TERRY M'GOVERN AND NELSON MATCHED FOR 20-ROUND BOUT

MILLIONAIRE HAS TWO WIVES; KEEPS BOTH IN LUXURY

Banker T. W. Kiley, of Brooklyn, Admits Bigamy Revealed by Lawsuit and Tells Strange Story to Account for Domestic Tangle.

That Thomas W. Kiley, millionaire bank president and hardware dealer of Brooklyn, has for the past three years kept two wives in separate establishments less than half a mile apart, was the amazing fact that became known late this afternoon.

Mr. Kiley's legal wife lives in his mansion, at No. 201 Jefferson avenue, with her two sons and two daughters by her first husband.

The second wife is housed in a magnificent place, at No. 216 Brooklyn avenue. She is known as Mrs. Flora A. Colt, and lives with her son by her first husband, who was a Westerner.

She was Flora Brown, daughter of Guy R. Brown, a wealthy hardware dealer of the Eastern District of Brooklyn, with whom, many years ago, Kiley started in life as a clerk.

Sues for His Fees. The facts came to light to-day through the filing of a suit against Mr. Kiley and Wife No. 2 jointly by Lawyer John S. Griffith, of No. 65 Court street, for $37,500. Griffith was counsel for Wife No. 2 a year ago in a suit for $250,000 against Kiley.

With tears in his eyes the millionaire banker to-day laid bare his romantic and its strange culmination in a plying lawsuit. He said that he was "ashamed, but it could not be helped."

He said that he had known Mrs. Colt from childhood, and after her husband died five years ago was on close terms of friendship with her. In October, 1903, his wife was very ill when he was called to the National Convention of Bankers in San Francisco.

When we reached Hammond, Ind., we were married under our true names. That marriage cannot be denied. We continued on to San Francisco. I went to the convention, and then took Mrs. Colt down to Los Angeles.

My wife did not die, but grew some better. There was nothing we could do except keep everything secret. I bought the home at No. 216 Brooklyn avenue, furnished it and made it over to Mrs. Colt. Since then I have maintained the home and have given her everything she could want.

Terry McGovern and Battling Nelson are to meet again. They were practically matched this afternoon to meet in a twenty-round bout before the Tuxedo Club, of Essington, just outside of Philadelphia.

All this was arranged this afternoon at the Metropole Hotel, Forty-second street and Broadway, by Tom O'Rourke, representing the Tuxedo A. C., and Billy Nolan, representing Battling Nelson.

This is the first attempt made to hold twenty-round bouts in the East, and this point was discussed at length before Nolan would agree to anything.
