C., FEB. 19.—The steamer Queen City, which has returned from the west coast of Vancouver Island, brings news that Indian seal hunters are on strike, declining to go sealing this spring unless ten dollars a skin is paid to them. Six dollars a skin was given last year. None of the schooners has been able to secure a crew.

Noted Slum Worker Dead.
CHICAGO, FEB. 19.—Mrs. Margaret Curtin, fifty-five years old, a noted slum worker of Chicago, died last night. For seventeen years Mrs. Curtin was a constant visitor to the slums, where she met the prisoners, cheered them with scriptural reading and sent them to the penitentiary. She devoted her time to charity, out she spent her own funds in relieving the distressed and comforting those in trouble. She always declined to accept contributions.

SHE LET HER HOME; SUED FOR DAMAGES

Mrs. Carr Told Jury that Carpets Were Ruined and Walls Marred.

George W. Carr, a well-known lawyer, built the fine mansion at No. 127 West Seventy-seventh street, and he and his wife had occupied it for seventeen years, when, on an ill-conceived and ill-timed plan, they concluded that fortune having favored them, they could afford a trip to Europe.

They found a tenant in the person of Mrs. Mary Thayer Webb, whose family consisted of two grown-up daughters, one of whom was an invalid.

Such was the first misstep. Mrs. Carr will tell you, for her beautiful home, from her point of view, was completely wrecked when she got home on December 19th. As a result Justice Leshon and a jury have had to try a suit brought by Mr. Carr against Mrs. Webb for $100,000 damages.

Just before leaving their home Mr. Carr took an inventory of all his belongings. He said that an iron safe was simply tacked with dirt when we returned to it. Why, it cost $20 to clean the parlor carpet. There was a large stain on it and it was covered with soil. There was soil on the floor, on the walls, on the furniture. A silk piano cover was black with soil. The wall was injured by the furniture and a telephone box on it. The second floor rear room carpet was damaged by grease. A silk covered sofa was torn as if by a dog. The extension dining table was burned. It had apparently been used as an ironing table.

Then the items on Mr. Carr's inventory which were injured or missing was put in evidence. The claim for a kitchen broom was one of the missing items. The padlock on a closet was gone and some dishes were broken. Mrs. Carr said it was awful.

Mrs. Webb's lawyer devoted himself in his closing speech to the claim for a 25-cent broom which had not lasted over seven months service, and the other trifling items in the bill of particulars.

The jury brought in a verdict in favor of Mrs. Webb.

FRIEND OF "BIG TIM" GETS A PLACE.

MIKE PADDEN IS WATER REGISTER

Appointment Indicates that the Sullivans Are with the Mayor.

Col. Michael Clarence Padden, the first lieutenant of Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan, was today given a $1,000 position in the department of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity. The significance of it lies in the fact that it removes his doubts as to where the Sullivans stand on the McClellan-Murphy fight. They are now with the Mayor.

The appointment of Col. "Mike" Padden was made possible by the resignation of Joseph W. Savage from the position of Water Register. The fact that he had been appointed secretary to the Dock Department was published on Saturday and the first Mr. Savage knew of it was when he read it in The Evening World. He was at the City Hall to-day wondering what it all meant. He saw the Mayor, who told him it was in the line of promotion. Then the Water Register walked over to the Park Row Building and had a heart to heart talk with Commissioner Ellison. The latter assured Mr. Savage that if he wanted to remain no one would ever disturb him, that he was a competent official, but that his new position certainly meant promotion. The Water Register thereupon resigned and proceeded to the Tax Department. Ten minutes later Col. Padden was being sworn in by the Mayor as the new Water Register.

THAT is strong talk—the strongest we know how to use. Nothing would excuse such a headline as appears above except such facts as appear below. We are in the habit of telling the exact truth, and are doing everything to make you believe us. An exaggeration is as bad a lie as any other kind. If there is any woman or any dealer who, reading the story below, and on examination of the goods concerned, finds that we have exaggerated by a penny's worth, we should have no reason to expect to be believed hereafter.
