treaty, Monte Duck, the suave young walking delegate of the Hip Sing Tong, will be enabled to collect his part of the money that accrues from the gambling privilege in Chinatown.

Mr. DeLany was directed by the Mayor today to look into all these questions and to report to him by tomorrow what steps it will be advisable for the city to take.

Aldermen May Act. If Borough President Coler, of Brooklyn, succeeds in pushing through the Board of Aldermen a resolution which he offered this afternoon the local railroad merger may be probed by Charles F. Murphy, acting with a committee of the Board.

The resolution was referred to the Committee on Rules, to report at the next meeting. The preamble says: "It is currently announced that the recent steady progress toward absolute monopoly in the providing of passenger transportation in the city of New York has reached or is about to reach its consummation by the merger of practically all the street car lines into one gigantic and sprawling corporation to be controlled by its own purposes this great city of New York, and whereas,

The individuals and interests who have joined forces for this purpose have, for some time, been in practical control of the transportation service of the city, and have conducted that service without the slightest regard to the public interest, and with an evident intention of creating an heavy tribute as possible upon the public in order to make valuable stock issues, which represents at present no real or legitimate investment, and;

Whereas, these individuals and interests now combined either practically control or are about to obtain the control of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company's System in the Borough of Brooklyn, and intend to do all of these things without respect to and in utter defiance of public opinion, as is made evident by the recent rally of eminent counsel to defend in the courts the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company's insolent claim to the right to extend franchises by injunction, entitling it to do so under the terms of the charter obtained by them four years ago and held in abeyance for in a certain, that the city and not the railroad company shall be compelled to produce proof as to the validity of any franchise or any use of the public streets, and boldly asserting, as their right, did this morning to the Hon. Justice Kelly, of the Supreme Court, in Brooklyn, that this proposition is a claim in violation of the company's fundamental rights.

The resolution calls for a committee of the Board of Aldermen to be named by the chairman with the president of the board and the president of the various boroughs as ex-officio members, to investigate into all the circumstances of the reported merger and all matters relating thereto.

The committee is to have all its powers given by law to the board with regard to the summoning of witnesses, and is authorized to employ special counsel for the purpose of this investigation. The sum of $25,000 is asked for to defray expenses.

At the regular quarterly meeting of the United States Steel Corporation today Marvin Hewitt, President of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, was elected a director to take the place of Marshall Field. The regular dividend of 1-4 per cent. was declared on the preferred stock, payable Feb. 28.

A statement issued showed the net earnings given by the packers in order to enable him to make a full and complete report. I introduced him to Mr. Krauthoff and Mr. McRoberts and told them they could rely on what Garfield said, without fear, as Garfield was absolutely to be trusted and was a gentleman. I was present at the Chicago Club and heard their conversation.

Mr. Garfield said that the information given him by the packers would be used by his department, but not by the Department of Justice. Garfield said that he was a co-operator of the packers and that the best way would be for the packers to co-operate with him. The packers refused to make known the contents of the conversation, as I recall it.

Trouble Too Much for Her. Dr. Pemberton occupies a handsome home at Third avenue and Third street, Long Branch. He has a very pretty cottage three blocks away at No. 42 Chelsea avenue. Some time ago the daughter declared to a friend that she was struggling to bring about a reconciliation between her parents. The girl is twenty-one years old. The son Cecil is eighteen.

More Time to Build Bridge. ALBANY, JAN. 30.—Senator Congress introduced today a bill for the extending from 1897 to 1917 the time of the New York and New Jersey Bridge Company to complete its bridge across the North River.

Tom Rush's Braves to Have Heap Big Dance. Ball of the Osceolas Promises to Be One of the Most Successful Ever.

Whatever discord may exist in Tammany Hall there will be no discord at Lexington Opera-House, fifty-eighth street and Third avenue, when Thomas E. Rush steps out to lead the grand march of the ball of the Osceola Club on Wednesday, Feb. 1. This is the Tammany organization of the Twenty-ninth Assembly District, and Mr. Rush is one of the few Tammany leaders who have succeeded in placing loyal Tammany in Tammany Club positions.

Mr. Rush is credited with being largely instrumental in securing the appointment of Mr. J. J. Mulvey as Commissioner, and of Edward S. Murphy as Superintendent of Buildings. His efforts are correspondingly appreciative. This district, which is the "diamond-district," has a big plurality for McCallister last fall.

Excitement will there will be an entertainment for which the best available talent has been engaged. There are some good entertainers in the Osceola Club besides, and there is no lack of money of entertainment in Lexington Opera-House before, during or after a ball. No doubt exists about the success of the annual winter frolic of the Osceola Club.

FUGITIVE CAUGHT AFTER TEN YEARS. MOUNT HOLLY, N. J., Jan. 30.—After being a fugitive from justice for ten years John Williams, who was recently arrested at Atlantic City for result, has been identified as one of the negroes who murdered John Henke in Burlington, Vt., in 1906.

Thomas Cromwell was declared to be Williams' partner in this crime and both made their escape. Cromwell was afterwards tried and convicted at Lebanon, Pa., for the murder of a man named Schmidt in June, 1901. To one of his associates he confessed to the Henke murder and declared Williams was his accomplice.

Williams escaped on a vessel to South America, but returned five years later from the same. He has been identified as Williams and a reward of $100 offered for his capture.

STEEL TRUST PAYS REGULAR DIVIDEND. Marvin Hewitt Chosen Director in Place of Marshall Field at Meeting To-Day.

At the regular quarterly meeting of the United States Steel Corporation today Marvin Hewitt, President of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad, was elected a director to take the place of Marshall Field. The regular dividend of 1-4 per cent. was declared on the preferred stock, payable Feb. 28.

A statement issued showed the net earnings given by the packers in order to enable him to make a full and complete report. I introduced him to Mr. Krauthoff and Mr. McRoberts and told them they could rely on what Garfield said, without fear, as Garfield was absolutely to be trusted and was a gentleman. I was present at the Chicago Club and heard their conversation.

Mr. Garfield said that the information given him by the packers would be used by his department, but not by the Department of Justice. Garfield said that he was a co-operator of the packers and that the best way would be for the packers to co-operate with him. The packers refused to make known the contents of the conversation, as I recall it.

Trouble Too Much for Her. Dr. Pemberton occupies a handsome home at Third avenue and Third street, Long Branch. He has a very pretty cottage three blocks away at No. 42 Chelsea avenue. Some time ago the daughter declared to a friend that she was struggling to bring about a reconciliation between her parents. The girl is twenty-one years old. The son Cecil is eighteen.

More Time to Build Bridge. ALBANY, JAN. 30.—Senator Congress introduced today a bill for the extending from 1897 to 1917 the time of the New York and New Jersey Bridge Company to complete its bridge across the North River.

At Least That's the News Given Out by Rival Tong Leaders. To Ask Court to Enjoin Merger of Railroad Interests.

The feud between the Chinatown Tong, or societies, the Hip Sing and the On Leong, has been revived again. Representatives of the rival assassination syndicates were summoned to a conference in the chambers of Judge Warren W. Foster, of the Court of General Sessions, this afternoon to sign a treaty of peace.

Advertisement for Dr. Pemberton's medicine, featuring the text 'READ THEIR FEET, NOT THEIR PALMS' and 'Fortune Teller Told Two Sleuths that They Were Detectives.'

Advertisement for 'CASH' featuring a list of items and prices, including 'BLACK WALNUT CREAM', 'CHOCOLATE CREAM', and 'PEPPERMINTS'.

Advertisement for 'ROYAL FURNITURE CO.' featuring a list of furniture items and prices, including 'CASH OR CREDIT', 'CALL AND MAKE', and 'YOUR OWN TERMS'.

Advertisement for 'CITY PARK ENTRIES' featuring a list of names and amounts, including 'FIRST RACE—Seven furlongs: purse, $100' and 'SECOND RACE—Six and one-half furlongs'.

Advertisement for 'Cure Your Rheumatism' featuring a list of names and amounts, including 'GRIFITH'S Compound' and 'CASH OR CREDIT'.

Advertisement for 'CASH' featuring a list of items and prices, including 'BLACK WALNUT CREAM', 'CHOCOLATE CREAM', and 'PEPPERMINTS'.

Advertisement for 'ROYAL FURNITURE CO.' featuring a list of furniture items and prices, including 'CASH OR CREDIT', 'CALL AND MAKE', and 'YOUR OWN TERMS'.

Advertisement for 'CASH' featuring a list of items and prices, including 'BLACK WALNUT CREAM', 'CHOCOLATE CREAM', and 'PEPPERMINTS'.

Advertisement for 'ROYAL FURNITURE CO.' featuring a list of furniture items and prices, including 'CASH OR CREDIT', 'CALL AND MAKE', and 'YOUR OWN TERMS'.