

CIRCUS FOLK PAY TRIBUTE TO BAILEY

Will Assemble at Closed Garden While Great Showman's Funeral Is Held.

For the first time in many years the Barnum & Bailey Circus will suspend two performances to-morrow.

the prayers for the dead at the head of the coffin the circus people will assemble at the Garden and in their own way pay their tribute of respect and affection to the memory of the "Old Man."

No decision has been reached as to who shall succeed Mr. Bailey in the management of the circus.

His old partner and friend is dead. Mr. Starr was sent for last week when it became apparent that Mr. Bailey's condition was serious.

He is one of the directors of the Barnum & Bailey corporation. Fred B. Hutchinson, a nephew of Mrs. Bailey, is a director, and the widow, as holder of the bulk of the stock, will have a great deal to do with the choice of a successor.

business man, expressed in the details of the conduct of his store or factory with his hundreds of employees, would throw up his hands in despair if admitted to the inside secrets of the details of circus operation.

FAMED IRISH PIPER TO PLAY.
